MINE HORROR.

DEATH TO THIRTY.

Men Suffocated In Tunnels.

Fire in Shaft of Oklahoma Coal Mine Cuts Off Escape.

Twenty-eight Bodies Already Taken Out and More Are Buried.

Women and Children Form Pitiable Spectacle at Mouth.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MCALESTER (Okla.) Aug. 26.—More than thirty miners were suffocated in Haley-Ola coal mine No. 1, at Haileyville, fourteen miles east of McAlester, this morning, when fire destroyed the hoisting shaft and air shaft, and cut off air from the men below.

TWENTY-EIGHT BODIES FOUND.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HAILEYVILLE (Okla.) Aug. 26.—Late tonight the bodies of twenty-eight miners, suffocated in the Hailey mine, had been recovered and it was believed one more was in the pit.

The work of rescue continues and a determined fight is being made to reach all parts of the mine in the hope that the bodies of the missing men may be found in some of the deeper workings of the mine which lead in every direction and in some instances are more than a mile from the scene of the explosion.

TORCH SET FIRE.

Shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, W. H. Parker, mine oiler, accidently applied a torch to a barrel of oil and almost instantly an explosion followed which threw flaming oil in every direction and in a few seconds the mine was a seething furnace from which there seemed not the slightest chance of escape. The fire and explosion started almost 300 feet from the surface and as the flames ate their way back into the mine, a dense column of smoke and fire spouted from the shaft.

News of the fire quickly spread among the families of the men who had gone down for the morning shift, and soon the shaft-house was surrounded by a piteous crowd of foreigners, the wives and children of the imprisoned men.

DEAD MEN IN HUDDLE.

Hastily an organized effort was made to reach the suffocating men, but not until after almost twelve hours of an incessant and heartrending struggle was the fire sufficiently under control for the rescuers to enter the mine. The dead bodies were found a short distance from the scene of the explosion, which had occurred at the bottom of the hoisting shaft, and it was evident the unfortunate men had barely time to retreat a short distance before the deadly fumes of burning oil and gas overcame them. The dead men were huddled together and all had been suffocated.

While efforts were being made to quench the flames at the entrance of the mine, other rescuers were making efforts to enter the mine from a sub-entrance almost half a mile distant from the explosion. Smoke and flames poured from the entrance for hours and there seemed no limit to the extent of the damage already done.

RESCUERS WORK ON.

Undismayed, however, and hopeful that their work might result in saving some of their companions, the men labored. Every effort of the rescuing parties to enter the mine was futile until shortly after 8 o'clock tonight, when the flames were under sufficient control to allow forcing an entrance.

It will be many hours before the mine has sufficiently cooled and cleared of smoke to permit searching parties to penetrate every working of the mine. All hope of finding alive any of the men still missing has been abandoned.

The Haley-Ola is owned by Dr. D. M. Hailey, James Elliott and a number of Chicago and St. Louis capitalists, among whom are several of the directors of the Rock Island-'Frisco system.

The property loss cannot be estimated at present, but may reach $50,000. The mine is one of the most valuable in the Southwest.

WOMAN ENDS LIFE.

Registered at San Francisco Hotel as Mrs. E. Koster, Otherwise Unidentified.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—A woman who registered at the Hotel Atherton on Octavia street as Mrs. E. Koster was found dead in her room today, with the end of a rubber tube attached to a gas jet in her mouth. Beside the dead body was a note addressed to G. L. Rickard of Rawhide, Nev., reading as follows:

"I am afraid of suicide. My nerves gave out. What good am I to do any more when you leave me?"

Another note, addressed to E. A. Koster, Ely, Nev., said:

"Just a little sleep today."

Mrs. Koster, when she arrived at the hotel a week ago, said she was worried about her little daughter, who was in the hospital. She retired early last night, and was not seen again until the Japanese servant discovered her dead body, fully dressed, in a chair this afternoon. She said her husband was a Nevada mining man.

LAWLOR DENIES MOTIONS.

All Ruef's Objections to Trial Swept Away and Case Will Now Proceed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Superior Judge Lawlor today swept away the last remaining technicalities delaying the hearing of evidence in the case of Abraham Ruef, charged with the bribery of former Supervisor Furey, and the actual trial will begin tomorrow. In denying the motions of Ruef's attorneys to transfer the case to another court because of the alleged prejudice of Judge Lawlor, to dismiss the indictment on the ground that the prosecution had offered the defendant immunity, and also to strike the case from the callendar, Judge Lawlor held that he was not disqualified, on account of prejudice, from giving the defendant a fair and impartial trial, and that the immunity contract afforded no ground for relief.

The Judge also denied Ruef's motion to allow the cross-examination of himself, Langdon, Heney and Burns on their affidavits regarding the attempted disqualification of the court.

ANSWERED.

BRYAN'S BANK PLAN RECKLESS, SAYS TAFT.

Republican Candidate States His Fundamental Objection to Proposition to Guarantee Deposits—Judge to Go Fishing on Way to Cincinnati.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HOT SPRINGS (Va.) Aug. 26.—"It puts a premium on reckless banking, and is an inducement to 'reckless banking.'"

Thus did Mr. Taft this afternoon, in response to a direct question, state what is, in his opinion, the vital objection to the proposed plan to guarantee deposits in national banks.

"That is the fundamental objection," he said.

"Relieved of the responsibility to and the fear of his depositors, the tendency would be to induce exploitation, manipulation, and the use of assets of banks in a speculative way. It would promote speculation at the expense of his fellow bankers, and that ultimately means at the expense of the depositors. Any proposition as to the amount of the tax that should be assessed as based on the present rate of loss is on an erroneous basis, as the danger of loss of deposits is increased vastly by the proposed system, so that the percentage of the tax would have to be vastly increased.

"Mr. Bryan did favor a guaranty the government to raise the fund by taxing the banks, but the Democratic platform provides for an enforced insurance, which compels all national banks to contribute to the insurance funds to meet the defaults of the speculators.

"I am told that such a law was in force in New York, and that the result was that, when a panic ensued, the tax having been improperly calculated there was not sufficient funds to pay the losses, but this I have only on the authority of a well-known writer on the subject."

There was some discussion here today of the position alleged to have been taken by Senator Hopkins of Illinois, that the policies of a Presidential candidate, so far as they are not contained in the party platform, are not binding on the party.

Judge Taft declined to make the matter a controversial one. It may be said, however, that attention was called to the fact that the rate bill that was recommended to Congress by Mr. Roosevelt was not specifically approved by the Republican platform of 1904, but that it was adopted by a Republican Congress on his recommendation.

The party of Judge Taft will leave the Hot Springs at 8:30 Friday evening in a special car, which is to be attached to the regular train. The newspaper correspondents will accompany Judge Taft in the special car, the cost of which is borne by the party in common.

Athens, O., will be reached at 10:40 a.m. Saturday, and Judge Taft will deliver a non-political address to the veterans there. The departure from Athens will be at 3:28 p.m., and the arrival at Toledo will be after 10 o'clock Saturday night.

In order to avoid Sunday travel, the party will embark at once for Middle Bass Island, where Judge Taft will devote a week or two to fishing.

The only excursion from Middle Bass Island now on the programme is scheduled for September 2, when Judge Taft will attend the G.A.R. reunion at Toledo. Although the date is not definitely fixed, the party probably will leave for Cincinnati September 7.

Judge Taft is receiving a number of communications indicating that the support of the colored voters has not been withdrawn from him. Copies were received today by the candidate of resolutions of indorsement adopted by the Colored Republican Club of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the Charles E. Hughes Afro-American Republican Club of Rochester, N. Y.

MULAI PROCLAIMED SULTAN.

Defeated Aziz Making Way to Coast, Accompanied Only by Some Advisers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

TANGIER, Aug. 26.—Mulai Hafid has been proclaimed Sultan of Morocco at El-Araish, as well as at Rabat and Salee.

Abd-El-Aziz, the Sultan who suffered defeat at the hands of Mulai Hafid last week at a point not far from Morocco City, is making his way out to the coast. He is expected at Casa Blanca. He is accompanied only by some of his advisers. All the tribesmen who were in his service and members of his retinue have returned to their homes.

PRAIRIE SCHOONERS INCLUDED.

Californians in Chicago to Celebrate Admission Day in Novel Manner.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Western Society of Pioneers—the old forty-niners, not one of whom is less than 77 years old—and the California Society of Chicago will give a dinner in the California room of the Grand Pacific Hotel, Saturday, September 12. After the dinner the gathering will adjourn in prairie schooners to Bismarck Garden, where, as announced, a "hog's head and calf's head will be roasted, a keg or two opened, all horse thieves shot and a general night of elemental merriment will be indulged."

TOKIO EXPOSITION POSTPONED.

TOKIO, Aug. 27.—It is confidently asserted that the government has decided to postpone the International Exposition, which was to have been held in 1912, for a period of five years, or until 1917. No official announcement of this decision will be made until the various governments interested are informed.

OVERTAKEN.

AUSTRIAN ARM'S REACH IS LONG.

FUGITIVE HUNGARIAN CAPTURED IN INDIANA.

Alleged Forger of Notes for Ten Thousand Dollars Practically Kidnaped and Taken to Chicago, Where He Is Held for Extradition—Real Estate "Ad" His Undoing.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bela Walder, a Hungarian, was practically kidnaped from Warsaw, Ind., where he had taken refuge, and brought to this city, where he will be held for extradition for having forged notes for $10,000. The crime was committed in Austria-Hungary.

Walder has been sought for three years and was finally located in Indiana through an advertisement wherein he offered real estate for sale. He is held, pending the arrival of extradition papers.

Walder, it is said, was stripped of his title when, three years ago, he fled from Austria-Hungary after peculations amounting to $10,000. Walder's uncle, who was responsible for his capture, is A. N. Walder, a banker and real estate dealer. His home is in Sceksard, Austria-Hungary.

HARROWING EXPERIENCE.

LOST JUDGE BACK TO CIVILIZATION.

AGED JURIST, HALF DEAD FROM EXPOSURE, RETURNS.

After Wandering Helpless and Dazed in Colorado Mountains Two Nights and Days, Rombauer Recovers Trail and Staggers Into Hotel—Feared Freezing If He Rested.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ESTES PARK (Colo.) Aug. 26.—After wandering helpless and dazed in the mountains, without food and shelter, for nearly forty-eight hours, Roderick Emile Rombauer, a St. Louis jurist and author, staggered into the Drake Hotel at 10:30 o'clock today.

For two nights and days the judge had been aimlessly seeking the trail, and he was half-dead from exposure, and ready for the care of physicians when he found shelter today. With careful nursing, Judge Rombauer, who is 74 years old, is expected soon to recover.

Afraid to lie down for a rest lest he would freeze to death, Judge Rombauer had kept constantly going since he separated from the members of the party with which he started from Hallet Glacier, and which he left to make the ascent of Bages Peak, Monday at noon.

PARK BANDIT AT LARGE.

BUTTE (Mont.) Aug. 26.—A special to the Inter-Mountain from Livingston says that the park highwayman is still at large. A message from Fort Yellowstone says soldiers are still searching for the bandit, but that there is small chance of capturing him.

FINAL CURTAIN.

TONY PASTOR PASSES AWAY.

VETERAN THEATRICAL MANAGER SUCCUMBS.

Lost Heavily During Last Two Years, After Having Introduced Some of the Famous American Stars, and Worry Is Said to Have Caused His Decline.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ELMHURST (L. I.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Antonio (Tony) Pastor, the theatrical manager, died tonight after an illness of several weeks. He was 76 years old.

Tony Pastor was the first manager of a variety theater in this city, and one of the oldest and most widely-known theatrical men in the world. He had worried a great deal during the session just passed, over the financial losses of his little music hall, that had been the scene of the early successes of so many of the stars of today—Lillian Russell, May Irwin, Weber and Fields, Sam Bernard and many others.

Receipts began to fall off, and then came the notification from the owners of the property that at the conclusion of the term of the lease, which was only a few months distant, Tony Pastor would have to move. He is said to have lost $100,000 in the last two seasons.

Alaska has 386,021,509 acres; Arizona, 42,769,202; Colorado, 23,696,697; Idaho, 26,785,002; Montana, 46,592,440; Nevada, 61,177,050; New Mexico, 44,777,905; Oregon, 16,857,803; Utah, 36,578,998; Washington, 4,350,001; Wyoming, 37,145,302.

FLOODS IN SOUTH.

FIRE AND FLOODS.

Augusta, Ga., Faces Disaster.

Canal Dam Breaks and Waters Sweep Through the Streets of City.

Cotton Warehouses in Flames and Fire Fighters Are Powerless.

Raleigh, N. C., and Other Towns in Trouble by Rising Torrents.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUGUSTA (Ga.) Aug. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To reach the only wire that had not been torn down by rain and flood, two telegraph operators swam several city blocks to the Chamber of Commerce at the risk of their lives last night and cut in on the one wire still up. The two had to swim directly in the path of the waters that are pouring into the city from the broken dams. At the building the men were obliged to dive, open a window, and in this manner enter the room where the wire could be tapped. Their story of the flood situation appears below.

AUGUSTA (Ga.) via Atlanta (Ga.) 1:30 a.m.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Flood and fire now threaten Augusta, Ga., with destruction.

While the waters are rapidly submerging the stricken city flames have broken out in the warehouse district. Already the big Nixon warehouses have been destroyed, and the fire has gnawed its way into the cotton storehouses, where thousands and thousands of bales are stored.

Because of the flood, which has swept away water mains and practically paralyzed the fire-fighting apparatus of the city, but little check can be offered the flames.

With the breaking of the big dam six miles from Augusta the flood situation reached a climax.

The great body of water, for it is at this point that the Savannah River is diverted into a canal, rushed down upon the city with a mighty roar. It sent the waters of the flood, caused by rains, bounding upward in great waves.

WATER RISING.

At this hour Augusta is from Fifteenth street to the eastern boundary under four feet of water. It is rapidly rising.

The big bridge across the Savannah River went down in the rush of waters and the dam at the locks, seven miles above the city collapsed, adding to the flood.

The number of dead as yet is small. According to the last reports three people are lost, two of these are white, the other a negro.

All approaches to the city are swept away, and it is not expected that any relief can be taken there for at least forty-eight hours. Telegraph and telephone wires are down all through that section of the State, while bridges have been broken away hourly.

Owing to the destruction done by the waters that were whirled into the city so swiftly, the people of Augusta must be suffering from a shortage of food and other supplies.

Many of the people are exposed to the rains, which are still falling, having been forced to take refuge on hastily constructed rafts.

TEN FEET OF WATER.

The Union Depot of the city is under ten feet of water and in the prominent residence district on Green street the water stands eight feet and is rising.

The Sacred Heart Church is in nine feet of water and sacred vessels and golden trappings of the church have been taken out, as it is feared that the church will float away at any time.

Business has been suspended at the City Hall and the important documents have been placed in boats. The foundations of the hall may crumble away at any time and send the building crashing into the water which surrounds it and is rising.

At the present time it is estimated that the damage to the city and immediate surroundings amounts to more than $1,500,000.

The downtown portion of the city is completely demoralized, and no attempt is made to carry on business. All have joined in a grand scurry for safety.

WORST FLOOD IN RALEIGH IN YEARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RALEIGH (N. C.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The heavy rains of yesterday and last night, which washed out bridges in South Carolina, caused some loss of life, damaged crops and were the source of a great deal of alarm, have ceased their destructive work. ATLANTIC FLEET.

SAY GOOD-BY TO SYDNEY.

American Battleships Sail for Melbourne.

Harbor Lined by Thousands to Bid Farewell.

Hospitality of Australians Cements Friendship.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SYDNEY (N. S. W.) Aug. 27.—The fleet of American battleships sailed from this port this morning, bound for Melbourne. The sky was cloudless, the sun was warm, and only a moderate sea was running.

At 8 a.m. the flagship Connecticut weighed anchor, and led the warships in single line out past the sloping shores of the harbor, which were crowded with thousands of persons, who had gathered to bid the fleet farewell.

The Connecticut cleared the Heads at 8:40 o'clock, and the last battleship cleared twenty minutes later. Then followed the Glacier, the Panther and the Ajax. A mile outside they turned to the south, and at a speed of 10 knots soon disappeared.

Sydney has given of her best to make the stay of the Americans in this port a memorable one. For six days the officers and men were feted and entertained in every conceivable manner, and not one untoward incident occurred to mar this notable event in Sydney's history.

PAPER'S COMMENTS.

Speaking of the visit the Sydney Herald says: "The American fleet's visit has enabled us to realize the meaning of a sea power. Now that the bond has been formed and a wider outlook obtained with the same blood in our veins, the result is bound to be helpful. It has been good to get closer to America and to know that Australia has been rediscovered."

The Telegraph says: "The visit is of historical significance and of greater importance to the relations between the two countries, based on common political aspirations and ties. The men's conduct has been admirable. Sydney never had such a week; the high note of enthusiasm was sustained. The British colony feels a fraternal pride in the progress of the great republic and a strong sympathy in every situation where American interests are seriously concerned."

FINAL ENTERTAINMENTS.

The public school demonstration took up a part of the morning yesterday, and in the afternoon Admiral Sir Harry Rawson, the Governor of New South Wales, gave a brilliant garden party to a large number of guests, including Admiral Sperry and the senior officers of the fleet.

At noon the government gave a luncheon to visiting and local journalists at which Admiral Sperry also was a guest.

The admiral made a brief address and received an ovation. Nothing could have been more gracious or acceptable than the welcome given his fleet by the people of Sydney, he said, and nothing could be more significant of the continued good relations based on common aspirations of the American people and the people of Australia.

PRETTY SPECTACLE.

Forty thousand persons, including Lord Northcote, Governor-General of Australia and Lady Northcote; Sir Harry Rawson and his wife, many officers and men from the fleet and a large proportion of the people of Sydney, gathered at the cricket grounds and witnessed the evolutions of the school children. The spectacle was exceedingly pretty.

Eight thousand children in vari-colored dresses participated in living tableaux which represented among other things the words "Hail Columbia" in living columns. The children in dresses giving the proper colors formed a huge shield of the flags of the United States and Australia intertwined and this evolution evoked storms of applause. The American national anthem was sung by a large chorus and there was also May pole dancing, flag and club drills and marches.

At the Stadium in the afternoon Bauer defeated Frederick for the featherweight championship of the fleet.

WELCOME PROMISED.

The Hon. T. Bent, premier of Victoria, has sent a telegram to Admiral Sperry assuring him of the whole-hearted welcome that will be given the American visitors at Melbourne where the fleet is due August 29. Melbourne is busy with preparations suitable to receive the visitors.

Admiral Sperry last evening gave a dinner on the flagship in honor of Lord Northcote, Sir Harry Pawson, then Lord Mayor of Sydney, and the commonwealth and State Ministers.

There were two baseball matches in the afternoon in which the Australian nines were victorious.

A rifle match shot off in the evening resulted in a victory for the American team. There were twenty men on a side, seven shots each at each range. The American team won with a total score of 1884 to 1755 for the New South Wales team.

SPERRY'S FAREWELL.

In an ice hockey match at the Glacarium, a team from the fleet defeated an Australian team 5 to 1.

Admiral Sperry in his farewell to the city of Sydney said:

"This visit ever will be remembered by the men of the fleet and by the people of America as an epoch making international event.

"We have been greatly enlightened regarding the wonderful progress and development being made by the island continent, and we must readjust our former ideas of this prosperous young country which is destined to play a great role in the commercial and industrial development of the Pacific. The knowledge gained by the men of this fleet will be disseminated throughout America, and lead to results beneficial to both the commonweath and the United States.

"Americans hope that the time is not distant when the Uinted States and Australia will be brought into closer contact through the development of their commerce, and I trust that the completion of the Panama Canal will open a new field of advantageous relations."

PRESIDENT AT CEREMONY.

JORDANVILE (N. Y.) Aug. 26.—With a ceremony in which President Roosevelt took a prominent part, the Jordanville public library was today presented to the people of this community, the donors being Douglas Robinson of Mohawk and New York; Mrs. Robinson and Harriet D. Wolrich Whitmore, Mr. Robinson's sister, who erected it in memory of Mr. Robinson's father and mother; Douglas and Fannie Robinson.

Husband and Wife Separated by stories which led to killing of William E. Annis, whom Capt. Hains believed had ruined his home.

LOYAL WIFE.

MRS. ANNIS TELLS STORY OF SHOOTING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. William E. Annis, wife of the man who was shot down by Capt. Peter C. Hains of the United States Army, because of his relations with the officer's wife, Mrs. Claudia Libbey Hains, today told for the first time her story of the shooting of her husband.

She said that on the afternoon of the races, while watching her husband in his boat, she saw the Hains brothers walking about on shore.

"When Will, in his boat, returned from the race and approached the float, Thornton Hains and Capt. Hains approached the corner and stood over Will. Capt. Hains knelt down to reach over the side into the boat. At his side, almost within two feet, stood Thornton Hains.

"At once I feared that they were going to hurt my husband, and I shouted to Will to look out. Before he could move, the first shot was fired.

"I ran down the gangplank to the float and started toward Capt. Hains, thinking to throw myself between him and my husband. As I neared him Thornton Hains turned upon me, and, pointing his gun at me, said:

"'You get back, or you'll get it, too.'

"I still maintain absolute confidence in my husband's faithfulness. No stories that they can tell will affect his memory, and when the time comes I shall take the stand in court and do what I can to bring about the punishment of his cowardly murderers."

A letter, said to have been written by Mrs. Claudia Hains to William E. Annis after her alleged "confession," is in the possession of counsel for Capt. Hains and Thornton Hains. Mr. McIntyre will offer this letter as evidence at the trial. It is regarded as highly important. What its nature is Mr. McIntyre will not disclose at this time, nor how it came into the possession of the defense. The presumption is that the letter was never mailed, but was intercepted before it could be entrusted to the mails. It was written two or three days after the confession, Mr. McIntyre says.

A new twist was given the Bayside Yacht Club tragedy today by A. C. Birchfield, a friend of the murdered Annis, who was present when the latter was shot.

"T. Jenkins Hains," declared Mr. Birchfield, "took a position where he could command, with his drawn revolver, all avenues of approach to the landing stage where the tragedy was enacted.

"As Capt. Hains drew his revolver and pointed it at Mr. Annis, Mrs. Annis started to rush to the assistance of her husband, T. Jenkins Hains, pointing his pistol at her, said:

"'Get out of here, or you'll get the same thing.'

"Had it not been for T. Jenkins Hains standing in a commanding position, with a loaded revolver in his hand and menace in his eyes, warning Mrs. Annis and other bystanders back, Hains would have fired only one shot.

"He would have been seized before he could have fired another."

ARTIST EARLE, IN TEARS, REPENTANT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ferdinand Pinney Earle, the artist, who passed last night in Orange county jail on the charge of having strangled and choked his affinity wife, who was Miss Julia Kuttner, the soul-mate for whom he discarded his first wife and son less than a year ago, and who is now the mother of a baby one month old, was tearful and anxious for a reconciliation today.

A guard has stood over him all night, for Sheriff Becker feared that the man would try to kill himself. The guard didn't sleep a wink, nor did the artist. The Sheriff told the guard to watch closely every movement of the prisoner, for there had been threats of suicide before.

"I think this whole matter could be fixed up easily if I have a chance to see my wife," said the artist. "I want to be reconciled to her. I want to ask her to forgive me."

Although he had told Justice Carpenter yesterday when he was arrested that he didn't want to have a lawyer and would remain in jail rather than go out on bail, Earle has changed his view this morning. He sent for Charles W. Chappelle, a lawyer of Goshen, and they went over the case. An arrangement was made for the lawyer to ask for bail from Judge Royce tomorrow. It is expected that the amount will be fixed at $1000.

"I didn't realize what I was doing when I was taken before the justice yesterday," said the artist. "My brain was in a whirl from the shock of the arrest. I did not think that this was a serious charge, and when I pleaded guilty it was for the purpose of saving my wife from notoriety and trouble. I thought that the case would be ended if I passed a day or two in jail. The charge against me is true to a certain extent. It is just true enough to bear out the technical charge."

Later on Mr. Chappelle explained to him that inasmuch as he had pleaded guilty and that he had been held to the grand jury, the complaint could not be withdrawn. That caused the artist to feel that he was in a bad case, and he talked over many plans to escape. Mr. Chappelle told him if no evidence was presented to the grand jury the case would be thrown out, and no true bill found.

When that avenue of escape was shown to him he brightened up considerably. He believed that he could arrange matters so that the case would be dropped.

After the news of Earle's change in demeanor his wife expressed a willingness to overlook the treatment which resulted in her husband's arrest. The trouble between the couple arose because Earle had forbidden his wife to nurse the baby.

ROCKEFELLER AS HUMORIST.

Sends Facetious Letter of Greeting to the Association of Press Humorists.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER, Aug. 26.—The convention of American Press Humorists today elected J. Edmund Vance Cooke of Cleveland, secretary-treasurer and re-elected Frank J. Searight of Los Angeles, president. The matter of the next meeting place was left to the Executive Committee and instructions given the secretary to investigate the possibilities of Panama, Cedar Point, O., Atlantic City and Put-in-Bay, Island, Lake Erie, for the next meeting place.

The following letter from John D. Rockefeller was read:

"Forest Hill, Cleveland, Aug. 19.

"Gentlemen: With the pleasant memories of an official call by the American Press Humorists, I send you my best wishes for a successful convention. The echoes at Forest Hill still laugh, now and then, over quips sprinkled through our quiet atmosphere by your members. My own success in appropriating those jokes of yours and in passing them off as my own has made me feel that I am almost entitled to a union card in your order. May you always be able to collect for your witticisms on the union scale! Speaking seriously, as one should to professional humorists, the rest of the world owes you real gratitude and the best of good wishes, gentlemen. You are the true specialists in dyspepsia. Charity is born of a good, hearty, honest laugh. It spreads a kindlier feeling among mankind. I wish you collectively and individually all success. I am sorry that I can not attend your sessions. I hope to receive you again some day, at my home.

"Fraternally yours,

"JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER."

MURDER WILL OUT.

OAKLAND, Aug. 26.—Workmen employed in digging a sewer trench at Second and Broadway, yesterday, discovered the skeleton of a man and the police officials now believe the remains are those of a miner named Walsh who disappeared and was supposed to have been murdered in the vicinity of yesterday's gruesome discovery, in 1870.

John Touhey, former member of the local police force, and who was a detective in 1869-70, recalls the disappearance of Walsh very clearly and states the man resided with a family then living at about the place where the bones were found. There is no indication of murder, but as Walsh is supposed to have been struck down and robbed, the effects of the blow would not be apparent in the advanced stage of decomposition the bones have reached.

PHONOGRAPH FOR IGORROTES.

Prof. Starr of University of Chicago Is Living Among Them to Get Records.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. W. D. MacClintock of the University of Chicago has returned from the Philippines, where he went in February, and told of the work of Prof. Frederick Starr, the anthropologist.

Prof. MacClintock with Starr, Prof. G. H. Roberts of the University of California and Prof. J. D. Burks of the Albany Teachers' College, went to the Philippines to lecture to the first vacation assembly of American teachers there.

"Prof. Starr remained after the teachers' assembly to visit the Igorrote tribes and to live among the Bogobo people of Mindanao, of whom he hopes to make full anthropological studies," said MacClintock. "He will collect the tribal folk-lore and as many of their implements of war and of domestic life as possible. In making studies of savage language, music and primitive forms of drama, Prof. Starr uses the phonograph."

RACE WAR.

WOMAN LEADER OF MOB DIES.

Mrs. Kate Howard Commits Suicide Upon Arrest.

Accused of Leading Lynchers of Negro.

Denied Responsibility for the Springfield Riots.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Kate Howard, the Springfield "Joan of Arc," who is said to have led the fierce mob during the recent race riots, made good her boast tonight that she would die by her own hand if pushed too far.

At 6:15 o'clock she died at the county jail a few minutes after she had been arrested on a charge of murder. Poison, swallowed while in the custody of an officer at her home, did its deadly work while en route to the prison and she collapsed before entering the steel doors, dying a few minutes later.

To the last the woman on whose shoulders had been laid much of the responsibility for the reign of terror that possessed Springfield on August 14 and 15, denied her guilt. Her last words to the officers who had arrested her were:

"I am not guilty of the murder of any one."

This afternoon the special grand jury investigating the race riots returned its first indictments for murder. The indictments were returned for the lynching of Scott Burton and William Donegan, the two negroes who met death at the hands of the mob. Mrs. Howard and Abe Raymer were charged with having led the mob which lynched Burton early Saturday morning, August 15.

The Seventh Regiment was sent back to Chicago today, leaving the situation in the hands of the Sheriff and police.

Andrew J. Gordon, negro, former member of the St. Louis detective department, was arrested yesterday by deputies on a charge of shooting William Bowe, chief deputy to County Treasurer James A. Hall, during the recent riot in Springfield. Bowe is a patient in St. John's hospital and will probably recover.

The arrest of Gordon followed an investigation that has extended over a week. Gordon denied his guilt.

Bowe was returning to his home on the night of the riot when he was held up by a mob of negroes and robbed of his diamond ring and $25. Afterward an attempt was made to hang Bowe, but William Farmer, a negro, made a plea and the man's life was spared. Gordon is said to have fired a shot in Bowe's body as the man was on the ground.

When the deputies went to arrest Gordon many white residents assembled. They were soon dispersed, and Gordon was taken to the county jail where the case will be probed by the special grand jury.

NUDE IN ART BARRED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The nude in art must not be displayed at the Iowa State Fair and especially when the nude figures are painted daintily on China. This is the decision of T. J. Legoe of What Cheer, superintendent of the fine arts building at the State Fair, and to back up his order he has hung huge cards over all china paintings containing flesh colored nude figures of women. High art of that character he declares is demoralizing. The painting was all done by women artists and today they held an indignation meeting to decide what action to take.

RAISE BY JOHN D.'S GIFT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The new salary schedules for the members of the University of Chicago faculty were completed today. The readjustment was made possible by John D. Rockefeller's recent addition of $2,000,000 to the university's endowment fund. Heads of departments are raised from $4000 to $6000; professors not department heads, $3000 to $4500; associate professors, $2500 to $3000; assistant professors, $2000 to $2500; instructors, $1200 to $1800.

KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SPRINGFIELD (Mo.) Aug. 26.—North-bound passenger train No. 206 on the St. Louis and San Francisco Railway known as the Southeastern Limited, running between Birmingham, Memphis and Kansas City, was partially derailed this morning, two miles north of Brandsville, Mo. James O'Call, the fireman, was killed; H. B. Colwin, the engineer, of Springfield, was fatally scalded; a mail clerk was probably fatally injured and seven passengers were more or less seriously injured. The engine, the mail and baggage cars turned over and were badly damaged. The accident resulted from a defective track. The wrecked train carried a heavy list of passengers.

PIGEON'S LONG FLIGHT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EAST LIVERPOOL (O.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Silver Bill," a homing pigeon owned by William McGonnigle of this city, has arrived here from Denver, a flight by air line of about 1230 miles. The time of the flight was thirteen days and three hours.

PERSISTENT SAFE BLOWERS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) Aug. 26.—Four robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to loot the Rushville State Bank at Rushville, this county early today. When charges of nitro-glycerine sprung the door so it would not open, the cracksmen transferred operations to the postoffice. One of the safe doors in the postoffice was blown into the street and $500 in stamps and cash was secured. Officers are in pursuit.

RUNAWAY ON WAY HOME.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—James T. Russell, who ran away from home eight years ago to be a cowboy, is returning to Chillicothe, O., on a bicycle, which he has ridden from Sacramento, Cal. He arrived in Chicago yesterday after a ride of 3491 miles, which was marked only by minor accidents to his machine. Russell left Sacramento March 20, and after crossing 800 miles of desert, earned money for the remainder of the journey by working in the harvest fields.

CLAMORMANIAC TRIES POISON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

EAST ST. LOUIS (Ill.) Aug. 26.—The climax to the strange case of Robert Caulfield, a boilermaker, who is suffering from clamormania—a passion for noise—came last night when he swallowed two ounces of iodoform at the City Jail, Belleville, where he had been taken following a desperate struggle with a policeman on a street car. Caulfield is in the County Hospital. His chances for recovery are slight. Monday night the boilermaker was taken to St. Mary's Hospital. The quietness of the place caused him to rave incessantly, and it was decided to take him to the Belleville Hospital. Handcuffed and with a policeman, Caulfield was placed aboard a car. As soon as the car entered the quiet country he became violent and attacked the policeman. During the struggle the handcuffs broke and Caulfield beat the officer over the head with them. After fifteen minutes the policeman overcame the clamormaniac and later landed him in jail. Five minutes after he was locked up, Caul-

RESCUED FROM FOREST FIRE.

Hemmed in by Circle of Flames Victim Was About to Hang Himself.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Surrounded by forest fires, with flames and smoke blocking every avenue of escape, "Bill" McMillin of Prineville had a remarkable escape from death this week.

Believing his death was only a matter of a few hours, and suffering horribly from smoke and the heat, he made all arrangements to hang himself to a tree. A party of fellow-fire fighters broke through the wall of flame on one side of him and carried McMillin to safety. When found he had been driven almost frantic by the suffering he had undergone.

After he had rested awhile he recovered from his awful experience and told his rescuers that had they arrived a few minutes later they would have found his dead body, as he had made up his mind to escape further suffering. He had given up all hope of being rescued alive.

McMillin had taken a rope from his horse's halter and had thrown it over a convenient limb. While engaged in fire fighters who were bent on rescuing McMillin, crazed by his suffering thought he had been deceived that the noise was the roar of flames. An instant later his companions rushed to him and took him to safety.

Portland Police Make Arrests in Residence District and Capture Outfit.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] What the police believe was a "society opium joint" was raided at 2 o'clock this morning and two women and two men were arrested.

The place is located in the residence district and is patronized by white people secretly, no Chinese going near it. Detectives have been watching No. 409 Stark street for some time and this morning decided to raid it. Jessie Thomas, May Roberts, Edwin Wichler and Harry Grow were taken to police headquarters and are out on bail.

A complete layout for smoking the drug was captured. This is the first time in years that an opium smoking joint has been found in that neighborhood, which is in the heart of DYING CONFESSION.

INNOCENT MAN JAILED.

PECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Aug. 25.—Just be- being taken to the scaffold, on 14th inst., E. W. Hawkins made a nfidential confession to the Sheriff, ther Timmermans and several news- r men, to the effect that he had perjured testimony in California led to an innocent man being to Folsom. Father Timmermans te the Governor of California, set- forth the details of the confession, [illegible] absolution of the church he adopted in his last days of life.

CROPS TOO BIG TO PICK.

Unable to Handle the Fruit in Sutter and Yuba Counties.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 26.—The fruit crop in Sutter and Yuba counties is so big that it cannot be handled with the help available. Three thousand people are now employed in picking and packing, but much fruit will go to waste if more laborers are not soon secured.

The man wronged is George Dean, now serving a thirteen-year sentence for burglary, committed in December, 1904, in Vallejo, Cal., on Santa Clara street. The pair had been in jail a short time before, at Fairfield, the county seat of Solano county. There Dean secured Hawkins's enmity by blocking his escape from jail. A rambling and indefinite letter has just been received by Sheriff Pacheco from Dean, stating that he had been advised of Hawkins's confession, and urging the Sheriff to assist him that justice be done. Affidavits will be sent to Gov. Gillett, reciting the text of the confession, and it is expected the Governor will take them up with collateral testimony, with a view to pardoning Dean, if satisfied of his innocence.

BOY AT TRAINING SCHOOL IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Apprentice on Yerba Buena Island Hung by Shipwater and Rescued When Eyes Were Bulging Out and Tongue Swollen—Court-martial for Two Suspected.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The Bulletin today prints a story of the hazing at the naval training station at Yerba Buena Island of Earl Irey, a 21-year-old apprentice on the training ship Pensacola, which will probably result in the loss of sight by Irey, and the court-martial of O. F. Guy and J. Valerius, two shipmates.

The hazing, it is said, occurred August 10, and every effort has been made to keep the incident from becoming public.

According to the story, Irey was caught by Guy and Valerius as he was preparing to retire for the night, a noose was fastened tightly around his neck, the rope passed over a hook, and he was swung clear of the deck, remaining suspended for five minutes.

He was found in this position by two masters-at-arms, his eyes bulging out and his tongue swollen and black.

For days he lingered between life and death, and the doctors now say that he has lost the sight of one eye, and probably both.

Irey will be sent to his home in Oklahoma.

COMPLETE COAST WIRELESS.

Experts Leaving Mare Island to Establish Last Station in Alaska.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MARE ISLAND NAVY YARD, Aug. 26.—A party of wireless telegraph experts left the navy yard today en route to Alaska, where they will establish a new wireless station near Valdez.

The contractors are now at work on the power buildings for the station which will cost $30,000, and it is estimated that the equipment for wireless telegraphy will cost an equal amount additional. The entire outfit, including two steel masts, has been assembled at the navy yard and will be shipped from here.

Sixty days will be required to complete the work at the station, which will be the last of a chain of stations established at intervals of about 200 miles along the coast from Point Loma, near San Diego, to Alaska.

The navy yard has received orders to prepare the outfits for two new wireless stations to be established in the Philippines during the fall.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

OAKLAND, Aug. 26.—Dist.-Atty. Brown today presented to the attorneys for Peter and John Claudianes copies of the testimony taken before the grand jury upon which the indictments arising out of the dynamiting of the home of James L. Gallagher, were returned against the two Greeks. After the transcripts had been given to the attorneys, Superior Judge Ogden continued the cases for one week, when the two brothers will be arraigned.

Depositors Ask Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—One hundred and sixty-two depositors have made written demands upon Receiver E. J. LeBreton, of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, demanding the return to them of cash and checks aggregating $50,732, which it is alleged was received by the officials of the company there through branch banks, after the main institution had suspended business on October 30, 1907. The attorney for the receiver stated that the claims will be contested.

Broker Lynch's Bail Reduced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Bail for John J. Lynch, the mining broker arrested at Reno and brought back here on a charge of felony embezzlement, based upon the alleged disposing of pledged securities in the form of Ocean Shore Railroad bonds, was reduced today by Police Judge Cabaniss from $30,000 to $15,000 bonds or $12,000 cash. The case was transferred to the department of Judge Weller in the Police Court, before whom Lynch will be arraigned tomorrow.

TREADWELL IN TIGHT PLACE.

J. Dalzell Brown Says He Did not Tell Truth.

Defendant Handled Colton Bonds, He Says.

Trial of Perjury Charge Is Commenced.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—J. Dalzell Brown, former manager of the California Safe Deposit & Trust Company, was the prosecution's strongest witness in the trial of James Treadwell, charged with perjury in the testimony he gave before the grand jury in connection with the matter of the embezzlement of the Colton securities by officers of the wrecked bank.

Brown told of Treadwell's knowledge of all of the transactions of the bank during the days of the financial panic of last November, when the Colton securities were hypothecated several times, and finally sold to bolster up the bank's financial condition.

He went minutely into the details of the placing of the securities with an agent who negotiated for loans on them, and said it was Treadwell himself who made the negotoations with the agent.

DEFENSE DESPERATE.

Brown's testimony was very damaging to the defense, and the lawyers for Treadwell made desperate efforts to keep it out of the record, but were unsuccessful.

Brown's testimony, however, was corroborated by R. M. Gunn, the broker who negotiated the loans, and F. W. Wolfe, cashier of the San Francisco National Bank, who identified Treadwell's signature and important documents.

The attempt of the defense is to prove that Treadwell, when he transacted the business for the bank, did not know that the securities were those owned by the Colton estate, held in trust by the bank.

FOREMAN UNCERTAIN.

Alonzo B. McFarland, foreman of the present grand jury, was on the witness stand this morning.

In the cross-examination of McFarland by Treadwells's array of attorneys, the witness was somewhat hazy and uncertain as to what particular "securities" Treadwell was interrogated about. Counsel for the defense sought to draw the deduction from McFarland's replies, that if the foreman of the grand jury was uncertain what securities were referred to when Treadwell was questioned as to their whereabouts by the grand jury, the defendant could not have known when he answered in the negative. McFarland was preceded by F. W. Wolf, of the San Francisco National Bank, who transferred to writing the letter acknowledging receipt of the Colton bonds which had been placed with the bank to be sold.

WOMAN PICKPOCKET MYSTERY.

Mrs. Irene Hawley Duff at Reno, Says That She Was the Wife of Judge.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Taken into court today on the charge of being a notorious pickpocket, Mrs. Irene Hawley Duff, whose arrest yesterday created a sensation here, stated she was the divorced wife of Judge Hawley of Boise, Idaho, who assisted in the prosecution of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. The woman's story was listened to with wonder. At the end she denied the charge against her.

Mrs. Hawley combines generosity with other traits, as she recently contributed $50 to the family of Policeman Brown, killed in a street battle with bunco men. Mrs. Hawley did not allow her gift to become known.

The alleged pickpocket will be in court again tomorrow.

DOLLARS END CHARIVARI.

George Wingfield Showers Serenaders With Coins and Scramble Stops Din.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Wingfield and bride's charivari reception in Goldfield last night, on their arrival from a wedding tour of Southern California, created a sensation because the society people who attended quit playing musical instruments and Chinese tom-toms to join in a scramble for the several hundred silver dollars which the millionaire mine owner threw into the crowd. Women and children fought for the coins.

Mrs. Wingfield, who was Banker Murdock's daughter of San Francisco, took apartments in the Consolidated Mining Company's office building temporarily. Late in the evening the street was filled with the charivari party. Wingfield had the dollars ready and the serenade was soon ended.

NURSES RESCUE PATIENTS.

Fire in Redding Hospital Threatens Helpless Inmates, Who Are Carried Out.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDDING, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A fire that damaged the St. Caroline Hospital $1000 caused great alarm this afternoon because of helpless patients. Before the firemen arrived the smoke filled the upper stories almost to suffocation and poured out through every open window. The nurses braved the stifling smoke and before the department arrived carried to safety outside four helpless patients. Within an hour the patients were back in their quarters and none the worse for the excitement.

POLITICAL.

HEDGING ON GOV. HUGHES.

Hitchcock Declines to Discuss New York.

No Choice Effected at Oyster Bay Conference.

Governor not Yet Invited to Speak in Campaign.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the National Republican Committee today declined to discuss the New York State primaries with respect to any possible effect they might have on the Governorship nomination and later upon the national ticket in New York State. He insisted that he had not committed himself in any manner on the Governorship and said that he did not think that he was called upon to do so.

In regard to the recent conference at Oyster Bay, which gathering was followed by a statement from James S. Sherman, the Republican candidate for Vice-President, that the preponderance of opinion there was favorable to Mr. Hughes, Mr. Hitchcock said:

"Mr. Sherman stated explicitly that no determination of the Governorship matter was effected."

The Governor has not been invited to speak in the campaign. It is said no invitation will be extended to him until after the New York State convention. The engagement which Gov. Hughes has to speak at Youngstown, Ohio, September 5, was not made under the auspices of the national organization. If Gov. Hughes is renominated the directors of the speakers' bureau of the National Committee will begin immediately to book the Governor for as many speeches as he will consent to make.

West Virginia political situation, which has proved so perplexing to Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and was submitted also to Mr. Taft at a conference at Hot Spring, Va., was today referred to a subcommittee of the National Committee for investigation.

Chairman Hitchcock arrived in New York from his New England trip today. He said he will spend the remainder of the week here in conference with political leaders, going then to Chicago for about a week.

The western speakers' bureau has not been organized yet, and some one must be found to take this work off the hands of Senator Borah of Idaho, who is due in Vermont to make a number of speeches.

PROHIBITIONISTS CONVENE.

MEET AT PACIFIC GROVE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PACIFIC GROVE (Cal.) Aug. 26.—The California Prohibition Convention was called to order in Assembly Hall this morning at 8:30 o'clock by its temporary chairman, E. S. Rich.

The report of the Committee on Credentials indorsed eighty-six delegates as duty accredited.

The Platform and Resolution Committee presented their report, as follows:

"The Prohibition party of California, in convention assembled, in Pacific Grove, acknowledging Almighty God as the source of all authority and power of government among men, hereby pledge our loyalty to the national Prohibition party, and affirm our faith in the platform adopted at our national convention at Columbus, O., and pledge our most earnest efforts to secure the election of our national candidates, Eugene W. Chafin and Aaron S. Watkins, and further express our position upon State issues as follows:

"We favor the passage of a bill by the Legislature submitting to the voters of the people of California an amendment to the constitution of the State, prohibiting forever the manufacture, sale and importation of all alcoholic liquor for beverage purposes, and hereby pledge our candidates, if elected, to the enactment of such a bill.

"We favor a direct primary law; the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, equitable graduated income and inheritance taxes; the initiative and referendum of labor and capital; transportation controlled in the interest of the public; laws to provide for the construction of good and substantial roads throughout the State.

"We favor laws providing for one day's rest in seven.

"We favor suffrage based upon intelligence, rather than creed.

"We favor stringent laws against all forms of gambling, especially race track gambling and kindred evils.

"We favor a law whereby minor political parties may be enabled to secure recognition on the official ballot."

Nominations were made as follows: For Congress, Second District, William Hotele; Third, T. H. Montgomery; Fifth, Walter E. Vail; Sixth, J. W. Webb; Seventh, N. W. Atwood; Eighth, W. T. Moore.

Electors-at-large, A. K. Nash of Pasadena, Frederick Head of San Francisco.

NEEDHAM RENOMINATED.

CONVENTION AT MODESTO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MODESTO (Cal.) Aug. 26.—Congressman James C. Needham was today nominated by acclamation for reelection from the Sixth District.

In accepting, Congressman Needham said: "I have no higher or greater ambition than to represent the Sixth District. Neither have I aspirations further than to represent you in the lower hall of Congress."

Discussing tariff revision, Mr. Needham stated he would use every effort to safeguard the interests of California, especially of the district.

Ninety-four delegates attended the convention.

BRYAN VISITS BIRTHPLACE.

Salem, Ill., Gives Enthusiastic Welcome and Purse to Democratic Candidate.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SALEM (Ill.) Aug. 26.—No crowd of such size or enthusiasm ever turned out in this city, the birthplace of William J. Bryan, as that of today, when the Democratic candidate stopped over to greet his old friends and neighbors. The whole population was up and on hand early to extend a hearty welcome when Mr. Bryan reached here at 6:30 in the morning. They were augmented later in the day by thousands who came in on special trains.

The principal event was a speech by Bryan from a platform in the Courthouse grounds.

Several thousand of the citizens of Salem and visitors shook the candidate's hand. He held receptions at the Courthouse, hotel and railroad station, where people fought their way to get near him.

While Mr. Bryan was talking the crowd made up a purse of $300 and handed it to him as a campaign contribution. A check for $100 also was given by a man from Clinton county.

Preceding Bryan's remarks, Theodore A. Bell of California, chairman of the Kern Notification Committee, who accompanied Mr. Bryan, made a speech in which he compared the platforms of the two dominant parties.

KNOWLAND RENOMINATED.

HONORED FOR FOURTH TIME.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, Aug. 26.—For the fourth time, Congressman Joseph Russell Knowland of Alameda was unanimously nominated, today, as Republican candidate for Representative of the Third Congress District by the convention of that district, which was held in Hovey Hall.

This is the position in which Mr. Knowland has served for two full terms and one short term. The nominating speech was made by Dr. C. L. Tisdale of Alameda and in it ardent appreciation was expressed for the personality of Mr. Knowland.

Mr. Knowland accepted the nomination in a modest speech which was frequently interrupted with applause.

J. Arthur Elston of Berkeley was named by the Lincoln-Roosevelt League but the roll call showed 70 votes for Knowland and 8 for Elston.

ANTI-M'CARREN MOVE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Application by counsel representing anti-McCarren forces, was made in Brooklyn today at a special term of the Supreme Court for the removal of 10,000 names on the Democratic roll books that it was charged were being illegally retained.

Senator McCarren's appointees will handle the ballots at the election primaries, and the anti-McCarren attorneys declare they wanted the names removed from the lists so that there would be no danger of stuffing the ballot boxes by McCarren men. No decision was given today by the court.

RECEIVERSHIP EXTENDED.

CHICAGO SOUTHERN INCLUDED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The receivership of the Southern Indiana Railway Company was this afternoon extended to the Chicago Southern Railway Company by Judge Kohlsaat in the United States Circuit Court. The receivership is in accordance with the receivership filed by that road last week. J. M. Carpenter, receiver of the Southern Indiana, was also named as receiver for the Chicago Southern.

POLITICAL BRIEFS.

Open Eastern Headquarters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The eastern headquarters of the Democratic committee will be opened in the Hoffman House tomorrow, on the arrival of Chairman Norman E. Mack.

Increase Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—At a meeting of the regular wing of the Republican County Committee last night, a resolution was adopted increasing the membership of the committee from thirty-six to sixty, Chairman H. L. Worthington appointing the additional twenty-four members.

Sonoma Democrats Nominate.

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 26.—The Democrats of Sonoma county, in convention assembled here today, nominated Emmet Seawell and Allison B. Ware for Superior judges; D. W. Ravenscroft for Assemblyman from the Thirteenth District, and L. W. Juilliard from the Fourteenth District.

Democrats Fill Vacancy.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26.—The Democratic County Convention reconvened tonight to fill the vacancy in the nominations for Senator from the Seventh District, created by the refusal of Judge McLaughlin to run. J. H. Devine, former City Trustee, was named by acclamation.

SOLDIERS WHO MUTINIED IN CHINA BETRAYED.

Flagship Returning to Canton With Prisoners Who Took Part in Revolt and Murder of Commander at Kong Haw—Villagers Received $17 a Head.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

HONGKONG (China) Aug. 26.—Admiral Li of the Chinese navy, with his flagship and several gunboats, sailed from Wu Chow today for Canton, taking with him as prisoners sixty of the mutinous soldiers from Kong Haw, where 1000 men revolted on August 12, killing their commander, and several others, routing a force of loyal soldiers from a near-by town, looting the village of Kong Haw and finally withdrawing to the mountains of Tai King, where they joined forces with the wild tribes of the hills.

Admiral Li's prisoners were taken by means of the villagers at Kong Haw, who betrayed them into the hands of the government forces for twenty-five taels (about $17) a head. The rebellious soldiers spoke a strange dialect and their detection and subsequent betrayal to the authorities was an easy matter.

At Wu Chow the gates of the city, which have stood open for weeks past, have now been closed owing to the disturbed state of the country following the Kong Haw mutiny.

JAPAN MAY POSTPONE.

Tokio International Exposition Set for 1912 May Be Held Five Years Later.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

TOKIO, Aug. 25.—The postponement of the Tokio International Exposition, which is now scheduled for 1912, is being agitated in government circles here, and seriously discussed on the ground that the appropriation set aside for this purpose is inadequate, and that the time intervening is insufficient for the amount of preparatory work that must be done. No decision has been reached, however, pending the opinion of Count Komura, the new Minister of Foreign Affairs, who returned from London tonight.

The members of the home department of the Cabinet are urging the appropriation of 30,000,000 yen (about $15,000,000) for the exposition, and also that the date of the opening be postponed until 1917. In supporting their contentions these officials point to the fact that the Chicago and the Paris expositions were both postponed beyond the original time set for the opening.

Other members of the Cabinet insist that in view of the present financial situation in Japan and of the avowed determination of the present ministry to reorganize, the appropriation of 30,000,000 yen would be inconsistent unless the exposition is postponed.

President of Ecuador Goes to Guayaquil in Search of Change of Climate and Doctors Give Out Optimistic Statement in Which Little Confidence Is Placed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

GUAYAQUIL (Ecuador) Aug. 26.—President Alfaro, according to public rumor, is suffering from a serious attack of heart failure, which may prove fatal at any moment.

The President arrived here Monday from Quito in search of a change of climate. His physicians issued a bulletin today saying that he had been benefited and that they believed that with a fortnight's rest he would be able to return to the capital and assume again the duties of Chief Executive.

The report of the doctors, however, is considered over-optimistic.

OMAHA BUSINESS MEN RESUME WITH ROCK ISLAND.

After Withholding Shipments for Two Years, During Which Time Roads Have Lost Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars—Commercial Clubs Make Settlement.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A two years' boycott against the Rock Island and 'Frisco systems by Omaha business men, which has meant a loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars to these railroads, has been lifted, and one of the most bitter and determined fights ever waged between carriers and shippers is thus brought to an end.

The Commercial Club of Omaha and the Omaha Grain Exchange have notified their members that the Rock Island has agreed to accede to their demands and that business may again be routed over the Rock Island lines.

Officials of the road, however, would not admit today that a surrender has been made to the Omaha interests.

"We have been holding conferences, but there is nothing to be said about the matter now," said W. B. Biddle, third vice-president. "There may be some developments in a few days."

ATTACK SWITCHING TOLLS.

Interstate Commissioner to Investigate Complaints in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The Interstate Commerce Commission, it is believed, will soon take up the complaints of the San Francisco and Los Angeles merchants and importers against the Southern Pacific and Santa Fé railroads for charging them switching tolls for moving cars on to private sidings. One of the Interstate Commerce Commissioners, probably Franklin K. Lane, is expected in San Francisco within a few weeks to take up the matter. It is estimated that switching tolls aggregating over $500,000 in the two cities are involved.

It is stated that the commissioner coming from Washington to look into the complaints will first stop at Reno, Nev., and hear the complaints which have been filed by Reno merchants against the Southern Pacific for what they claim is too high a rate on goods shipped to them from the East. Reno merchants want the same rate that San Francisco and Sacramento merchants enjoy.

RAILROADS ASK REHEARING.

OBJECT TO ASSESSMENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Southern Pacific, the Central Pacific and the Pullman Company have filed requests with the State Board of Equalization for a rehearing on the grounds they were unjustly assessed by that body. The application of the Pullman people reopens long disputes with the State board because of alleged oppressive assessments. Complainants want the State to assess them according to the basi. followed by county assessors, that is from 25 to 40 per cent. of their value. The State's basis is 4 per cent. of the gross earnings which is about 60 per cent. of the values. The companies will be given a hearing September 1.

TACOMA DAMAGES SETTLED.

UNION PACIFIC PAYS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a year spent in negotiations, the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific railroads have finally agreed regarding [illegible] crossings in Tacoma. Under the contract the Northern Pacific will receive $600,000 for damages incurred because of the Union Pacific tracks across the Northern Pacific right of way in Tacoma, and will deed the Union Pacific twelve acres of tidelands near the Wheeler-Osgood lumber plant to be used by the Harriman lines for freight terminals. The trouble with the Northern Pacific has caused delay in the construction of the Harriman line terminals here. The completion of this agreement forecasts an early beginning of construction work.

J. J. GREENOUGH DIES IN BOSTON.

INVENTOR WHO MADE MILLIONS FOR OTHER PERSONS.

Was Also Noted as Scientist, Lawyer, Medical Student and Philosopher—Sold Shoe-Pegging Machine Rights Worth Five Millions for Twenty Thousand Dollars.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John J. Greenough, inventor, scientist, lawyer, student of medicine, philosopher, author of a book on the origin of superstition, and credited with having made millions for other persons, died late this evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William L. Chase, Brookline, following a brief illness.

Mr. Greenough was born in Boston, January 19, 1812, the son of William and Mary Harrod Greenough. His early schooling was obtained in the public schools of this city, and when a young man he took up the study of medicine. He later turned his attention to law and passed the bar examination.

Still later, he became devoted to the study of mechanical engineering, and his inventions followed rapidly.

He was the first American to receive a patent on a sewing machine, the inventor of the shoe-pegging machine, the rights of which he sold for $20,000, and the value of which is greater than $5,000,000 today.

He assisted in the mechanical construction of the first locomotive engine run by electricity, and operated it from Washington.

Two years ago, he finished an essay on the origin of superstition, and the advent of the religions with which the world has been filled from prehistoric times.

In his extreme old age the subject of aërial navigation had his attention. Mr. Greenough had a patent for a device which he believed contained the basis for successful flight.

TESTING ARBITRATION.

Electrical Workers' Union Seeks to Force Contractors to Closed Shop.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The New York Electrical Workers' Union has obtained from Justice Pond of the Superior Court, an order requiring the Electrical Contractors' Association, its officers and members to show cause why an injunction should not be issued, restraining them from employing others than members of the union.

The Electrical Workers' Union contends it is under the arbitration plan, and that under the agreement its members should be employed.

The order is returnable tomorrow and considerable importance is attached to the case by both employers and union men, as it will establish just how far the provisions of the arbitration agreement can be maintained by law.

RICHARD CARLE MENTIONED AS CO-RESPONDENT IN SUIT.

Arthur W. Godfrey of Boston Asks for Separation from Wife, Who Indignantly Denies Accusation of Improper Relations With Well-Known Star and Another Man.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A libel for divorce has been filed in the Superior Court of Suffolk county by Arthur W. Godfrey of Boston, against his wife, Beatrice B. Godfrey. The address of the latter is given as Chicago.

The main interest in the libel centers in the fact that the libelant names Richard Carle of New York, the well-known actor, as one of the two co-respondents. The other co-respondent is John H. McCarthy of Boston.

The libel is based on statutory grounds. Although the address of Mrs. Godfrey is given as Chicago, she does not reside there, her home being in Atlanta. She was Beatrice Brunner, a talented musician, whom Godfrey met while she was studying at the Conservatory of Music in Boston. Godfrey is the son of a millionaire lumber merchant of Boston. Mrs. Godfrey, when seen today indignantly denied the charges of her husband, and said she would fight the case.

YELLOWSTONE PARK, WYO., August 21st, 1908.

J. J. Grafton, Los Angeles, Cal.:

The members of the "Grafton party" have been exceedingly plea with their tour through the Yellowstone Park, and we wish to express you a word of appreciation.

The tour was most admirably planned throughout, and has been of interest and pleasure.

We have had the choice of stages (surreys) and they are roomy, and well driven. The stage ride of three hours each forenoon does not even the frailest traveler, while the stay of an entire afternoon and ev ing at the different hotels rests and refreshes one for the drive and new scenes of the succeeding day.

Our Conductor, Mr. Learned, has taken care of all the cares inci to a trip of this character, has been very careful to point out all places interest and has otherwise looked after our comfort and pleasure.

It is impossible to see the Park under better circumstances than a personally conducted party, and this one has been a success in every laskan Murder Result of a Loveless Marriage.

oman Induces Admirer to Use Ax on Spouse.

ntimidated Stepson to Aid in Atrocious Crime.

[ASSOCIATED PRE. : NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE, Aug. 26.—A special ca- e to the Times from Valdez, Alaska, ys:

Elemental passions aroused in the som of an unwilling bride far from limits of civilization, on the lit- Island of Afognak, culminated in of the most atrocious murders recorded, according to the confes- n of Macrena Kavorseff, who in- ced the man whom she loved to kill r husband.

Both principals are now under ar- t at Afognak, from which place y will probably be brought to Val- s for trial before the District Court.

Peter S. Kavorseff was a woodsman o recently had been married to a neteen-year-old girl in the local eek Catholic church. They went to ir home at Ouzinky, where the degroom, who was much older than wife, had a small farm. The bride ed and feared her husband.

THE WOMAN'S LOVER.

Pestriakoff succumbed willingly to imploring wife and felled Kavorseff h a heavy adz. The only witness the terrible tragedy was the dead n's thirteen-year-old child by a mer marriage. Macrena intimidat- the lad and compelled him to as- t her in disposing of the body. Then slayer and the woman fled.

BOY TELLS OF KILLING.

Kavorseff was missed soon afterward d through the boy it was first rned that he had been killed. The ing couple were overtaken and ged in jail.

Two days later the woman broke wn and admitted the crime.

She justified it, however, by making arges of extreme cruelty against her sband, who belonged to the uncouth scendants of the former Russian asantry. Because of her youth there much sympathy expressed for the man.

Pestriakoff has no regret for the part played, rather glorying in the deed cause, he says, he sought to deliver woman, whom he loved, from the rrors she was living in. It is be- ved that he will plead justifiable micide on the ground that the dead an, knowing his attachment, had reatened Pestriakoff's life.

TRIES TO BURN TWO WOMEN?

acksmith in Jail for Alleged Attempt to Set Fire to a Cottage.

ATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SA FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—Wil- m Spencer, a blacksmith 60 years age, was arrested today and held the city prison pending an investi- tion by the police into an attempt to rn a refugee cottage Monday night, hich, it is alleged, was set on fire by encer. His two stepdaughters, Mrs. sie Sheridan and Annie Connolly, cupied the cottage.

Spencer lives with his wife in a all house close to that occupied by s stepdaughters. According to the lice, he had a bitter quarrel with e two women over a small inher- ance, and, it is alleged, had made reats to put them out of the way.

Monday night, papers and small oards were piled against the cottage, aked with kerosene and then set on re, while the women were asleep. he fire was discovered and an alarm iven. Spencer, according to the po- ce, was seen running away from the ene.

The fire was extinguished before uch damage was done.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive ispatch.] Peter P. Dall, a respected erman resident of East Santa Cruz, ormerly a business man of San Fran- isco, committed suicide this morning y throwing himself from the cliff rive into the sea. Despondency was he cause.

Dall left a note to his wife, saying is troubles were more than he could ear, and giving her instructions as to disposal of personal property. Dall was formerly in business in San Fran- cisco, losing heavily by the earthquake of April 18.

Mrs. Dall says his despondency dates from a few months ago, when an anonymous note was thrown into his yard, the contents of which he never disclosed.

GAME WARDENS ARRESTED.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

REDDING, Aug. 26.—Deputy Game Warden M. A. Carpenter was arrested here today on the charge of murder, and Deputy Game Warden D. M. Bond was arrested near Dunsmuir on the same charge. Both were taken to Red Bluff, where bonds will be fixed.

The arrests are the result of the officers shooting and killing Robert Junior, an Indian, on Battle Creek last Thursday evening, when he resisted arrest for illegal fishing.

CONFER ON VENEZUELA.

M. De Reus and Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs Talk Over Castro Affair.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

THE HAGUE, Aug. 26.—M. de Reus, the Minister of The Netherlands to Venezuela, who was expelled by President Castro last month, had a long conference this morning regarding Venezuelan affairs with M. Van Swinderen, the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

In a subsequent interview with a representative of the Associated Press, M. de Reus characterized as a pure invention the assertion that Holland, with the support of the United States, had lent her countenance to revolutionary schemes in Venezuela. He declared that his expulsion from Venezuela need not necessarily be considered an infraction of international law.

The relations between Holland and Venezuela, M. de Reus said, already were strained before the indiscreet publication of a confidential letter he wrote to the Hou en Trouw (society) Amsterdam.

BACK IN THE COUNTY JAIL.

Bondsmen of "Doc" Phillips Unwilling to Continue Risk, and Place not Filled.

"Doc" W. S. Phillips, promoter of numerous paper enterprises that yielded him a handsome revenue, and the arch conspirator in a gigantic mining swindle in Chicago, according to the Federal authorities, suffered the disgrace of being imprisoned in the County Jail last night, in default of bonds for $5000. The dentist-promoter protested vehemently against the ignominy of being placed in a cell with common criminals, and his wife wept bitterly. Every opportunity to secure bail was accorded him by the Federal officers. Failing to get proper bondsmen during the afternoon, Commissioner Williams kept his office open until after 10 o'clock last night. Phillips telephoned frantically to friends who might have the necessary property qualifications, but his "clients" in his various deals fought shy of going on the bond of their broker. Others willing to sign the bond were found possessed of hundreds of shares in some of "Doc" Phillips's numerous enterprises, which had a doubtful value in the eyes of the court.

Phillips is under $4500 bonds to insure his appearance in the Superior Court on two charges of obtaining money under false pretenses. His wife and a woman friend are sureties.

A few weeks ago United States Dist.-Atty. Sims of Chicago telegraphed here to have Phillips arrested in connection with an alleged fraudulent mining deal. Phillips gave temporary bonds for his appearance in the local Federal Court.

His Chicago attorney wrote to him that the case appeared so strong that it was useless to resist extradition. The Chicago officials first asked that Phillips's bonds for his appearance in the Illinois United States Court be fixed at $10,000, but upon representations from the local officers this amount was reduced to $5000.

The sureties were Arthur L. Acker, Anna C. Otten and Charles Thompson. Acker at once asked to be relieved of his responsibility when he investigated the case, and Phillips hustled around all day yesterday in an effort to provide a substitute. W. J. Dowland offered to go on the bond, but when it was learned that his principal assets consisted of stock in a company of which Phillips was president, he was not accepted. Later Mrs. Nellie Latta of South Flower street was accepted. Then it was found that Thompson was unwilling to take oath that he owned $5000 worth of clear property in this district, and he was disqualified.

A rumor has been in circulation during the past few days that Phillips would never go to Chicago to stand trial there, if he found that certain alleged co-conspirators turned State's evidence. The local authorities have carefully examined all the applicants for sureties, and Assistant United States Dist.-Atty. McCormick gave each a searching examination.

Mrs. Phillips will continue the search for a bondsman today, but until a satisfactory one is found, "Doc" will remain in the County Jail. His arraignment at Chicago is fixed for October 1, and it may be that he will have to stay in jail until taken East.

DENVER'S EXPERIENCE.

Mayor's Secretary Tells How the Great Social Problem Has Been Handled in That City.

John S. Irby, secretary to Mayor Robert W. Speer of Denver, is at the Angelus Hotel. Mr. Irby is traveling for pleasure. Speaking of civic conditions in Denver, he said: "I see by the papers that Los Angeles is having trouble about her red-light district. Mayor Speer has handled that difficult question in a way that gives satisfaction. He tried first to drive the women out of town. This failed. Next, he urged various ways of curbing the evil, but to no practical purpose, and finally, he decided on keeping them in one part of the town. This plan is now in vogue and working well. Police officers patrol the district, warning strangers of the character of the streets; young men and women are not permitted to go there, and children are, of course, warned away. By a system of espionage all attempts of the women to take quarters outside the zone are frustrated. Mayor Speer's social experiments have convinced him that these women will scatter to the respectable parts of the city if disturbed in their quarters. His theory is that it is better to have a boil on your arm, or in a given place, than to scatter the poison through your blood.

"Denver is passing through a period of extraordinary civic pride. It was through the interest of Mayor Speer that the big auditorium, seating 12,400 was built, at a cost of $550,000; and he also planned a system of street lighting and boulevards costing $1,000,000. Just now, he purposes to create a civic center, in which shall be grouped the State and city buildings, at a cost of $4,000,000. The people are with him; and, in brief, it may be said of him, as it was of Napoleon concerning Paris: 'He found it of brick; he left it of marble.'"

Mr. Irby characterized the Mayor as a "coming man," and the Democratic leader of the State. He was discovered by the late Grover Cleveland, who gave Mr. Speer his first appointment, that of postmaster of Denver.

WINDOW ARTIST ARRIVES.

Hamburgers Engage Services of Experienced Designer to Make Specialty of Street Display.

William F. Ried, who has been engaged as head window designer for Hamburger's new store, arrived last night. He comes directly from New York City, where for several years he has been head window designer for the Wanamaker stores. He was engaged about four weeks ago by M. A. Hamburger to take full charge of the window displays in the new establishment at Eighth and Broadway.

Ried has had years of experience, and expects to make the show windows of the Hamburger store a model for the entire country. He will have a large corps of assistants, and will devote most of his time to the planning of the designs. As soon as he reached the city last night he hurried to the Hamburger building to inspect the windows.

"I shall have ample opportunity to show what I can do here," said Ried last night. "There is no store building in the country with as fine show windows as Hamburger's, and full opportunity for artistic work in window dressing is given.

"I shall make my first displays for the fall opening, which will soon be held. Already I have laid out most of my plans, and by the time the necessary stuff arrives I shall have everything ready. I intend to make the show windows one of the great features of the new Hamburger store."

Ried has been employed as window designer by James McCreery & Co. of New York and Pittsburgh, and Mandel Bros. of Chicago, as well as by Wanamaker. At Wanamaker's New York store he had a force of assistants ranging from 25 to 100, according to the season.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

ANOTHER fashionable wedding was added to the season's list last evening, when Miss Lucille Chandler became the bride of Raymond W. Stephens, son of former Judge and Mrs. Albert M. Stephens. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Chandler of No. 1844 St. Andrew's Place, by Bishop Conaty, assisted by Rev. John J. Clifford of the Church of St. Thomas the Apostle. There was an altar of pink lilies and ferns, on which were eight candles. About the room quantities of blossoms were mingled with ferns. Mrs. J. M. Jones and Miss Herbert played harp and violin music throughout the evening. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Chandler as maid of honor, wore an elaborate gown of white satin, with trimmings of rose point, and a fluffy tulle veil and carried a shower of bride roses and jasmine. The maids, who included Mrs. A. P. Patton, Miss Edith Maurice, Miss Mary Lee, Miss Helen Wells, Miss Sue Carpenter and Miss Helen Newlin, wore pretty creations of white chiffon over white satin, trimmed with real lace. Their bouquets were of Cecile Bruner roses. Little Beatrice and Katherine Ward, nieces of the bride, scattered rose petals in her path and her 3-year-old nephew, William Ward, carried the ring on a pillow. Dainty frocks of fluffy white material were worn by the little girls, whose hair was adorned with large butterfly bows. The groom was supported by his brother, Moye Stephens. The home was decorated most artistically. In the reception hall enchantress carnations were used and in the library pink china asters nodded in the midst of fluffy foliage. The den was filled with potted plants and above stairs American Beauties enlivened the rooms. Supper was served in the garden beneath a canopy of English ivy. The table was ornamented with a large basket of pink roses and ices were served in small candy baskets. After a month's trip Mr. and Mrs. Stephens will make their home at No. 515 Andrews boulevard, where they will receive their friends after November 1.

Month's Outing.

Miss Maude Elizabeth Richards of No. 2208 Western avenue, left yesterday morning for Salt Lake, where she will spend a month with friends.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eglinton Anderson, of No. 1571 West Adams street, last evening gave a dinner party for seventeen friends. American Beauty roses, carnations and ferns ornamented the table. The affair was given as a farewell compliment, as Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will leave today, with a party of friends for San Francisco and Lake Tahoe.

Extended Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Althouse and two children, June and D. T. Althouse, Jr., have gone East. Upon their arrival in New York, a 1909 Packard will be delivered to them, in which they will make a tour.

Musical Tea.

Miss Helen Werner of No. 631 Solano street will entertain this evening with a musical tea. The function is planned as a compliment to Miss Beth Meyer, who is to leave soon for Europe to study music. Tea will be served in the garden and the decorations will be entirely in red. Guests will include Miss Alice Hicks, Miss Bess Filbert, Miss Rose Werner, Miss Ruth Kellogg, Arthur MacFarland, Wendall MacFarland, Jack Wells, Clarence Requa, Edward McCollock and Awald Werner.

Home Wedding.

Miss Anabeth Lasley and Charles B. McCormack were married recently at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. W. Lasley of No. 503 South Figueroa street, Rev. Maurice E. Walton officiating. At the conclusion of a trip to San Francisco and Yellowstone Park, Mr. and Mrs. McCormack will make their home in St. Louis, where the groom is engaged in business.

At Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Sherer of New Hampshire avenue have returned from Lake Tahoe and are entertaining Mrs. Luther B. Smith of Texas.

Month's Outing.

Mrs. Olive L. Spence and Mrs. L. C. Miller of No. 228 West Thirtieth street have returned from a delightful outing at Tahoe.

Miss Taylor Honored.

Miss Barbara Taylor of West Adams street was the complimented guest at an informal afternoon given by Miss Louise Barbur of No. 1857 Winfield street. Miss Taylor will leave soon for Boston, where she is to attend school. Guests included Miss Vera Loomis, Miss Phyllis Cross, Miss Blanche Loomis, Miss Dorothy Book, Miss Adele Forton, Miss Marguerite Wetherby, Miss Elsie Thompson, Miss Agnes Farmer, Miss Claire Tuttle, Miss Lilouse Perry, Miss Harriett Shunway, Miss Blanche Brown, Miss Clark, Miss Hazel Brown, Miss Josephine Yoder and Miss Olive Yoder.

QUARREL VICTIM DEAD.

An inquest will be held this afternoon at the Pierce morgue over the remains of Robert Garcia, a grader, who died yesterday morning at the County Hospital from a gunshot wound inflicted during a quarrel at Sherman, the 1st inst. Garcia was engaged in a game of cards. A charge of cheating was made, and M. Ruiz is alleged to have drawn his revolver and fired two shots into Garcia. Ruiz is held at the County Jail on a murder charge.

NEW POSTAL RATE.

The Postmaster-General announces a change in postal rates between this country and England, to go into effect October 1. Letters can be sent from that date for 2 cents an ounce. Letters unpaid or deficient in postage will be dispatched to point of destination, where double the lacking postage shall be collected of the addressee.

WILD AND WOOLLY.

SEALS GRAB EASY VICTORY.

Gray Shows no Class and Is Liberal With Passes.

Champions Score Lonely Run Through Errors.

Mohler Surprises the Fans by Hard Slugging.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Seals opened up with three runs in the first inning today, and afterward had easy sailing, winning by the comfortable margin of 8 to 1. Willis was selected by Danny Long to serve out the benders for San Francisco, and was pitching winning ball until compelled to retire through injury, and Jones finished the game in good style. Dolly Gray was the opposing slabster, and had an off day, nine hits being taken from his deliveries, including two three-baggers and the same number of doubles. He was as wild as the proverbial March hare when men were on bases.

The solitary Los Angeles tally was made in the sixth inning, thanks to Hildebrand and Zeider's contribution to the error column.

Mohler led off in the first inning with a neat single to right field, and took second on a passed ball. Then Hilde lined out a two-bagger into center field and the Seal skipper tagged the home plate. Zeider struck out and Hildebrand took third on Melchoir's out, Gray to Dillon.

Williams was given his bases on wide ones, and stole second, and Bernard fumbled Beck's infield hit while the two base-runners made tracks for home. With three runs on the board, Berry obliged by flying out.

Mohler came through with a three-bagger in the second stanza, but there were no men on bases, and he died there. Willis stopped a hot line drive from Ellis's bat in the second, and although he completed the inning, he was forced to retire thereafter for repairs, and Jones mounted the box.

The locals added another trio of tallies in the fourth, McArdle, Jones and Zeider crossing the pan.

The Looloos' lonely tally came in the sixth in this wise: Bernard bingled to right field fence and took second when Hilde dropped Oakes's easy fly. Zeider dropped Williams's throw to second from Delmas's hit, filling the bags, and Bernard came home on Brashear's out!

With one down in the seventh, Melchoir reached the keystone sack by the courtesy of Oakes, who dropped an easy fly. Melchoir took third on a wild heave, but was caught at the plate on a fielder's choice. Beck bunted safely, and Berry's three-bagger scored Williams and Beck.

This was all the scoring, though the Angels looked dangerous in the eighth with two men on bags with no one out, but Jones rallied, and there was nothing doing.

NEW CLUB STEWING.

MAY BE LAUNCHED TODAY.

President Cal Ewing of the Coast League had a conference yesterday with Frank Goings in regard to the new ball club and it is expected that the business will be settled today at a final meeting of the interested parties. There was practically nothing done yesterday, Goings merely assuring Ewing that he had the necessary amount of money on hand and in sight.

It may surprise some of the fans to know that Ewing, representing the league, asks that the new club owners put up $20,000, or show that much that can be used for the new team. Manager Berry estimates that it will cost $10,000 to purchase ten or twelve good players who can hold their own with the present Coast League teams. Ewing declares rightly that the Coast fans will not stand for any bush league baseball and that good men will cost money. In addition a suitable park must be provided and this alone will eat up a sum of money and advance salary to players is not the lease of a manager's expenses.

It requires a real capitalist to play even a short engagement as angel to a ball team and Ewing's desire is to have the Goings people show him that they have the coin to carry their club through the season, for there can be no backing up after the schedule is arranged.

Ewing, Berry and Frank Ish, president of the San Francisco team, went on a little trip to Long Beach and San Pedro yesterday on baseball business, but asserted last night that they did nothing in a baseball way. Some of the Long Beach fans are anxious to have the new Coast League team in their town, but are skeptical about the citizens of the town caring for Sunday morning baseball. They intend, however to take the matter before the Chamber of Commerce of the beach town at its next meeting.

New Seals Coming.

The major league drafting season opened last Thursday and will expire on Tuesday September 15 covering a period of a few days over three weeks. The class A drafting season will begin September 15 and Cal Ewing of the San Francisco team announced yesterday that he intended to draft six men and already had his eyes on them. From this statement it looks as if he intended to drop a few men who are now playing on his team.

Suter and Zeider have been sold and Hildebrand will manage the new Sacramento team according to report and a faint rumor has arisen that Melchoir will not be on next year's team. This bird is hitting very poorly having made but three hits in twenty-one times at bat during the recent six games here. This is an average of about .142 which is too low for an outfielder.

BEAVERS SLIDE AGAIN.

HARDY IS TOO STRONG.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a game that furnished every sort of baseball, from daring base running and brilliant fielding in inexcusable errors, the Oakland players again defeated Portland today by a score of 6 to 3. Graney for Portland and Hardy for Oakland were the opposing pitchers, and Hardy had much the better of the argument. Although his support was wretched, he was in danger in only two innings, the first and the eighth.

In the first, after Casey and Johnson had each received a pass, Anderson made a poor throw of Danzig's grounder, allowing the runner to reach first and filling the bases. At this point Raftery forced Casey at the plate and Cooney flied out to Houston, retiring the side. From then to the eighth Portland was put out in almost one-two-three order, getting only two scattered hits.

In the eighth, after Johnson had struck out, Houston's two errors in quick succession put Danzig and Raftery on bases. Then followed hits by McCredie, Whalen and Graney, which, coupled with an error by Cook in handling McCredie's hit, scored three for Portland. This was all for the home players, as they were put out in quick order in the ninth.

Oakland got five hits off Graney in the fourth, two of which were on the scratch order. The trouble started after Heitmuller had struck out, when Casey and McCredie allowed Eagan's fly to drop between them. After this Slattery, La Longe and Houston singled in order, bringing in two runs. Cook's single a few minutes later brought in another. This made three for Oakland, and the Californians added another in the seventh and two more in the eighth.

ALLOWS PAPKE THREE ROUNDS.

Sam Langford Guarantees to Whip Thunderbolt.

Says Ketchel Will Win and Wants Next Match.

Gans Urges Negro to Come West for Kaufman.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I know Ketchel will beat Papke," said Sam Langford tonight. "I saw Papke fight Burke at the National club, and I will guarantee to put Papke out in three rounds. Maybe Ketchel will meet me if Joe Gans gets him interested."

Langford says he will try to force Ketchel into the ring when he reaches the coast.

Langford, who will fight Joe Jeannette at the National Athletic Club next Tuesday night, received a telegram from Joe Gans today urging him to leave for the coast at once. Langford will start next Wednesday.

"Come and second me against Nelson. You can get fight with Kaufman and go with Johnson or Burns later if you win," wired Gans. Langford's fight with Jeannette is to be one of the most important held in New York in years. It will be important in that the winner will be in direct line for a match with Tommy Burns. They have both met Jack Johnson and their records give them equal consideration with Johnson for the heavyweight championship.

WEEKLY PRIZE FIGHTS.

M'CAREY'S LATEST IDEA.

Manager McCarey has at last announced that he will try the idea of giving a fight card every week hereafter at the Naud Junction "bug house" and will begin next week. This was proposed to him a year ago and after thinking about it for a year, he has decided to take a chance.

McCarey has selected Friday night and will start off with a ten-round bout between Carsey and Brock as a main event, with four six-round contests on the programme as appetizers. The admission prices will be popular.

Brock intends to show that he is a real fighter after all for he has broken with his former manager, McRae, and has cut out the habits that brought him to such a poor showing in his fight with McFarland. He is sure now that he will be able to surprise his friends. He thinks he will have no trouble in beating Carsey as easily as he did in their previous meeting and has started in on active training for the battle.

One of the six-round fights will be between Frank Picato and Charley Anslinger, who did so well in a recent bout. They will weigh 136 pounds at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight. It is possible an opponent can be found for Willie Fairbanks, who showed such a flash of class last Tuesday night. Weekly cards will call for many new pugs and these are what the bugs want.

JEFF TO REFEREE.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS START.

Ketchel and Papke commenced training yesterday for their fight here, September 7, Papke going to Venice and Ketchel to the Southside Club.

Contrary to his expressed determination several weeks ago, not to referee any more prize fights, Jim Jeffries backed up yesterday on himself and announced that he would referee the Ketchel-Papke fight, doubtless on account of its importance.

FIGHT BETTING ODDS.

EVEN MONEY NOW RULES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first betting price on the holiday fights early in September was established last night when Tom Corbett announced that it was even money on both Moran and Attell and Nelson and Gans. Of course, odds will regulate themselves as soon as the money flows into the pool boxes.

With the featherweight it is reasonable to expect that even money will be a fair price, although the fact that the number of rounds has been reduced by two may tend to make the Attell spectators more careful.

As to Gans and Nelson, the Dane ought to be and doubtless will be made a favorite. He is entitled to that honor even if he is not looking for it. Still many of Gans's old spectators are willing to back him again if they can get good odds and the betting will probably be 10 to 7, with Nelson favorite.

BORN GAMBLERS.

PONIES AND DICE LEAD ASTRAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gans and Attell, who are training together in Alameda, are not only the cleverest boxers of their weight in the world, but also two of the greatest gamblers the prize ring has ever known, and were it not for an uncontrollable desire to risk their coin on various games of chance this pair today might be retired capitalists instead of active scrappers.

Gans's favorite game is craps, and stakes run high when Joe starts, providing the gamekeeper will let him go as far as he likes. He has staked as high as $3000 on one roll of the bones—and lost. At times Joe has won, and good big chunks at that, only to lose it all, probably plus a few, at the next sitting.

The races have been Abe Attell's downfall. Time after time he has gotten a few thousand together and either played races or made books, but which ever way he tried the game, the ponies relieved him of his wad. Often it has been said of Attell that his record would not have been nearly as long but for the horses.

Wolgast Fat and Slow.

RACINE (Wis.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee and Danny Goodman of Chicago fought eight fast rounds to a draw here tonight. Although to many spectators it appeared that the Chicago Hebrew had a slight shade, Referee Kid Sayer's decision was upheld by those best acquainted with the fight game. Luck was all that saved Wol-

HIGGINS CHOSEN CAPTAIN.

Rugby Castaway Football Team Elects Officers and Schedules Opening Games.

Tom Higgins is to lead the Castaway Rugby football team this season, he having been chosen captain at a meeting held last night. H. B. Crouch was elected president. The Executive Committee consists of Capt. Higgins, Le Roy Edwards and Percy Tompkins, A. L. Walton is treasurer.

The Executive Committee has scheduled the first games with San Bernardino High School, October 10, at Los Angeles, and October 24 at San Bernardino. The committee was authorized to arrange more games to fill out the schedule. Stanford, California, the Barbarians, the Olympic Club, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, and all Southern high schools are to be asked for dates.

The first practice is to be held one week from Saturday. New players admitted last night are: Lane and Lewis, of England; McClung and Weaver, old Occidental men; Watson, of Vancouver, and Russell of New Zealand.

Among the old players remaining with the team are Ward, Hunt, Mitchell, Tompkins, Pat Higgins, Tom Higgins, Strathern, Walton, Edwards, McGrew, Pierce, Weaver, Lafferty, Rheinhart White and others.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

GIANTS GET PIRATES' GOAT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 26.—New York won today's game from Pittsburgh, 4 to 3. Gill, Pittsburgh's new first baseman, played a good game. Score:

Pittsburgh, 3; hits, 8; errors, 0.
New York, 4; hits, 11; errors, 2.
Batteries—Young, Leever and Gibson; McGinnity, Mathewson, Taylor and Bresnahan.
Umpires—Rigler and O'Day.

CUBS TAKE SERIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Brooklyn's misplays, coupled with an occasional hit and a few sacrifices, gave Chicago the final game of the series here today, 6 to 4. Score:

Chicago, 6; hits, 6; errors, 0.
Brooklyn, 4; hits, 11; errors, 2.
Batteries—Overall, Brown and Kling; Pastorius and Ritter, Bergen.
Umpires—Emslie and Rudderham.

Umps Too Costly.

In answer to an inquiring fan it is stated that the Coast League will not have the double umpire system next season on account of the expense of carrying six men instead of three on the pay roll. According to rumor, O'Connell and Perrine get $250 each every month, and with a third man on next season, the expense alone for umpires will be $750 per month. With six men, the expense would be at least $1200 per month, and the league balks at paying out this sum, which for an eight months' season would amount to $9600. Pretty big sum to pay for poor guesses.

Ish Was Scouting.

President Frank Ish of the San Francisco team has been in this city several days on a mission that no one would ever guess. He has actually been scouting for new and promising ball players and left for home last night without giving out any information as to what he had found in the bushes in this end of the State.

WHAT NEXT!

ANGRY HORSEMEN INSULT HUGHES.

NEW YORK'S GOVERNOR UNWITTINGLY DELAYS RACES.

Drivers Refuse to Start Heats Until Chief Executive Leaves the Grounds, Asserting That His Action in Legislating Against Betting Has Injured Their Business.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BALLSTOWN (N. Y.) Aug. 26.—For an hour and a half the openly expressed hostility of the owners of trotting horses, taking part in the events at the Saratoga County Fair, toward Gov. Hughes held up the racing programme at the Fair Grounds here.

Gov. Hughes was a visitor at the fair today and addressed a big gathering which gave him a hearty greeting and attentive hearing. The Governor's presence on the grounds, however, was resented by the horse owners, who have taken exception to the Governor's efforts to suppress betting on the race tracks of the State.

As a consequence they refused to start their horses while the executive was on the grounds.

The "strike" of the horse owners created an unprecedented situation and caused the management of the fair marked embarrassment.

When the conditions became known a sensation was created among the thousands of spectators on the grounds, and considerable pressure was put upon the trotting men to change their attitude and run off the races as scheduled. In this the fair officials took the lead, urging their case strongly upon the recalcitrant owners and pointing out the awkwardness of the situation caused by the balk in the programme.

Their efforts were fruitless, however, the owners remaining obdurate and for an hour and a half refusing to budge from their position. They openly declared that Gov. Hughes had antagonized their interests and that they proposed to retaliate by refusing to take their horses out on the track while he was present.

Gov. Hughes was scheduled to leave here on the 4 o'clock train and shortly before that time he left the Fair Grounds enclosure. Immediately upon his departure the racing proceeded. The lateness of the start caused the continuance of the trotting until dark.

Hilde for Senators.

Hildebrand is almost sure of being the manager of the Sacramento team next year. It is understood that Tripp has practically decided upon Hilde, but when the Seal team was in this city last week, the fielder stated he could not say anything about the Sacramento proposition because there was nothing to say. Cal Ewing, who was present, stated that when the proper time came, Hildebrand would have his permission to talk to Tripp, if he cared to.

Rain Stops Racing.

READVILLE (Mass.) Aug. 26.—The Grand Circuit races at the Readville track were called off today on account of a heavy rainstorm.

NO MORE DERBIES.

FAMOUS READVILLE TRACK IS DOOMED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Readville's trotting track is doomed. This is the last season of the famous mile course known all over the world as the track where first a mile in two minutes was trotted. Successful, though it was, the American $50,000 trotting handicap, derby was a disappointment. It paid, but it did not bring in the revenue expected, and the amount this year, as in other years, will leave a big deficit.

While 20,000 persons attended the race yesterday there were less than 12,000 paid admissions. The entry fees amounted to only $40,600, so with advertising, and extra expenses, less than $2000 was cleared for the day. Every other day will show a big net loss.

President Johnson of the association said today that he could see no future for the track and that as soon as the directors could meet the grounds would be disposed of. This was the last chance for the association already in debt $80,000.

Horsemen generally favor the idea of the handicap dash as exemplified in yesterday's derby. For instance, Secretary Sheppard of the Columbus, O., track was so impressed with the idea that he said he would have a $25,000 race under the same conditions next year.

All of the drivers and most of the owners are enthusiastic over the idea. The only question is in the handicapping. It was felt that perhaps the handicappers were a bit severe in yesterday's derby on the horses penalized the most.

For instance, Sweet Marie, which is getting old, was marked as a 2:05 performer, when she has not shown a mile nearly so fast this year. From wire to wire she has timed in 2:07. Besides, Allen Winter, the winner, and another absolutely green horse, finished inside the money. This was San Francisco. He is owned by C. P. Hodges of Pleasanton, Cal. The showing made by both these horses is held up as criticism of the handicapping, as going to show that known horses were too strongly penalized.

NAVY IS DEFEATED.

INFANTRY RIFLE TEAM WINS NATION TROPHY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CAMP PERRY (O.) Aug. 26.—The United States Infantry team won the national trophy and the $300 offered by Congress by winning the United States Army rifle team match today. The infantry's score was 3224.

The second prize, the Hilton trophy, and $200 in cash, went to the navy team, which scored 3210.

A score of 3180, made by the cavalry team, gave the cavalry third place, the bronze trophy, "The Soldier of Marathon," and $150 in cash.

The marine corps was fourth, with 3117, and won $100 in cash.

Fifth place and $75 in cash was won by the Wisconsin team, with a score of 3073, which also heads the National Guard teams.

All of the high honors were taken by the regular army service teams.

At the conclusion of the national match the national individual contest began. In this match there were

Today's shooting in this contest was on the skirmish run and the 200-yard target, rapid fire.

Tomorrow the 600-yard target will be shot at, to be followed on Friday by the 800 and 1000-yard targets.

The individual match is for the thirty-six medals of gold, silver and bronze, and cash prizes aggregating $390.

At the close of the skirmish run and the 200-yard rapid fire, tonight, Dortch of the navy, led with a score of 130. The last stage of the national team match was shot on the 1000-yard range. One this target the cavalry team scored the highest, 504, but the team's aggregate gave it third place in the final standing.

The five leaders in the national team match are:

United States Infantry	3224.
United States Navy	3210
United States Cavalry	3180
U.S. Marine Corps	3117
Wisconsin	3073

BAD FOOTBALL LUCK.

California Loses Her Captain and Probably Star Veteran Through Misfortune.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERKELEY, Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A great blow was struck at the football team of the University of California tonight, when the faculty announced that they would not permit Capt. George V. Bell to play this season, because of physical disability. Bell suffered a stroke of paralysis last spring and his physicians say that he has not fully recovered, hence the severe action of the faculty.

Bell will continue to help Coach Taylor as an assistant. His successor will not be chosen until well along in the season. Coming as this announcement does, along with the news that Cerf, 'varsity three-quarter and veteran of two seasons, may not return owing to the tragic death of his father in a hotel fire yesterday, the student body tonight is considerably cast down about the football prospects.

Results at Seattle.

SEATTLE, Aug. 26.—Results:

Four and a half furlongs: Frank Clancy won, Linola second, Dredkin third; time 0:54 2-5.

Six furlongs: Dulcinea won, Zelina second, Korosilany third; time 1:13 2-5.

Six furlongs: Glondy won, Belle Kinney second, Taxer third; time 1:12 3-5.

Five and a half furlongs: Ida May won, Security second, The Sultan third; time 1:05 4-5.

Mile: Kruka won, Eckersall second; Oriflame third; time 1:39.

GUARD AGAINST FLOODS.

Weather Bureau to Establish Gauging Stations on New Mexico Rivers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA FE (N. M.) Aug. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The United States Weather Bureau Service is preparing to establish a number of gauging stations along the Rio Grande, Pecos, Chama, Hondo, Canadian and other turbulent streams in New Mexico. Wherever a station is established an official gauger will be in charge. It will be his duty to report a sudden rise in the stream and thus the weather bureau officials will be able to send out flood forecasts in time to enable persons living along the streams to seek places of safety and prepare to resist floods. At present there are but one or two gauging stations in the Territory and the establishment of such throughout the Territory along the principal streams is welcomed by the farmers, stockmen and railroad companies. It will prevent loss of life and great loss of property, which has heretofore been the case during the flood season in the Territory.

Classified Liners.

Liner Classified Rates: The rate for inserting "Want" ads in The Daily Times is 1c per word for each insertion; in the Sunday issue 1¼c per word, each insertion; minimum charge 25c; except under following classifications the rate for which is 10c per line, minimum charge 50 cents: "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Special Notices," and "Baths and Massage."

"Liner" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 11:30 o'clock Saturday nights will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify."

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Rate 1¼ cents per word.

The Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds 77,000 copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in the five other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times" any time of day or night and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephoned advertisements.

THE TIMES will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times in payment for "Liners," as no mistakes can be rectified without them.

SPECIAL NOTICES—

SUNDAY REAL ESTATE LINERS— Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be in the office not later than 10:30 o'clock Saturday nights. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion will be taken over the counter until 11:30 p.m. The great volume of liners printed in The Sunday Times, numbering regularly over 5000 separate announcements, makes this regulation absolutely necessary in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

IF YOU OWN A LOT.
NOTICE TO INTENDING BUILDERS.
We will build you a cottage, bungalow or 2-story residence, if you own a lot, and take mortgage at 3 years at 7 per cent. The impression may prevail that extra cost is made for this accommodation, but such is not the fact. The contract price of the house will be the same as if paid for in cash. The large number and character of the houses built by our firm in the past 5 years will testify to the high class of workmanship in our buildings. If you are contemplating building, call and inspect our plans and get our estimates. This method of building on such easy terms affords an unusual opportunity to improve a vacant lot and to make unproductive property valuable and remunerative, either for residence or investment purposes. Death or Rengo, Which Is It For You?

Always Danger of Fatal End by Allowing Fat to Accumulate. How to Prevent the "Terrible End."

As a rule the victim of fat grows fatter. There is no stopping the growing of fat save by death. This is true, and sad because it is true. There are hundreds of fat people who positively do not believe it, and they die, refusing to believe it. At first there is flabby fat and then it grows solid. This solid fat accumulates especially around the heart; and although the heart beats, it beats with difficulty, until finally it will skip a beat now and then, then skip two beats, and when it skips more than that—well, you will be already stone dead. These are facts. Startled relatives before whom fat victims have smiled one minute and died the next can testify to it. It is not a laughing matter.

If you are a victim of this terrifying ever-growing disease you can save yourself from the day you begin to use Rengo.

How long, for instance, will it take you to lose 60 pounds? As a rule only 60 days. In most cases there is a safe loss of a pound a day. Some of those 60 pounds will come off from that fat coating over your heart and save your life. Your health will at once grow better, the tingle of new fresh blood will make your muscle grow, clear your mind, regulate your whole body and make you happy.

This is exactly what has happened to hundreds of fat people who have taken Rengo. It can do the same for you—save you before it is too late.

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box, or by mail prepaid, by The Rengo Co., 3257 Rengo Bldg., Detroit, Mich. The company will gladly send you a trial package free by mail, if you write them direct to Detroit; no free packages at drug stores.

For sale and recommended in Los Angeles by Owl Drug Co., 320 So. Spring, and Fifth and Broadway; also Hamburger's and the Broadway Department Store.

Weak, Lazy Bowels

A free trial will convince you that Multo-Fruto is the most natural constipation cure known, because it contains tropical fruit juices, and everybody knows that there is nothing so quick and thorough in curing chronic constipation and weak, fagged nerves as a fruit treatment. You can eat and enjoy it like fruit or candy. Full sized packages, 25c and 50c, at drug stores. If your druggist has not got it, send your remittance to the Rengo Co., Rengo Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and they will send it prepaid. You can get a trial package of Multo-Fruto free only by writing to the above address. No free packages at druggists.

DASTARDLY ACT.

Miscreants Sprinkle Poison on Chinamen's Food With Evident Intent to Commit Murder.

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 26.—What is believed to be a deliberate attempt at wholesale poisoning of Chinese ranch hands was discovered this morning. The Chinese found in their food fine, white crystals. Anxious to learn the nature of the stuff, they fed it to the dog, which died shortly afterward.

The case was at once reported to the authorities and officers were put to work. As yet no clew has been obtained.

NEAR DEATH ON HONEYMOON.

The romantic love story of Engineer Fred Hinckley of the yacht Hawk, and his bride, who was Miss Foxen of this city, narrowly escaped having a tragic ending in the surf off Pismo Beach yesterday. Hinckley and his bride left the Hawk in a small boat, to row ashore. Off Pismo Beach their frail craft was upset and they were rescued from the storm-tossed waters with difficulty by clam diggers.

Hinckley met his bride in San Francisco, wooed and won her. Parental objection made it impossible for the wedding to be held at the bride's home so the sweethearts were married at Oxnard. They were on their way to San Francisco to spend their honeymoon when the mishap took place.

LITTLE GIRL BITTEN.

Frances Hallett, 11 years of age, of No. 4119 Central avenue, was attacked by a vicious dog while passing the home of Mrs. F. B. Field of No. 1021 East Forty-fifth street, yesterday afternoon. The brute leaped for the little girl's throat. Instinctively she threw out her right arm to protect herself and was bitten in the hand. She was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

KNOCKED DOWN BY BICYCLE.

J. H. Welsh, 67 years of age, of No. 530 Temple street, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon when he was knocked down by a bicycle at Fifth street and Broadway. He sustained numerous bruises and lacerations.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Tom Pau, driver of a laundry wagon, was arrested yesterday afternoon on complaint of officers of the Chinese Laundry Association, who accuse him of having appropriated $250 of the association's funds. He says he is innocent.

BIG CONVENTION IN NEW CHURCH.

USEFULNESS OF THE EDIFICE QUICKLY SHOWN.

Latest of Pomona's Houses of Worship Is to Be Scene of Pasadena District Epworth League Sessions. City Trustees Apportion the Local Tax Rate.

POMONA, Aug. 26.—It has been decided to hold the Pasadena District Epworth League Convention here November 13 and 14, at New Trinity Methodist Church, corner Gibbs and Pearl streets, when the local leagues of the First Methodist and Trinity Methodist Churches will entertain 200 delegates. Several prominent speakers will be present and the young people are planning to make the convention the most helpful and successful of any ever held in the district.

GOES AS DELEGATE.

John F. Bowen has left for Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held there from August 31 to September 5. Mr. Bowen will also be present at the reunion of his regiment, the Ninety-sixth Ohio Volunteers. He was an active participant in many battles during the Civil War and was confined in Libby prison at one time for three months.

A number of Pomona ladies went to Claremont this afternoon to attend a reception given by Miss Kinney at her home on College avenue, in honor of Mrs. James D. Culbertson, nee Bertha Eldredge, who will soon leave for her new home at Santa Paula.

Clarence Spaulding of Phoenix, Ariz., who is en route to Oxford, where he has won one of the Cecil Rhodes' four-year scholarships, is a guest of L. W. Pierce and family.

Under the tax rate as levied by the City Trustees this week, there will be apportioned for the running of the public schools $26,378; for road and street improvements, over $14,000; for the improvement of parks about $9500 and for the general fund of the city, $28,317.28.

SWEPT.

DEVASTATED BY TERRIBLE FIRE.

MOUNTAIN SLOPES NEAR TEMECULA RAVAGED.

Strong Wind Drives Flames and Smoke Toward Menifee Valley. Consolidated Bank of Elsinore Reports Good Year and Declares Satisfactory Dividend.

ELSINORE, Aug. 25.—A terrible fire is raging near Temecula, and a strong wind is driving the flames and smoke toward the Menifee Valley. Fires have been very frequent this summer and have done immense damage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sitton were here from Los Angeles today to attend the administrator's sale of the Jonathan Sitton property on the mountains above here. The property was bought in by J. T. Kuhns for other parties, the consideration being $800. A foreclosure sale has also been advertised against the property, to take place September 11, 1908. George R. Freeman, attorney for Edna D. Eastman, was here from Corona today. Collier and Carnahan are attorneys for the administrator.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

At the annual stockholders' meeting of the Consolidated Bank of Elsinore, held this afternoon, S. A. Stewart was reëlected president; C. D. Pool, vice-president; J. A. Crane, cashier and secretary. S. H. Herrick of Riverside and J. C. F. Hull, a Los Angeles banker, were also elected directors.

Mr. Crane's annual report showed net earnings of 11 per cent. over expenses, which is somewhat more than last year. A 6 per cent. dividend was declared, the balance being placed in the surplus and reserve fund.

DISCUSS EXCURSION.

Local Business Men May Attend Irrigation Congress Under Chaperonage of Chamber of Commerce.

The subject of a special excursion to the Irrigation Congress to be held in Albuquerque, N. M., September 29, was discussed at yesterday's Chamber of Commerce directorate meeting. It was suggested that such an excursion would aid local merchants in extending their territory and would tend to promote friendly relations between this city and the towns along the line of the Santa Fé.

The Excursion Committee was requested to discuss the matter with jobbers, and report at the next meeting. President Stewart appointed E. W. McGeem, E. P. Wood, C. B. Boothe and J. F. Hughes to represent the chamber as delegates.

The Glad Hand Committee will have charge of a reception and entertainment to be given in honor of the visit of members of the Colorado Manufacturers' Association, October 1. The chamber was asked to assist the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association in receiving at the opening of the new building, September 5. President Stewart was authorized to appoint delegates to the Trans-Mississippi Congress, to be held in San Francisco, October 6-10. The following members were elected: H. D. McCabe, Newel E. Vinson and P. A. Hubert.

FALL WITH BACK SEAT.

Mrs. C. Underdow and Mrs. Myrtle Jones of Laguna sustained serious injuries last night when the back seat of a wagon in which they were riding fell to the ground, carrying them with it. Mrs. Underdow, who is 57 years of age, sustained bruises on her chest and is suffering from shock. Mrs. Jones, 37 years of age, sustained injuries to the head and back. Henry Underdow, a farmer, was driving. The women were treated at the Receiving Hospital.

MAY FORM CIVIC LEAGUE.

Redondo Thinks It Needed as Protection Against Ill-considered Acts of Officials.

REDONDO, Aug. 26.—A plan to organize a Civic League is on foot. The chief object is to protect the interests of property owners and taxpayers when threatened by ill-considered acts on the part of public officials.

If the organization should be formed it will owe its existence to the driving out of office of the two minority members of the Board of Trustees, and the attempt of the City Clerk with the knowledge and consent of the majority of the Board, to secure $99.95 on an alleged illegal demand.

HORRIBLE.

FOOD FOR ANTS WHILE DYING.

WHITE PLAGUE VICTIM ENDURES UNSPEAKABLE TORTURE.

Too Ill to Move, Lies Unheeded Under Tree for Two Days and Nights—Heat, Cold, Nipping Insects, Fever, Hunger and Thirst His Portion.

Lying helpless beneath the shade of a tree near the Cawston Ostrich Farm for two days and nights, while pedestrians paid no heed to his calls, Burton B. Jarvis, a victim of tuberculosis, was almost eaten alive by swarms of large red ants.

Pneumonia, contracted from the exposure, combined with the ant poison, caused the man's death at the County Hospital shortly before daybreak yesterday.

Jarvis was 26 years of age. His home is at No. 25 Chestnut street, Terre Haute, Ind. Two years ago he was taken ill with tuberculosis, and after fighting the disease, gave up his business in the East, bade his wife and child good-by, and came to the Coast to make a last stand against the white plague. After spending much time at health resorts, he came to Los Angeles several days ago, and took apartments at the Cragburn Hotel, No. 418½ Ruth avenue.

Sunday, on the advice of a friend, he went for a pleasure trip. He left the car and was on his way to the Ostrich Farm entrance when he became ill. He went to a near-by tree and lay down beneath its shade, hoping that the sickness would pass. He fainted. When he recovered consciousness it was very dark. Through the long night and the dread chill that precedes dawn, Jarvis shivered, too weak to move, and feeling his lungs grow tight and sore.

The cold of the morning changed to the heat of the day. From chills Jarvis went into a high fever. His feeble cries went unnoticed by pedestrians, who thought the man intoxicated. Swarms of flies settled on him, and he was too weak to brush them off. Like a captive of the desert Indians staked out to an ant hill, the weakened man was compelled to undergo torture unspeakable while vicious insects nipped him on the face, hands, arms and neck until the blood came, and the lacerated flesh turned into bluish scores.

Late in the afternoon boys found the dying man. He told them he was hungry and instructed them to take money from his pockets and fetch food and help. They returned with the food, but no help came.

Day became night, and with the dark came the bitter chill again. Jarvis became unconscious. It was almost day when he recovered, his strength waning, his life almost gone. The heat and fever of another long day, the torture of the ants and flies, left the man a thing of horror, a creature almost mad with torture. The little boys returned in the afternoon, and finding him still there, sent in a second alarm. A woman of the neighborhood, notified the authorities at the County Hospital, and Jarvis was hurried to that institution. He died several hours after reaching it.

Autumn Dress Materials

The New Woolens. Every day adds dozens of new things to our Fall stock of dress woolens; not merely late arrivals, but absolutely new styles. Designs, colorings and weaves are different from any heretofore seen, and the variety, seemingly, will be broader, more varied than ever before.

Herringbone and Chevron stripes in solid colors, or two or three toned effects; shadow stripes with self colored bayadere bands; narrow stripes in manish looking imported cloths, lustrous, pliable satin broadcloths, and other supple fabrics with the utmost draping possibilities.

Prices begin at $1.00 and range on up to $3.50 yard.

Silken Elegance. In many cases the Autumn Silks follow the same general plan, as to weave, of the woolens.

Herringbone and Chevron effects are prominent; stripes in solid colors or various combinations; besides, a most satisfying assortment of little Jacquard and brocade effects in plain colors. In the plain weaves are Duchess Satins, Princess Phantoms, Messalines and other soft undulating, clinging goods so essential to the prevailing fashions. Prices range from $1 to $1.50 yard.

So far as one may be able to judge from the present showing the best colors in both wools and silks for Fall will include toupe gray, Edison, navy, peacock and cadet blues; duck, cunard, olive, bronze and myrtle greens; tans and leather browns; cataba, wisteria, etc., etc. See the new styles today.

$8, $10 and $12 Hats $3.50

Trimmed hats of the "Blackstone" style and quality. Only seventeen in the lot, so be punctual.

Turbans and sailor shapes in nearly all popular colors, trimmed with ribbon bows, wings and flowers. You may have seen them in the window yesterday. None is worth less than $8.00, more are actual $10.00 and $12.00 models. Choice today, $3.50.

UNWILLING.

FEARED WILL MEANT DEATH.

Superstitious Dread Dooms Expectant Heirs.

Riches of a Night Vanish Before the Dawn.

Walden Estate Seems Sure for School Fund.

Learning that there is practically no chance of gaining the legacies promised by Mrs. Mathilda Walden, as told in The Times, because she made no will, those informed as to her affairs broke silence yesterday and told how close they came to riches. While they admit chagrin at the prank of fate, they seem satisfied that the entire estate shall go to the State if none who expected a bequest gets anything. It was hinted yesterday that some may seek to establish claims, but this is not regarded as promising of success.

Knowing for ten years that her wealth would revert to the commonwealth Mrs. Walden followed a country superstition which she brought from Ireland that "they who make their wills must soon die," and she did not, until last Friday evening, believe that she was near death. And she was much nearer then than she or any one else dreamed. That is why she waited until too late.

C. G. Sawyer, her trusted business agent, was her amanuensis last Friday night when she dictated from her sick bed in the little home at Ingraham and Valencia streets the items constituting the division of her property. This memoranda, it is related, gave the most liberal shares to Sawyer and to Mrs. John Webber, No. 222 East Adams street. There were a number of other bequests to friends, many of them merely nominal. But the two named were to receive the bulk of the estate, which was an intention Mrs. Walden had often expressed.

Now it is the judgment of those who are familiar with her history and that of the estate, which she inherited, that the State alone is the inheritor, for there is neither relative nor will.

RICHES VANISH.

Answering Mrs. Walden's summons last Friday, Sawyer called at the house in the evening and received her dictation. It was 10 o'clock before he had set down to her satisfaction the items. Though Mrs. Walden knew she was very sick, alarm was not felt, and Sawyer left her house with the instruction to take the memoranda to George J. Denis, who has been the old woman's attorney for twenty-five years, that he might prepare the document for execution. Sawyer went to bed feeling that he was to receive the reward that Mrs. Walden had long promised for his fidelity to her.

As he lives quite near her home, he stopped there on his way down to Denis's office Saturday morning, and was astonished to find crepe on the door and to learn that Mrs. Walden had died a few hours after she had dictated her will. A sudden turn for the worse had come, Dr. John Kirkpatrick was summoned, and while he was in attendance she breathed her last.

Thus the riches bestowed in the night turned to ashes before dawn. An estate that is valued at $150,000, and may amount to much more, is withdrawn from the intended beneficiaries, and the State school fund, under the law, becomes the sole legatee.

SCORE DISAPPOINTED.

There were a score of persons who had been promised legacies by the old woman, though not that number were included in the substantial bequests in the memoranda, which is now in Denis's possession. Often Mrs. Walden was importuned by some of them to make her will, and several times word was brought her attorney to visit her and prepare it. But each time the old superstition arose, and Mrs. Walden excitedly repudiated the orders and declared "When I am ready to make a will I will make it, and no sooner."

The most valuable possession of the estate, practically all of it, is the block at First and Main streets. By the chain of inheritance and the law, this corner, after the seven years specified by law elapse, will become a possession of the State for the first time. For it came to John Wilson, a blacksmith of Los Angeles, from the owner who got it from the Spanish crown, in the days of the old pueblo of which it was a part. Three times has it figured in the settlement of estates, and one of these times the whole population of Southern California was interested in it.

SAVED GOLD PIECES.

John Wilson, the blacksmith, was one of the pioneers of Los Angeles. He built his smithy in the fifties on First near Main, and shod the horses of miners, whose California gold pieces fell into his leather apron at the rate of $5 for each horse shod. In his industrious periods Wilson was thrifty and with the aid of his wife, Bridget, saved the $500 that bought the lot at First and Main. That was the beginning of his fortune, for afterward his thrift increased and he accumulated many other pieces. One of the largest was the fifty-acre ranch extending along San Pedro street, from Jefferson to Thirtieth street.

But Wilson in his cups was a profligate. In 1892, after a "time" that was shown in court to have cost him $25,000, he obeyed the advice of his attorney and deeded all his property to his wife, Bridget, to escape the consequences of any future error. Not long after this deed was executed Wilson and his wife, during a carousal at their home, upset the lamp and set fire to the house. Mrs. Wilson's clothing caught fire and she was terribly burned about the abdomen. Wilson extinguished the flames and carried her from the house.

BRIDGET WILSON'S WILL.

For ten days she lay in agony before death relieved her. But during the ten days she was beseiged by many who made claim to her bounty and after death a remarkable will was offered in which she divided the estate, then worth between $300,000 and $400,000, largely among strangers and made no provision for her husband except an allowance of $50 a month providing he did not marry a certain woman!

Wilson, through his counsel, Stephen M. White, John Chapman and G. J. Denis, attacked the will. The trial aroused the whole community and ended in the jury deciding that it was not the will of Bridget Wilson. One of the things that contributed to this verdict is said to have been the incongruous religious bequests. Mrs. Wilson was a Catholic and left that church $30,000. But she also left a bequest to an attorney for the use of the Protestant Episcopal church, of which her husband was a member. This incongruity was regarded as evidence that the will was not hers.

Though this incongruity may have affected the jury it did not appeal to the Supreme Court, which set aside the verdict and sustained the will, finding no duress or fraud or incompetency in its making.

WILSON GETS CORNER.

Under the advice of his attorneys Wilson then compromised by taking one-fourth the estate and selected the corner at First and Main street as a part of his portion.

The compromise was barely in force when Wilson died. This brought in Mrs. Walden, who was his sister. She has come from Ireland soon after him and married a German saloonkeeper, long since dead. On the death of Wilson, who left no will, she at once claimed the estate. To make certain that she was entitled to it a search for other heirs was made. Wilson had one brother, an officer in the English army, who died at sea. A thorough search found no relative to dispute Mrs. Walden's claim and the Wilson estate passed to her. Ever since it has remained in her possession.

Those who are informed as to Mrs. Walden's affairs say that some of her brother's traits of character afflicted her and that at times she has been profligate with her money. uBt all agree that she had for many years intended to generously remember those whom she liked at her death. Many who attended the funeral at her home last Monday were sure that she had a will in Mr. Denis's keeping, but this is not true.

Under the laws of California the only bequests that may be recognized are those made by will written entirely by the testator and signed by her, or a will prepared and signed by her and duly witnessed. That no such document exists there is positive assurance, and the only possibility that any claim could be established would be by a letter written by her naming the bequest, and this is regarded as a mere hazard. Her correspondence was limited, and was not with those who anticipated legacies.

WILL DEFEND STATE.

As to the possibility of a remote relative that, too, seems to be hopeless, in the view of those informed. The efforts sixteen years ago to find one were futile, though extensive. But seven years is a long time, and there is a likelihood that in those years many will seek to establish relationship and gain the estate.

The Public Administrator is prepared to defend the State against any spurious claim, and the claimant that would succeed will have to produce the most positive evidence. While the law is taking its course Los Angeles will be moving onward in its growth and realty value and by the time the estate reaches the school fund it may be doubled. That is the belief of some who know its present value.

GROWING METHODISM.

Three New Churches Will Be Ready for Dedication Before the Annual Conference.

On Saturday evening Rev. Dr. A. W. Adkinson, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, will organize a new congregation in a tent at Thirty-eighth place and Normandie avenue, where a revival has been in progress for some time, under the leadership of Evangelist H. D. Kennedy, but which will close on Sunday. The work has been fostered by the City Missionary Society, of which Rev. C. J. Miller is the superintendent, and it has been so successful that the new congregation will be organized with at least thirty-one members. Through the generosity of University Methodist Church, a lot has been purchased at Thirty-ninth street and Brighton avenue, to which the portable church now being used at Townsend avenue and East First street, will be removed within a week or two.

A modest new church is also ready for dedication by the Methodists at Belvidere Heights. They purchased a couple of small school buildings that had been vacated by the Board of Education, built to them, and through the combination have a church 40x60 feet.

One of the best Methodist churches of the year is that ready for dedication at Altadena, built under the leadership of Rev. E. S. Chase, one of the most energetic old ministers in the conference. The building is one admirably suited to its picturesque surroundings in the foothill suburb, and extends Methodist activities right up to the threshold of the mountains.

CURRENTS TELLING TALES.

Their Usual Trend Indicates Distant Storms in Ocean—Heavy Swells Prevailing.

Great ocean storms are raging, perhaps a thousand miles or more offshore. This report comes by what may be called nature's "waveograph."

The currents, these August days, have been showing peculiar activity, gliding in a direction the exact reverse of that commonly pursued. Reports from mariners at Santa Monica Bay and vicinity, and from San Pedro pilots, confirm this.

No explanation was vouchsafed at the Weather Bureau, but Superintendent Mahar of the Wilmington Transportation Company said that during this month the currents along the Southern California Coast are always more or less disturbed, and that there are always heavy swells, although the surface of the sea appears calm. The currents, he explains, are affected by remote hurricanes, some of which have unquestionably been blowing within the past ten days.

LITTLE HOPE, SAY DOCTORS.

Young Woman Who Jumped from Hotel Window in Precarious Condition—Brother Coming.

Miss Charlotte Foster, the wealthy young woman of Portland, Me., who, in a fit of temporary insanity, threw herself from a third-story window at the Hotel Angelus Tuesday, was reported to be in a sligthly improved condition last night, but as she sustained a fracture of the skull and internal injuries, the attending physicians have little hope of her recovery.

Miss Foster is 35 years of age, and is the daughter of the late Charles Foster, who was a millionaire toothpick manufacturer. She came to California to regain her strength after a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Her brother left Portland last night for this city.

ASSETS EXCEED LIABILIITES.

Four bankruptcy petitions were filed in the United States District Court yesterday, two of them involving large liabilities.

John H. Carruthers, an orange grower of Lordsburg, gave as his liabilities, $109,670.14, and $119,416 assets. The secured creditors include the following-named. Emil Firth, $9646; John W. Vaughn, $46,290; Savings Bank and Trust Company of Pomona, $6500; State Bank of Pomona, $8415. The unsecured claims approximate $18,485. Hearing upon an injunction to prevent the auction sale of property belonging to the bankrupt will be before Judge Wellborn, September 14. Charles Widrig, of this city, who calls himself a "promoter," filed his bankruptcy schedule, showing $82,839 liabilities, and nominal assets. The petition of J. E. Grant of this city, shows $8803 liabilities and $18,955 assets. Dean A. Markham of this city gives as his liabilities, $483 and assets $60.

SHOCKING!

GIVES MAIDEN PANTALOONS.

Old Chinaman Sends Her His Wife's Last Pair.

Infatuated With Chorus Girl, Forsakes Home.

Charmer Beautiful to Him as "Gaul of Deer."

Desperately in love with Miss May Taylor, a chorus girl, Lee Yu Kee, a Chinese merchant went so far in his mad adorations yesterday, as to send her as a present the last pair of pantaloons possessed by his little Chinese wife.

Chinatown is in a furore over the infatuation of the old man, who has forsaken his business, his home and all that holds him to his Celestial surroundings to spend his time in dreaming of love, writing scorching letters and attending every performance at the theater where Miss Taylor sings.

A grizzled, wrinkled, monkeyish-looking man, Lee has adopted all the artificial forms of adornment known to him. His hair is plastered with cocoa butter and Chinese oil, his clothes are sprinkled with sandal wood dust and the inevitable Chinese musk pervades his garments. His overjacket is of silk, his underjacket of silk-slashed broadcloth, and his pantaloons of flowered satin. Lee is a "sport." According to the reports in Chinatown, the old beau is spending his time learning to eat noodles with a fork in American fashion and to hold his cigarette between his fore and middle fingers instead of pinched between the tips of his thumb and first finger, in true Chinese fashion.

WORKS OF ART.

Miss Taylor declares she has never even seen the Celestial, who nightly adores her as she trips about the stage. He has written her three notes, all in Chinese, and these she had translated. They are works of art.

Yesterday she received a package. When she opened it she gazed in wonder, for there lay a pair of Chinese trousers—the kind worn by Chinese women. They were of black silk and highly embroidered. With the present a note expressing these tender sentiments:

"Oh, my most beautiful lady who kicks her feet. Here are my wife's pantaloons. Now she must stay at home, for these are the last she had. She can no longer follow me to see where I go, and I am happy. To thee, most beautiful white lady, I give these most necessary women-things which belong to my wife. Oh, most beautiful woman! When you move about on the stage all jumpy-jumpy, my eyes seem to swim and I forget even the glory of the sacred chicken. To me you are as beautiful as bird's nest soup or the gall of a deer slain in the light of the moon. Farewell, most beautiful lady, who I must pay money to the ugly man at the door before I can get in to look upon. Farewell to the pantaloons of my wife."

This epistle almost dazed Miss Taylor, but when she learned that bird's nest soup and deer's gall are considered food for emperors she began to appreciate the compliment.

Another letter received by her from her Celestial adorer had evidently been written after long consideration, and with the help of some educated friend. It reads:

AWFULLY "MISSFUL."

"Letter to my most beloved lady. Oh, fair lady, I be missful of you always. When you leave the sight of my eyes, then it is dark. This city of Los Angeles is all right; please stay here forever! But still I can't help but miss you all the time. I hope you will send me a token soon. My friends, oh lady, say I am not pretty. They are liars, oh lady. Time is agony to me. One day seems like three months.

"I hope you will sympathise with my love, my heart and affection for you. I love but the one dear lady. Be sure to protect your health. It is time now to close. Remember, I kiss my little finger, thinking it is you and my little finger has a long nail on it."

Miss Taylor is keeping the strange missive as a souvenir. She is also keeping the package of sweet cakes sent her. These are considered a rare delicacy among the Chinese, but taste to an American like a cheap grade of wall plaster.

Lee's actions have caused many of his countrymen to visit the Grand Opera House to watch him. He has not missed a performance since he saw Miss Taylor there. He occupies the same seat every night and matinee He is well known to the men of the theater, who poke fun at the old Celestial to his great delight. He blushes furiously beneath his wrinkled skin whenever he is told that he is progressing as an up-to-date dude.

MARRIED WOMEN ALARMED.

Wife's Announcement That She Won't Be Responsible for Husband's Debts Causes Stir.

The white-winged dove of peace is resting again in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward at No. 3857 Downey avenue.

Tuesday Mrs. Ward put this advertisement in the newspapers:

"To Whom it May Concern—I will not be responsible for debts contracted by my husband, A. H. Ward."

When inquiry was made yesterday afternoon a member of Mrs. Ward's family stated that the warning was "all off," and that "it was all made up."

"They had a little tiff," was the explanation, "and she impulsively rushed downtown and put that 'ad' in the newspapers. But it's all right now, although Mrs. Ward has been sick in bed ever since."

Mrs. Ward's published announcement led many married women to seek information as to whether they could be held responsible for their husband's debts.

LEAVES WIFE DESTITUTE.

Alleging that her husband had deserted her after sending her a note telling of his departure, Mrs. Alice Murray of San Diego last night asked the aid of the local police in the search for him. Mrs. Murray is in a delicate condition. Last night when she arrived at the Police Station she was hysterical, and needed medical treatment. She stated that her husband left San Diego a few days ago, sending her a message as he got on a train. The note stated that Murray was going away forever. Mrs. Murray is destitute.

THANKS COURT FOR TOBACCO.

In Novel Verdict Jury Expresses Appreciation of Justice's Fine Brand.

C. H. Lee, accused of the larceny of $50 worth of iron pipe from the Red Rover mine at Acton in July, was acquitted in twenty-five minutes, by a jury in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday. The verdict read: "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty. Your Honor, Judge Summerfield, we, as jurymen, thank you for the consideration shown us, and especially thank you for the loan of your fine brand of tobacco." Lee asserted that part of the pipe on his place was bought by him when he purchased the property, and that the rest was obtained from an Acton dealer.

DORR REPORT DELAYED.

Creditors May not Learn State of Broker's Resources and Liabilities for Many Days.

It may be many days before the experts working on the accounts of Fred Dorr, the broker now in financial limbo, reach the completion of their work. What seemed at first to be the work of two weeks may become the work of a month more, as the existence of many branch offices and the dealings with brokers in Chicago and New York require checking by mail that is full of delays.

There will be no meeting of the creditors today, as has been announced, at least none that will concern Receiver Carroll Allen. The creditors will not be fully known until the experts get through their work and then a meeting will be called to select a trustee. Under the law a majority of creditors and a majority of the total indebtedness is required to select this trustee.

COMMENDS "THE TIMES."

Afro-American Council Appreciates Firm Stand for Open Shop and Fairness in Race Questions.

The three days' session of the Afro-American Council of this State closed last night with an entertainment. During the day various committees were appointed, and several papers were read. Resolutions were adopted commending the firm stand taken by The Times for the open shop, and for this journal's fairness in dealing with all questions affecting the races. The delegates condemned the action of the Democratic convention in endeavoring to foist the responsibility of the riot in Springfield upon the Republican Governor of a Republican State.

A real estate and employment bureau in Alameda county was indorsed and it was voted to hold next year's convention in Oakland.

THEIR HOLDINGS SAFE.

Palo Verde Valley Settlers Secure Under Decision of Commissioner of General Land Office.

Settlers in the Palo Verde Valley who have feared lest their holdings be taken away from them upon a technicality of the government land law, have received assurance from the local Land Office, that they will be fully protected in their claims. Commissioner of the General Land Office Dennett confirms the judgment of the local office.

According to its ruling, persons unable to complete their improvements because of floods, will have additional time in which to comply with the Land Office regulations.

The case just decided was that of William H. Berman, who made a desert land entry in the Palo Verde Valley in 1902. Final proof was made in 1906. The entryman asked for three years more in which to make proof because of adverse conditions. The report of the special agent showed that during the first year, Beman cleared off twenty acres and the second year cultivated the same and constructed ditches. A pumping plant was installed, but in 1905, the overflow came and the rancher lost his pumping plant and his ditches were ruined.

Commissioner Dennett states that the showing made by the entryman is ample to establish his claim for more time in which to complete his work. The entryman is allowed to withdraw his proof and the tract entry will be held intact to await the submission of fresh proofs of improvements.

There are a number of similar cases in the same section and Gen. Prescott states that they will receive the benefit of this ruling.

PATRIOTIC NOVELTY.

Veterans' Fife and Drum Corps Will Assist Dramatic Reader at Coming Church Entertainment.

Mrs. Emily Morgan, who is arranging a benefit entertainment for the Union Avenue Methodist Church, has evolved a patriotic novelty, which is likely to prove a great attraction.

Rev. Will A. Knighten, pastor of the Union Avenue Church, is a well-known veteran of the Civil War and member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and out of this fact probably grew Mrs. Morgan's desire to produce a new patriotic attraction.

Being a powerful dramatic reader, she will render a recitation commemorative of the march of the troops through the South, the Los Angeles veterans' fife and drum corps rendering the national airs as interludes between the stanzas. Beginning with "Marching Through Georgia," and ending with "The Star Spangled Banner," the martial clatter of fife and drum will create the highest degree of patriotic fervor.

The entertainment at which the new production will be introduced will be held in Blanchard Hall on Tuesday evening, September 8, Mrs. Morgan charging nothing whatever for her services. She will be assisted by Mrs. Augusta J. Hill and Mrs. Christiana Schultz, accomplished vocalists and pianists, and Rev. B. C. Cory will sing a solo. The programme of Mrs. Morgan's selections for the evening is of a varied character, from "Uncle Josh in New York" to "Hagar." She has a splendid voice and figure and gives her readings with great dramatic effect. This will be her seventh appearance before Los Angeles audiences and she has always had the most flattering receptions.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Council is visibly perturbed over the recommendation of Inspector Edwards that the pay of the street force be reduced from $2.25 to $2 a day; unless that is granted there will be a certain deficit in the street maintenance fund at the end of the fiscal year.

Emmit B. Rice was appointed yesterday as animal keeper at Eastlake Park; Rice is a civil service man. Two other civil service men, his immediate predecessors, were killed by the animals in the zoo.

Judge James yesterday awarded Maria J. Curley, 11 years old, and Mercedes Curley, 10 years old, to the custody of their father, Peter Curley, a Carlsbad ranchman.

Judgment adverse to Mrs. Kitturia B. Osborn was given by Justice Pierce yesterday in her suit against Henry Roeder, and others, for $299, alleged due for injury to property. Her husband, O. D. Osborn, secured $5 damages in his suit against Roeder, and others, on the same ground.

Judge Bordwell granted Henry Watson a divorce from Mrs. Elizabeth Watson for desertion. It is an unusual case.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SHORTAGE IN STREET FUND.

BUDGET APPROPRIATION IS TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS SHY.

Council not in Mood to Grant Recommendation from Inspector Edwards to Reduce the Pay of the Street Force—Successor to Get Strenuous Legacy.

Inspector Edwards of the department of public works will bequeath a strenuous legacy to his successor when he retires from the Board of Public Works at the close of the present year. Mr. Edwards is conducting the street department just now on a strictly economical basis. He has spent two years and a half in figuring out how to manage the department of streets with the same careful economy that he applied to his private business before he became a public official.

He has made an excellent record in obtaining the maximum amount of work at the minimum expense, but in so doing he has incurred the enmity of half a dozen "interests" that formerly profited from the pickings in the street department.

This year he made an estimate for the expense of his department, and he figured it below the cost of street maintenance last year. The Council came along and cut $10,000 from this estimate in making its budget.

Inspector Edwards responded to this cut by sending a communication to the Council asking that the wages of the laborers in the street department be reduced from $2.25 to $2 a day. Such a recommendation is entirely without precedent in the political history of the City Hall. No depart[illegible] has ever shown the te[illegible] recommend that s[illegible] ticular departme[illegible]

Monday the Council will act on the recommendation of Inspector Edwards for the reduction in the pay of the men in the street department; and present indications are that it will be disregarded. The Board of Public Works has already reduced the pay of laborers on the aqueduct from $2.25 to $2 a day. Over this the Council has no jurisdiction, but the reduction for the street department can be made only through the medium of an ordinance passed by the Council.

NEW ANIMAL KEEPER.

YOUNG BLOOD FOR ZOO.

Emmit B. Rice received the appointment yesterday of keeper of the Eastlake Park Zoo. Rice served in this position two years ago, but was replaced by a man who made a higher average in a Civil Service competition. Rice will take charge of the animals in the Zoo at once. His appointment came yesterday from the Park Commission.

In taking the place as animal keeper at Eastlake Rice succeeds to what appears by the records to be an extremely hazardous position. Within the last two years two other men have served as animal keeper, and each has died of blood poisoning from wounds received while tending the beasts and reptiles in the park. Each of these received his position through a Civil Service examination; Rice is a Civil Service man too, but he says he is not at all concerned about the place because the others lost their lives there.

The park board considered for a time giving the place to Mrs. Gerson, wife of the animal keeper who lost his life at the park two months ago. Yesterday the commissioners decided to appoint Rice, who stands highest on the Civil Service list, and to care for Mrs. Gerson by placing her in charge of the playgrounds in the parks. She receives the same wages as a park laborer, but she says it will be sufficient to care for her and her babies.

Rice says he is in favor of moving all the animals from Eastlake to Griffith Park. He says that the experience of the last three years shows that the animals do not thrive at Eastlake.

DEAF AND DUMB FATHER WINS.

Pathetic Scene Follows Decision Parting Young Girls from Their Grandmother—Carlsbad Ranchman Able to Testify Only With Aid of Brother, Who Reads Lip Motions.

A spectacle of unusual pathos was seen in Judge James's court yesterday afternoon, when Peter Curley, a deaf and dumb ranchman of Carlsbad, appeared to show why he should be awarded the custody of his two daughters, Maria J. Curley, 11 years old, and Mercedes Curley, 10 years old, who wept bitterly at the prospect of being parted from their grandmother, Mrs. Jesus Robles of No. 2522 Leonard street.

Curley was able to communicate with the court only by the aid of his deformed brother, S. A. Curley, who could read the motions of the witness's lips.

The father said that thirteen years ago he married Inez Robles, the mother of his daughters, and that six years later he met with an accident that compelled him to go to a hospital.

When he was able to leave the institution, he found that his wife had deserted him, taking the children, and was living with another man on Eighth street, he stated. [illegible] FAMILY.

[illegible] AND WIFE SUE.

[illegible] light was thrown on the [illegible]cated real estate transactions of Mrs. Kitturia Osborn, awaiting sentence for obtaining money under false pretenses, by the trial yesterday in Justice Pierce's court of a civil suit brought by her against Henry Roeder, Mrs. Myrtle Maag Putnam, and others. She sought to recover $299 as damages for alleged injury to her piano in November.

Her husband, O. D. Osborn, filed another suit against Roeder and Mrs. Putnam for a like amount, alleged due for personal property put out of the premises at No. 1171 West Fortieth street at the same time that the piano was removed. Both suits were tried together and judgment was given against Mrs. Osborn, while her husband was awarded $5 for technical trespass.

As the Osborns have filed in the Superior Court a suit against Roeder, Mrs. Putnam and others, to cancel a deed to the house and lot at No. 1171 West Fortieth street, on the ground that the defendants extorted a deed to the property from their son, Thomas D. Osborn, by threats of sending him to jail, much of the evidence yesterday bore directly on the suit in the higher court.

"Mrs. Osborn was building the house on West Fortieth street when she was involved in bankruptcy proceedings in December, 1906," O. D. Osborn testified. "I asserted that the property was community and not her separate property, so when the place was sold at foreclosure to satisfy a $1500 mortgage, I arranged to secure it with money I had. I got the money from W. J. Rankin, and J. P. Lee bid the place in. Then he deeded it to another man, who deeded it to my son, Thomas D. Osborn, who held it in trust for me. In February, 1907, I paid my son $100 for a year's lease and moved some furniture in, although the house had no doors or windows or floring.

"In September, 1907, my son was led to give a deed to the premises to Miss Myrtle Maag, a detective, now Mrs. Putnam, and she deeded the place to Henry Roeder. In October and November, they, despite my lease, put my stuff out of the place four times. I and my wife moved it back three times, but the fourth time rain fell and utterly ruined my $500 piano, which stood in the yard, my books and other furniture."

Roeder and Mrs. Putnam testified that T. D. Osborn owed W. H. Dutton $300, and that Osborn made Mrs. Putnam his agent to sell the property, agreeing to give her a deed to the place, and she was to give Roeder a deed before Osborn should derive any benefit from the $2500 that Roeder placed in escrow, it was stated. Roeder got his deed and was placed in possession of the premises on September 12.

"I notified the Osborns to remove their belongings, and they did so, but afterward put them in again," said Mrs. Putnam. "Tom Osborn told me to put the things in the yard and he would take them away, but he never did so. After every removal I notified the Osborns to take the things away, putting notices under the door of their Magnolia-avenue home. The work of removing the things was done by me and my men. The household goods were worthless. The piano was without legs, laid on the joists of the floor, had a cracked lid and did not give a sound when the keys were struck. The other things were equally weather-worn." Roeder testified to the same effect.

"SUCH A MESS."

DESCRIPTION OF MARRIAGE.

Wedded only three weeks ago and just returned from their honeymoon trip to San Diego, Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, 58 years old and Henry Watson, 67 years old, could not agree on the kind of house in which they should live, and parted. This was Watson's testimony in Judge Bordwell's court, yesterday, and he secured a divorce on the ground of desertion.

"I am a retired farmer from Salem, Wis.," said the witness. "I met Mrs. Watson at Long Beach, about three months before I married her, in June, 1907.

"Well, I never got in such a mess in my life as my marriage proved to be. Mrs. Watson said that she would not live in one room. I was willing to provide a home, for I have some means, and I wanted to rent a nice five-room cottage at Long Beach. But she insisted that I should buy a house and refused absolutely to live in a rented one. She was the meanest tempered woman I ever knew. She would not get my breakfast and told me to go to a restaurant. Nothing I could do suited her. I never talked back at her because I never got a chance. When she got unbearable, I just went out and took a walk.

"Well, I rented a cottage and asked her to come and live there with me. She packed up my things, pointed to them, and told me I could just take them and live by myself in that rented house, for she would live in her own home, or live by herself. So I just took my things and moved into the rented house and lived there one week. Then I gave it up."

SAYS HE'S A MASON.

ADMITS UNLAWFUL POSE.

James Boyd pleaded not guilty to a charge of wearing without right the insignia of a secret order when he was arraigned in Justice Selph's court yesterday morning. In default of $500 bail, he was committed to the County Jail to await his trial on September 8. In an interview, he admitted that he has worn for more than a year the insignia of a thirty-second degree Mason, although he is not entitled to do so.

Boyd was arrested last week, when the local authorities were notified from Bisbee, Ariz., that he had posed as a thirty-second degree Mason there, and that he is wanted in Chicago on the charge of securing financial assistance from members of the Masonic order by false representations. It is said that several local Masons have loaned him money on his story that he has a family to support and that he is suffering from hemorrhages.

"I have for over a year worn a watch charm of the thirty-second degree in Masonry," said Boyd yesterday. "I am a member of the Blue Lodge and am not a thirty-second degree Mason, but it was the duty of the Masons I had business with to test me on my knowledge of the degrees, and this they never did.

"I joined the Rifle Lodge of Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1876, was demitted from it in 1886 to found a lodge in St. Elmo, Colo., which was not formed, and since then I have been a member of no lodge, although for over a year I attended unquestioned the meetings of Mizpah Lodge here. My demit from the Rifle Lodge was unfortunately burned with my clothing at Daggett last July.

"About a year ago I bought my thirty-second degree charm in a second-hand store on Second street, and have worn it since. I have worked all over the West as a miner and timberman, coming here a year ago from Cananea, as I have hemorrhages of the bronchial tubes. I have in the last year been in San Francisco, Montana, Nevada and Arizona, and everywhere I have dealt with Masons, as I have been unable to work much. I have received assistance from the Masonic Relief Committee here as well as from individual Masons in Los Angeles and Pasadena. The police have tried to make me admit that I am not a Mason, but I am one, although I am only a Blue Lodge Mason."

Boyd was examined by physicians at the Receiving Hospital, who say that his hemorrhages are due to a spot kept raw in his mouth and not to a throat affection. He says that he has been an inmate of the Masonic Home here, as he was taken to that institution by a Pasadena member of the order.

FAMILY VIEWS IN MAYR CASE.

Argument on law points, the reading of depositions by George Mayr and Frank Mayr, brothers of W. A. Mayr, and a deposition by their mother, Mrs. Johanna Mayr, were features of the trial of Mrs. Anna Etta Mayr's suit for divorce before Judge James yesterday. The court allowed the admission of statements by the three Mayrs that they would not believe either W. A. Mayr or his sister, Miss Marguerite Mayr, under oath, where W. A. Mayr's interests are concerned.

His mother stated that she had been compelled to sue her son to collect a $1000 note and had lost the suit because he took advantage of the Illinois law against usery, as the note presented to the court purported to show that it bore 12 per cent. interest. The figures, the mother declares, were put on the note by some one, presumably her son, after it was made. Mrs. Johanna Mayr's statement that the Mayr baby resembles her son and in her opinion is his offspring, was not admitted as competent evidence.

Miss Marguerite Mayr said that she has not at any time stated that the Mayr baby resembles W. A. Mayr. The plaintiff then introduced a deposition by a brother, Paul Mayr, to the effect that the witness stated, in a family gathering about two years ago, that the baby was the exact image of W. A. Mayr.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

RECEIVER REFUSED. Judge Conrey yesterday refused to appoint a receiver for the Ocean View Cemetery in the suit brought by Mrs. Charles E. Cobean to wind up the affairs of the corporation. He sustained all demurrers to her amended complaint, and refused leave to amend, excepting only that Mrs. Cobean may, if she wishes, institute suit to recover the money she invested in stock. The plaintiff asserted that the corporation has been promoted by fraudulent means.

HABEAS CORPUS. In habeas corpus proceedings brought by Joe Goldstein, sentenced to 100 days in the City Jail as a vagrant, Judge Bordwell yesterday decided that the complaint was technically sufficient and remanded him to custody.

INFORMATIONS FILED. The District Attorney yesterday filed in Judge Jamison's court informations against Otto Manke for burglary, and C. R. Hasson for passing a worthless check.

OVERCHARGE ALLEGED. E. Rabin has filed in Justice Selph's court a suit against the American National Bank to recover $134, alleged overcharge collected on an $8000 mortgage loan negotiated in January, 1907. The defendant asserts that the money was justly collected as interest, as the original agreement under which the loan was made was violated by the plaintiff and subsequent modifications were accepted by him.

CONDEMNATION. The City of Inglewood yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit in condemnation against Mrs. Louise M. Dawes, and other property owners affected by the improvement of Grevelea and Inglewood streets in that city.

TO CHANGE NAME. Jason I. de Freitas yesterday filed in the Superior Court a petition that he be allowed to change his name by dropping from it the "de," as being contrary to the usages of this country.

ASKS DAMAGES. Miss Alice Wicks yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad company for $7500 damages. She asserts that while walking on the Southern Pacific wharf at San Pedro on April 18, she slipped through a broken place in the structure and sustained injury to her legs.

ADMINISTRATION. Frank R. Seaver yesterday filed in the Superior Court a petition for administration of the $35,000 California estate of Mrs. Elizabeth Dodge Park, who died in Norfolk, Mass., on November 15.

FELONY. Antonio Martini was sentenced to three years in San Quentin yesterday for felonious relations with Fannie Martini, his niece.

IMPERIAL CASE. Judge Franklin J. Cole of Imperial county sat in Department Six of the Superior Court yesterday to hear evidence on a motion for allowance, and counsel fees in a divorce suit, to be tried this fall in his county. William T. Hefferman, a rancher, charges Mrs. Marie Hefferman with cruelty. Some of the witnesses are Los Angeles residents. The Heffermans were married ten years ago and separated last fall, when the wife went to San Francisco. Her husband states that their domestic difficulties are due to her unwillingness to live in Imperial county. She alleges that he has struck her and otherwise illtreated her and, has filed a cross-complaint.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the County Clerk by the Dunsmoor Cañon Water Company, capital stock $45,000. The San Bernardino Valley Traction Company gave notice of decrease of directors from nine to five. Papers creating a bonded indebtedness of $25,000 were filed by the Los Angeles Military Academy

CHINESE APPEALS.

Chin Chung, one of seven Chinamen arrested at Santa Ana a few months ago, on the charge of being illegally in this country, appealed to the United States District Court yesterday from the decision of the commissioner, ordering deportation. The other six Chinamen made no defense when taken into custody, and were at once ordered sent back to their native country. But Chin Chung's friends have put up a determined fight. It was alleged that the boy was born in Castroville, and passed much of his life in this State. Although clad in American clothes, the little Mongolian was found to be ignorant of the English tongue. He is at liberty on $2500 bail, furnished by several wealthy merchants in Chinatown.

PERPLEXING SITUATION.

The Dramatic Club of the Conaty Council, Y.M.I., presented a pleasing little farce, "A Perplexing Situation," at St. Patrick's Hall on Tuesday evening. The affair was a literary as well as a financial success. About 400 were present. W. G. Ernest and Mrs. Jenny C. Helpling played well the roles of leading man and lady. Mrs. Mary Fitzsimmons as "Mrs. Nosie," and O. T. Helpling as "Uncle Ep. from way upcountry," furnished a pleasing bit of comedy. The remainder of the cast consisted of Miss Virgie Keelan, Anna Crook, Violet Keelan, Margarette McConnell, Margarette Dyer, Messrs. J. M. Scecchitano, Jr., Joseph Crook, J. S. Faulhaver and S. R. Dunphy.

FIST LOVE-MAKING CHARGED.

A warrant charging battery against Albert Cohn of No. 521 South Broadway was sworn to yesterday before Prosecutor Joseph Ford by Mrs. Gertrude Seter of No. 624 West Tenth street. Mrs. Seter told the attorney that Cohn had been making love to her, but that she had refused him because of the difference in their religious belief. Tuesday night, she alleges, Cohn renewed his pleas and when she refused him a second time he struck her in the face and then fled. The police are searching for him.

LONG UNCONSCIOUS, NOW DEAD.

After lying unconscious for three weeks at the Emergency and General Hospital, C. P. Atkins, an employé of the Pacific Electric Railway, died yesterday morning. An inquest will be held at the Pierce morgue this afternoon. While at work Atkins threw a long shafting from the door of a freight car before the car had come to a stop. One end of the shafting hit the ground, while the other swung about, striking the unfortunate workman on the head, and causing concussion of the brain.

Get the Food the Children Like

Please let your children taste Mapl-Flake once—taste the maple flavor.
Then let them decide what cereal to buy.
For the children are the main ones to please.

We cook our wheat in pure maple syrup, mainly for the children's sake.

Let them once eat a dish of it and you can't get them back to common flakes again.

That is good for us—but it's better for them. For Mapl-Flake is distinctively the children's food.

First, because it is wheat, and wheat is the food of the ages. No cereal fads can ever take the place of it.

Second, because we spend 96 hours in preparing it.

We steam-cook it for six hours. We cure it for days.

We toast the flakes, made as thin as paper, in ovens heated to 400 degrees.

The object of all is to break down the granules of starch by the heat, so the digestive juices can get to them.

Flaked foods can be made in one-fourth of this time, and the saving, of course, is considerable.

But the result is a food half digestible—half of the food value lost.

And the half that is lost ferments on the stomach—irritates the stomach lining.

Mapl-Flake

The Food That's All Food

In these hot days, the question of what cereal to use is important.

For heat-producing foods—like meat—should be largely discarded. A cereal should be used in place.

The right cereal is Mapl-Flake.

All people like it best. And it is, of all cereals, the very most nourishing, because it all digests.

One package will be enough to convince you. Please ask your grocer to send it—today.

You will be both surprised and delighted.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Council is visibly perturbed over the recommendation of Inspector Edwards that the pay of the street force be reduced from $2.25 to $2 a day; unless that is granted there will be a certain deficit in the street maintenance fund at the end of the fiscal year.

Emmit B. Rice was appointed yesterday as animal keeper at Eastlake Park; Rice is a civil service man. Two other civil service men, his immediate predecessors, were killed by the animals in the zoo.

Judge James yesterday awarded Maria J. Curley, 11 years old, and Mercedes Curley, 10 years old, to the custody of their father, Peter Curley, a Carlsbad ranchman.

Judgment adverse to Mrs. Kitturia B. Osborn was given by Justice Pierce yesterday in her suit against Henry Roeder, and others, for $299, alleged due for injury to property. Her husband, O. D. Osborn, secured $5 damages in his suit against Roeder, and others, on the same ground.

Judge Bordwell granted Henry Watson a divorce from Mrs. Elizabeth Watson for desertion. It is an unusual case.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SHORTAGE IN STREET FUND.

BUDGET APPROPRIATION IS TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS SHY.

Council not in Mood to Grant Recommendation from Inspector Edwards to Reduce the Pay of the Street Force—Successor to Get Strenuous Legacy.

Inspector Edwards of the department of public works will bequeath a strenuous legacy to his successor when he retires from the Board of Public Works at the close of the present year. Mr. Edwards is conducting the street department just now on a strictly economical basis. He has spent two years and a half in figuring out how to manage the department of streets with the same careful economy that he applied to his private business before he became a public official.

He has made an excellent record in obtaining the maximum amount of work at the minimum expense, but in so doing he has incurred the enmity of half a dozen "interests" that formerly profited from the pickings in the street department.

This year he made an estimate for the expense of his department, and he figured it below the cost of street maintenance last year. The Council came along and cut $10,000 from this estimate in making its budget.

Inspector Edwards responded to this cut by sending a communication to the Council asking that the wages of the laborers in the street department be reduced from $2.25 to $2 a day. Such a recommendation is entirely without precedent in the political history of the City Hall. No department head has ever shown the temerity before to recommend that salaries in that particular department be reduced.

Several members of the Council are perturbed visibly over this recommendation from the department of streets. They say that they cannot afford to take the responsibility of reducing the wages of the men in the street department; that it is simply political harikari; and they charge that Inspector Edwards doesn't care, because he is going to retire the first of the year, anyhow.

Mr. Edwards has already written to Mayor Harper telling him that he is preparing to retire, that he will not expect reappointment. He says this in order that the Mayor may have ample time in which to select a successor. But the would-be successors are not coming forward in any great number to ask for the place. Those of big enough caliber for the position realize that they will find it both a strenuous and a thankless task filling Inspector Edward's shoes.

The place is rendered still more difficult by the fact that the Council is not inclined to cut the pay of the men in the street department; if the $10,000 reduction stands this means a certain deficit in the street maintenance fund at the end of the fiscal year. Deficits are to be especially avoided this year as the fiscal year closes just as the next city campaign begins; several Councilmen expect to be renominated and they do not care to go before the people with a municipal deficit for a record.

Monday the Council will act on the recommendation of Inspector Edwards for the reduction in the pay of the men in the street department; and present indications are that it will be disregarded. The Board of Public Works has already reduced the pay of laborers on the aqueduct from $2.25 to $2 a day. Over this the Council has no jurisdiction, but the reduction for the street department can be made only through the medium of an ordinance passed by the Council.

NEW ANIMAL KEEPER.

YOUNG BLOOD FOR ZOO.

Emmit B. Rice received the appointment yesterday of keeper of the Eastlake Park Zoo. Rice served in this position two years ago, but was replaced by a man who made a higher average in a Civil Service competition. Rice will take charge of the animals in the Zoo at once. His appointment came yesterday from the Park Commission.

In taking the place as animal keeper at Eastlake Rice succeeds to what appears by the records to be an extremely hazardous position. Within the last two years two other men have served as animal keeper, and each has died of blood poisoning from wounds received while tending the beasts and reptiles in the park. Each of these received his position through a Civil Service examination; Rice is a Civil Service man too, but he says he is not at all concerned about the place because the others lost their lives there.

The park board considered for a time giving the place to Mrs. Gerson, wife of the animal keeper who lost his life at the park two months ago. Yesterday the commissioners decided to appoint Rice, who stands highest on the Civil Service list, and to care for Mrs. Gerson by placing her in charge of the playgrounds in the parks. She receives the same wages as a park laborer, but she says it will be sufficient to care for her and her babies.

Rice says he is in favor of moving all the animals from Eastlake to Griffith Park. He says that the experience of the last three years shows that the animals do not th've at Eastlake.

DEAF AND DUMB FATHER WINS.

GIVEN CUSTODY OF DAUGHTERS, WHO WEEP BITTERLY.

Pathetic Scene Follows Decision Parting Young Girls from Their Grandmother—Carlsbad Ranchman Able to Testify Only With Aid of Brother, Who Reads Lip Motions.

A spectacle of unusual pathos was seen in Judge James's court yesterday afternoon, when Peter Curley, a deaf and dumb ranchman of Carlsbad, appeared to show why he should be awarded the custody of his two daughters, Maria J. Curley, 11 years old, and Mercedes Curley, 10 years old, who wept bitterly at the prospect of being parted from their grandmother, Mrs. Jesus Robles of No. 2522 Leonard street.

Curley was able to communicate with the court only by the aid of his deformed brother, S. A. Curley, who could read the motions of the witness's lips.

The father said that thirteen years ago he married Inez Robles, the mother of his daughters, and that six years later he met with an accident that compelled him to go to a hospital.

When he was able to leave the institution, he found that his wife had deserted him, taking the children, and was living with another man on Eighth street, he stated. She died last August and her daughters then went to live with their grandmother, Mrs. Robles, who is dependent in part on the Associated Charities and in part is supported by her son-in-law, who is a laborer.

Curley asserted that he is able to care well for his children, and that he desires to place them in a Catholic school at San Bernardino, that they may receive a proper education.

The two girls and their half-sister were questioned by the court and declared that they did not wish to be parted from their grandmother, for they were happy with her, and were attending school regularly.

As the father's statement of his ability to care for his children was corroborated, the court gave them into his custody, decreeing that the grandmother shall be allowed to see them whenever she pleases.

The daughters, when they heard the decision of the court, burst into tears. Outside the courtroom they embraced their grandmother and, with many lamentations in Spanish, resigned themselves to the parting.

ALL IN FAMILY.

HUSBAND AND WIFE SUE.

Additional light was thrown on the complicated real estate transactions of Mrs. Kitturia Osborn, awaiting sentence for obtaining money under false pretenses, by the trial yesterday in Justice Pierce's court of a civil suit brought by her against Henry Roeder, Mrs. Myrtle Maag Putnam, and others. She sought to recover $299 as damages for alleged injury to her piano in November.

Her husband, O. D. Osborn, filed another suit against Roeder and Mrs. Putnam for a like amount, alleged due for personal property put out of the premises at No. 1171 West Fortieth street at the same time that the piano was removed. Both suits were tried together and judgment was given against Mrs. Osborn, while her husband was awarded $5 for technical trespass.

As the Osborns have filed in the Superior Court a suit against Roeder, Mrs. Putnam and others, to cancel a deed to the house and lot at No. 1171 West Fortieth street, on the ground that the defendants extorted a deed to the property from their son, Thomas D. Osborn, by threats of sending him to jail, much of the evidence yesterday bore directly on the suit in the higher court.

"Mrs. Osborn was building the house on West Fortieth street when she was involved in bankruptcy proceedings in December, 1906," O. D. Osborn testified. "I asserted that the property was community and not her separate property, so when the place was sold at foreclosure to satisfy a $1500 mortgage, I arranged to secure it with money I had. I got the money from W. J. Rankin, and J. P. Lee bid the place in. Then he deeded it to another man, who deeded it to my son, Thomas D. Osborn, who held it in trust for me. In February, 1907, I paid my son $100 for a year's lease and moved some furniture in, although the house had no doors or windows or floring.

"In September, 1907, my son was led to give a deed to the premises to Miss Myrtle Maag, a detective, now Mrs. Putnam, and she deeded the place to Henry Roeder. In October and November, they, despite my lease, put my stuff out of the place four times. I and my wife moved it back three times, but the fourth time rain fell and utterly ruined my $500 piano, which stood in the yard, my books and other furniture."

Roeder and Mrs. Putnam testified that T. D. Osborn owed W. H. Dutton $500, and that Osborn made Mrs. Putnam his agent to sell the property, agreeing to give her a deed to the place, and she was to give Roeder a deed before Osborn should derive any benefit from the $2500 that Roeder placed in escrow, it was stated. Roeder got his deed and was placed in possession of the premises on September 12.

"I notified the Osborns to remove their belongings, and they did so, but afterward put them in again," said Mrs. Putnam. "Tom Osborn told me to put the things in the yard and he would take them away, but he never did so. After every removal I notified the Osborns to take the things away, putting notices under the door of their Magnolia-avenue home. The work of removing the things was done by me and my men. The household goods were worthless. The piano was without legs, laid on the joists of the floor, had a cracked lid and did not give a sound when the keys were struck. The other things were equally weather-worn." Roeder testified to the same effect.

"SUCH A MESS."

DESCRIPTION OF MARRIAGE.

Wedded only three weeks ago and just returned from their honeymoon trip to San Diego, Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, 58 years old and Henry Watson, 67 years old, could not agree on the kind of house in which they should live, and parted. This was Watson's testimony in Judge Bordwell's court, yesterday, and he secured a divorce on the ground of desertion.

"I am a retired farmer from Salem, Wis.," said the witness. "I met Mrs. Watson at Long Beach, about three months before I married her, in June, 1907.

"Well, I never got in such a mess in my life as my marriage proved to be. Mrs. Watson said that she would not live in one room. I was willing to provide a home, for I have some means, and I wanted to rent a nice five-room cottage at Long Beach. But she insisted that I should buy a house and refused absolutely to live in a rented one. She was the meanest tempered woman I ever knew. She would not get my breakfast and told me to go to a restaurant. Nothing I could do suited her. I never talked back at her because I never got a chance. When she got unbearable, I just went out and took a walk.

"Well, I rented a cottage and asked her to come and live there with me. She packed up my things, pointed to them, and told me I could just take them and live by myself in that rented house, for she would live in her own home, or live by herself. So I just took my things and moved into the rented house and lived there one week. Then I gave it up."

SAYS HE'S A MASON.

ADMITS UNLAWFUL POSE.

James Boyd pleaded not guilty to a charge of wearing without right the insignia of a secret order when he was arraigned in Justice Selph's court yesterday morning. In default of $500 bail, he was committed to the County Jail to await his trial on September 8. In an interview, he admitted that he has worn for more than a year the insignia of a thirty-second degree Mason, although he is not entitled to do so.

Boyd was arrested last week, when the local authorities were notified from Bisbee, Ariz., that he had posed as a thirty-second degree Mason there, and that he is wanted in Chicago on the charge of securing financial assistance from members of the Masonic order by false representations. It is said that several local Masons have loaned him money on his story that he has a family to support and that he is suffering from hemorrhages.

"I have for over a year worn a watch charm of the thirty-second degree in Masonry," said Boyd yesterday. "I am a member of the Blue Lodge and am not a thirty-second degree Mason, but it was the duty of the Masons I had business with to test me on my knowledge of the degrees, and this they never did.

"I joined the Rifle Lodge of Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1876, was demitted from it in 1886 to found a lodge in St. Elmo, Colo., which was not formed, and since then I have been a member of no lodge, although for over a year I attended unquestioned the meetings of Mizpah Lodge here. My demit from the Rifle Lodge was unfortunately burned with my clothing at Daggett last July.

"About a year ago I bought my thirty-second degree charm in a second-hand store on Second street, and have worn it since. I have worked all over the West as a miner and timberman, coming here a year ago from Cananea, as I have hemorrhages of the bronchial tubes. I have in the last year been in San Francisco, Montana, Nevada and Arizona, and everywhere I have dealt with Masons, as I have been unable to work much. I have received assistance from the Masonic Relief Committee here as well as from individual Masons in Los Angeles and Pasadena. The police have tried to make me admit that I am not a Mason, but I am one, although I am only a Blue Lodge Mason."

Boyd was examined by physicians at the Receiving Hospital, who say that his hemorrhages are due to a spot kept raw in his mouth and not to a throat affection. He says that he has been an inmate of the Masonic Home here, as he was taken to that institution by a Pasadena member of the order.

We cook our wheat in pure maple syrup, mainly for the children's sake.

Let them once eat a dish of it and you can't get them back to common flakes again.

That is good for us—but it's better for them. For Mapl-Flake is distinctively the children's food.

First, because it is wheat, and wheat is the food of the ages. No cereal fads can ever take the place of it.

Second, because we spend 96 hours in preparing it.

We steam-cook it for six hours. We cure it for days.

We toast the flakes, made as thin as paper, in ovens heated to 400 degrees.

The object of all is to break down the granules of starch by the heat, so the digestive juices can get to them.

Flaked foods can be made in one-fourth of this time, and the saving, of course, is considerable.

But the result is a food half digestible—half of the food value lost.

And the half that is lost ferments on the stomach—irritates the stomach lining.

Mapl-Flake

In these hot days, the question of what cereal to use is important.

The right cereal is Mapl-Flake.

All people like it best. And it is, of all cereals, the very most nourishing, because it all digests.

One package will be enough to convince you. Please ask your grocer to send it—today.

You will be both surprised and delighted.

bombshell struck the ranks of the gh sixteen" yesterday. A small with a big boom, Katharine Ve ee, bounded from No. 18 in line landed on her feet at the four nth position. Consternation reigned, Margaret Chung was pushed off this new arrival who writes her e on the roll of honor today in rgaret's place, while Laura Easton, lph Warren and Murrey Royar all down a peg to make room for Miss atharine.

Katharine Veronee is worth watch . She was low in the score for a g while, but has developed a fac y for running up the line while hers are not looking. She is a very ight young girl, and the youngest in r class to graduate from the Thirty nth-street School last spring. She working for musical advantages and w has hopes of a cash prize as well a scholarship. Yesterday she reg tered a gain of 5000 points; two new nnuals counted up 2000 and there ere four yearly renewals in the busi ss brought in by this ambitious aid.

Murrey Royar reported with 2020 oints yesterday, and the Alhambra d, Ralph Warren, who is working for is art education, rushed in a new an ual subscription, a new six months' ubscription and other good business. uth von Kirbach, Alice Capron, ladys Hill, Gertrude Flick and Eva athews all gained over a thousand esterday, and Hazel Pestor, the little irl from the Los Angeles High School oomed up with nearly 2000. Hazel ishes to issue a hurry call to her Los Angeles friends to rescue her from he "skidoo" line where she has lin ered so long. She feels that she is lmost "hoodooed" by having to stay t 23 indefinitely.

SELF-SUPPORTING CONTESTANT.

David Boardman's cause is appealing o a number of warm-hearted people. David is not high in the tally, but what can you expect when a 14-year-old lad works all day delivering parcels of laundry to help his mother with the support of three little girls? David has been the man of his family for several years and has held his position as laundry driver for the past two years, with golden opinions won from his employer.

But he needs a business education, and though handicapped for the race he was eager to enter. David was the hero in an exciting episode near Hollywood last Sunday, though he had no suspicion that he was acting the part of a hero, and does not believe it now, in spite of the appreciation his act has met with. Just as David stepped off of a Hollywood car, a lady with her little child in a buggy drove up close to the car, and the horse became unmanageable. It took but a moment for a lad accustomed to handling horses to seize the reins and spring into the vehicle. He soon quieted the frightened animal, and drove the lady to her destination.

Yesterday he received a letter from the lady and a package which contained a neat watch fob, made in the design of a horse's bridle, and a gold-mounted horse's head at the top. The letter which accompanied the gift is what David's little mother is proud of. This is what it said:

"I send you this fob, for the watch I noticed you wearing, in appreciation of your kindness and courage at Ivanhoe station on Sunday, when you helped me with the horse I could not control. If it had not been for your ready assistance my little child and I might have been killed."

CALL AT HEADQUARTERS.

Visitors will be welcomed this afternoon from 2 to 5 at the scholarship headquarters, on the fourth floor of The Times building. All those interested in the contest or the contestants are cordially invited to call between the hours named. The manager will esteem it a privilege to answer any questions that interested parties may wish to ask concerning the boys and girls who are working so faithfully to win their educational advantages.

Judging by the letters and the kind words that find their way to the scholarship headquarters, and to the homes of the contestants, there are many people interested in the contest. All such friends and well-wishers will be welcomed this afternoon. Educators of the city, who feel an interest in the work being conducted by The Times, are cordially bidden to call.

In order that contestants may be able to appreciate the scope and special aims of the various educational institutions represented in the scholarship list, The Times will print from day to day some account of the schools from which scholarships are offered. Today the College of Fine Arts, which is affiliated with the University of Southern California is presented for consideration.

David Boardman, a self-supporting contestant, who is working for a business scholarship.

THE COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS.

One of the best-known art institutions on the Coast, the College of Fine Arts, affiliated with the University of Southern California, will open its fall term Setpember 14, with prospects now of the best year in the history of the school, an unusually large number of students being enrolled for the first semester. The dean of the college, William L. Judson, is attending the art conference now being held in London, Eng. He has spent the summer in visiting various art schools and noted galleries on the continent, gleaning rich treasure to be expended for the benefit of his students in Southern California.

The college is unrivalled in its situation on the edge of that paradise of artists from all over the world, the beautiful Arroyo Seco, affording opportunities of outdoor work and rare scenic inspiration. The school is now one of the largest and best equipped in this part of the country, and it offers many special advantages. Its aim is to educate artists as doctors and lawyers are educated, to establish a standard of attainment and culture and to promote the creation of a degree of bachelor of fine arts which shall mean as much as the B. A. of ordinary colleges, socially and professionally.

The full three years' course covers all the branches usually taught in art schools and fits the student for the position of supervisor of drawing in public or private schools or the practice of art, professionally.

Latterly the application of art to all lines of industrial effort has opened up many new avenues of profitable employment to the artist and many students are taking up special lines of work in order to meet this demand. The course in illustrating is thorough and complete, embracing the technique of charcoal, pencil, pen and brush work, anatomy, the principles of design and composition.

Architectural drawing is also a readily-available mode of industrial art much in demand at present, especially in the branch of perspective. This course embraces mechanical drawing, building construction, perspective, wash drawing and water color.

The course in design covers mechanical drawing, composition, the history and principles of ornament, color harmony, and the constructive requirements of fabrics, glasswork fictile products, metal work, etc.

Pottery has recently come into great vogue as a mode of art expression and it seems a revelation to the public that ceramic work is within the reach of the ordinary student. This course includes clay modeling, the potter's wheel, moulding, glazing, firing, underglaze painting and the principles of color, harmony and design.

THE PRIZES.

Besides the valuable scholarships for which the young people are working, The Times offers fifteen cash prizes for those making the highest scores next to the top liner, who will receive the prize piano. The cash prizes, totaling $1200, are arranged as follows:

No.	1	$200
No.	2	140
No.	3	125
No.	4	110
No.	5	100
No.	6	90
No.	7	85
No.	8	75
No.	9	65
No.	10	55
No.	11	45
No.	12	35
No.	13	25
No.	14	25
No.	15	25

THE PIANO.

The first prize to be awarded to the winner of the contest in addition to a choice of scholarships is a splendid Fairbanks piano from the Southern California Music Company, valued at $400. It is a beautiful instrument of superior construction, handled by an old and reliable company as a special feature, and is doubly guaranteed. It is known among musicians for its exquisite tonal qualities and responsive action. The case may be of rich mahogany or dark oak.

THE SCHOLARSHIPS.

Below is a partial list of the scholarships offered to contestants. It will be increased from time to time, as a number of other institutions will be included:

CANNIBALS IN SIBERIA.

Nomad Eats Brother's Wife and Children When Desperate With Hunger.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 28.—Details are given in Lakutska newspapers of a revolting case of cannibalism among the tribes of Lamuta, living on the River Korkodin in extreme Northwestern Siberia. One of the nomads driven desperate by hunger, devoured the bodies of his brother's wife and four children.

A party of hunters came upon the deserted encampment, and found the remains of the bodies. The brother's body was not found, and it is not known whether he was beaten or wandered away and perished in the snow. The nomad tribes of this region pass a precarious existence, and similar instances of hardships and cannibalism are often brought to light when the melting of the Siberian snows make travel possible.

Every two months or so, you should give your piano a bath.

A bath! That sounds odd, doesn't it?

Nevertheless, it is the thing to do.

Dissolve a quarter of a cake of Ivory Soap in a pint of boiling water. When lukewarm, apply to the woodwork with a soft cloth. Rinse with cold water, which should be applied with another soft cloth. Rub dry with a chamois.

THE CAMPAIGN OF THE HOUR.

The thing for all Los Angeles people to get busy about is a campaign for more manufactories of various kinds. This is a matter in which every dweller here has a vital, personal interest, excepting the leisure class. In that class are many most estimable persons, but they are not the ones whose influence should be predominant. The "leisure class" does not include those who have investments in real estate. They are partners with the rest of us, and their wealth will be increased by the establishment of factories here.

But the investors in real property are not the ones whose interests are most intimately bound up in factories. Business men of all classes and grades should help this movement along, from the banker in his private office to the man who makes a living in the grocery store on the corner. The working people who live from wages are as much interested as any others.

Many of us are a little fastidious on this head. We have heard so much about blue skies, mocking birds and the fragrance of the roses or the glory of the poppy bed that we resent any presence which casts a bit of smoke athwart the sunlight, or makes a noise to frighten the lark on the fence. We must realize that a community cannot eat sunshine, satisfy its hunger on the song of the bird, or make a salad out of poppies. The climate and its natural accompaniments have done wonders in making the city what it is, and their influence is abiding. But they have done so much we must now supplement them with manufacturing industries as props to sustain that already in existence.

Outside towns manifest more wisely directed energy than Los Angeles. Long Beach is rapidly becoming an important industrial center. Santa Ana is boasting aloud of the new enterprises established there. Riverside is not afraid that the gloss will be dimmed from the foliage in the orange groves, or that the fragrance of their perfume will be impaired by the presence of a few industrial plants. All these cities and others are holding outstretched arms for infant industries to come to their embrace.

There is a natural industrial zone in Los Angeles. It begins up at the city limits, extends along the river on both sides to Vernon and goes on down the flat country to the harbors at Wilmington, Long Beach and San Pedro. All the trunk-line railroads have their main tracks running along this zone, which is not a high-class residence district. Working people in all cities prefer to live as near as convenient to their employment, and there is territory enough there for the factories and for houses for those employed in them. If the "leisure class," which have no thought for any interests excepting those that center in their own somewhat unimportant lives, have secured dwellings in this zone, we should say they are "out of place" in the most literal use of the words.

The presence of a factory will not, generally speaking, lessen the selling value of property, but, on the contrary, will enhance it. If the smoke offends optic or olfactory nerves, or the noise the auricular, the best thing would be to sell and move to another district sufficiently distant from the industrial zone.

With this advice to the dissatisfied few, the industrious, progressive many should get together and study this subject of manufactories, so as to be ready to furnish information to all seeking it, and more particularly to learn for our own information what factories will pay best. Manufacturers are not prompt to come into a community with skill and capital and establish plants among a people who take no interest in their coming, and who will not put local capital into a new enterprise.

We boast of the rapid growth of Los Angeles, hope this growth will continue, and are prompt to prophesy that in twenty-five years there will be 1,000,000 inhabitants within the city limits. Prophecies tend to make themselves come true. Let it be so in this case. The climate and soil, the schools and churches, will all draw like magnets and do their share. We are great advertisers and give good advice to those far away as to what they can do here. Let us do some of these things ourselves. That will be the best advertising we can do.

The city territory is about one-third taken up with residences, business places and factories. When we reach the million point there will be no more vacant lots producing crops of weeds, no more unpaved streets or dirty alleys to breed disease. There will be better schools, finer churches, a better class of amusements; all the conditions of life will be better. We shall be all richer; employment will be easier to find; and Los Angeles will be among the half-dozen greatest cities in the country.

A FREE-TRADE TRUST.

Down in South Africa a mighty river plunges over a perpendicular precipice. English capitalists propose to convert this force of gravity into electricity. These Victoria Falls on the Zambesi River are capable of being converted into a force equal to 35,000,000 horse power, and the current may be transmitted to a distance of 600 miles.

Those who have this great scheme in hand, before developing the power, have bought up about all the competing plants in South Africa. When the plans are carried out and the wires strung, this company will have the monopoly of the power in English South Africa. Some of the current will be carried into Congo territory 600 miles westward from the falls, and some into German East Africa, also far away from the point of introduction.

Note that the Dingley tariff law is not operative in Africa, where this gigantic monopoly is to stretch out its copper tentacles and embrace half a continent, with three or four different governments!

The attention of Mr. Bryan is respectfully called to this fact, which, no doubt, is greatly blameworthy for existing and not squaring with the visions that rise in the brain at Lincoln, Neb.

GREAT REFORM INFLUENCES.

Los Angeles has two glorious reform influences in full swing. The cases which hold these jewels are the Y.M.C.A. building on Hope street, just south of Seventh, and the Y.W.C.A. building on Hill street, near Third.

These two magnificent structures have been erected here during the last twelve months, and are now ready to house the great moral activities. How silently these great achievements have been carried forward to perfection! There have been no noise, no abuse of others, no howling at any man that he was a bad citizen, no breaches of the ninth or of any other commandment in the whole course of the work. The men engaged in the enterprises have gone quietly about their business. They have appealed to the liberality of the community, to the interest felt in the welfare and development of youth, to the charity which exists in most hearts for all men and women—and the appeal has been heard and answered.

Now the associations have homes which mark Los Angeles as a city of liberality, of progress and of good influence. The work done in these societies will be for all time, and will all the time be done in the same, practical, charitable, quiet, unostentatious way that marked the erection of the structures. None of those engaged in the work centering under these roofs appear in the center of any stage; the limelight is not thrown on them. They are not found making a loud noise anywhere. None of them ever are heard on the streets shouting "Away with him" about any man. The ninth commandment is as sacred in their minds as the others.

And what a power for good they are! They draw young people away from the paths that lead down to death, and carefully guard from them the knowledge of where the entrance to these broad roads is found.

Such is every real reform, the world knows. Such are all the reformers who earnestly work for others and not for their own gain nor the glory of the light that falls on the center of the stage.

There is room for all the energy and the efforts of every true reformer in the ranks of these earnest, quiet men and women who are spending their time, force and talents for the good of others.

The Centralia (Ill.) Sentinel, a lively evening paper, published in the midst of the good things of "Egypt," has been making up its first page of late in a series of facsimilies of leading newspapers of the country, including the Los Angeles Times. Some of The Times' head models staggered the able "comps" of the Sentinel, but its effort, on the whole, was successful. The idea has attracted much attention, and shows that the Sentinel is neither slumbering nor taking a nap.

HOROSCOPE.

Thursday, August 27, 1908.

Well moves the hand that wields the pen.
Favor lies on the ways of men.

Write important letters. Draw contracts. Deal with those who disseminate information, printed or written. Advertise.

A fortunate day for dealings with sculptors, lawyers, ministers, orators, teachers, agents, commissioners, artificers, ingenious persons of all callings, antiquarians, lecturers and specialists in uncommon fields.

Luck should follow new undertakings by those in employment.

Travel for health or business. Change habitations or business sites. Change of scene in search of pleasure should be successful.

Dealings between and with women will be best from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.

At 12:30 p.m. herbs under Mercury—caraway, parsley, valerian, lavender, dill, endive, licorice and marjoram, should be especially good.

Tread cautiously this day near the edges of deep pits, and be prudent in entering "cars that ascend or descend."

Women with this birthdate will probably meet an opportunity to travel, remove or change their condition. The outcome should prove happy.

Men with this birthdate must beware during the twelvemonth lest in a sudden emergency they refuse to listen to the dictation of reason.

The sign over children born today is quickness, cleverness and love of change. Girls may develop a weakness for expecting all others to do homage to their mental powers. Boys will be too fond of constant variety.

Corn on the Cob.

There is much discussion in epicurean circles as to the best way to eat corn on the cob. There's but one right way. Protect your front. Go as far as you like with the butter. Season from right to left, just as you deal the cards. Take a firm, two-handed hold of the ear, and then go at it sidewise as a hog goes into a fight. By following these directions, you get the finest flavor of the distinctively American product. In these lean days of high prices the main problem is to get the corn.—[Detroit Free Press.

"Speed" Phobia."

Although James J. Hill was painfully injured by getting his hand caught in the machinery of his touring car, he is not to be classed among the victims of speed mania. He was under the automobile conservatively attempting to find out why it would not go when the accident happened.—[New York World.

RENAISSANCE OF LOCAL HISTORY.

By Rockwell D. Hunt, Ph.D.

History, as President Charles Kendall Adams asserted, "is more distinctively the study of humanity than is any other branch of learning." It must not be divested of its humanity, else it becomes dead abstraction and not history. As the passions of man—his loves, his hates, his enthusiasms—are factors in the progress of the race, the historian cannot ignore them, the teacher must faithfully portray them. History is the record of related, unified humanity. With apologies to the historian, Freeman, Prof. Howard has given us this epigram: "History is past sociology, and sociology is present history."

I desire to make a plea for the systematic study of local history, not only as being of worth in itself, but also as a valuable aid in the intelligent study of general history.

Local history is the history of a fixed place, or community, or commonwealth; it has regard to a limited portion of space. But I shall not go to the extreme or arguing that since the world is made up of many localities, of a variety of groups in human society, each with its own local life and seeking its own ends, therefore general history is, after all, nothing but an aggregate or synthesis of local elements—the community is your true microcosm. No; such reasoning leads to sophistry. Local history is not everything; world history is more than a mere patchwork, polyglot sum-total of unrelated scraps and pieces.

But, I venture to inquire, how can the child in school, or the unguided reader, rise to this noble conception of the unity of history? It avails nothing to tell him in learned phrase that "history is the story of the evolution of the social organization;" but the story of the founding of Mission San Diego by Padre Junipero Serra or of the establishment of the pueblo of Los Angeles does mean something concrete and tangible. Moreover, the foundation is thereby laid for a study of the resemblances and differences between his own town and those of Massachusetts or South Carolina.

The expanding mind may at first take little interest in the great undercurrents of civilization, or the philosophy of history; it becomes intensely alert in the search for the mysterious northwest passage, or the thrilling expeditions of the adventurous pathfinder.

Thus local history is of high value as furnishing, so to speak, a first horizon or circumference to the young, expanding mind. As all knowledge proceeds from the known to the unknown, so the activities of other peoples in bygone ages are made real by process of ever-widening circumferences, in each case the point of departure being the here and the now. Much history teaching lacks reality and vitality because the teacher fails to place within the pupil's grasp the means of making concrete and living that which to him is abstract and unrelated to his present store of knowledge. In the phrase of my master in historical studies, Herbert B. Adams of Johns Hopkins: "The most natural entrance to a knowledge of a history of the world is from a local environment through widening circles of interest, until from the rising ground of the present, the broad horizon of the past comes clearly into view." "History, like charity, begins at home."

Briefly to summarize the objects sought in laying emphasis on local history: First, a worthy object is the acquisition of solid information regarding a subject that is in itself important to the community and near to the life of the individual. Second, the study of local history is a capital means of arousing interest in the broader domains of general history, of engendering even in the children the spirit of "historical-mindedness." The roots of the present sink deep into the past; our today is our inheritance from the yesterdays of our fathers. Third, sympathetic intelligence as to local history and immediate environment is of inestimable value as a preparation for faithful citizenship, which is the justification of education. "A people which is to govern itself must be a people educated in th ditions of its growth."

I have noted with satisfaction the provisio in the Los Angeles schools for giving instru California and local history; an excellent be has thus been made, but as yet only a begin enor Says Opportunity Is Neglected.

MINES AND MINING.

OOSTS FOR OUR MINES.

ibutary Territory Holds Great Wealth.

Development Will Insure Greater Los Angeles.

ol. Ed F. Browne, mining man from orado and every other camp in the st, who has been in Los Angeles for past month, believes that the fu- destiny of this city will be con- led in no small measure by the de- pment of the unlimited mineral re- rces in the surrounding country. also says that in order to get the results it will be necessary to h out more strenuously than has the case in the past.

ere is, perhaps, no man better lified to speak on such a subject there are fewer who have such nate knowledge of the many camps tributary territory. Lieutenant- el in the First United States vy Artillery during the Civil War chief of artillery at Chattanooga 366, he became interested in min- in 1869 and spent nine years , New Mexico, and Mexico. In he joined the rush to Leadville, , and was one of the first op- ors in the subsequent development spen, where he had charge of the son mine for some years subse- t to 1885. This was the first divi- payer on Smuggler Mountain. The development of the great Mollie on and Smuggler mines was made ible by the discoveries in the son under Col. Browne's manage- . He served as a trustee of the rado School of Mines for four , and estimated the business and age for the railroads prior to their truction to Aspen in 1887. He was employed to investigate Cripple k when first discovered and recom- ded the construction of its first oad. He opened up the Zenobia in 1893, and installed the first t plant on the famous Isabella in ame camp.

l. Browne also organized the Crip- Creek Mining Stock Exchange, the test trader since the boom days he Comstock. He published the handbook on the mines of Cripple k. Dabbling in political economy published the "Silver Dollar" in and "Socialism, or Empire In Dan- in 1906. Between times he ex- ed the possibilities of Grand En- pment in Wyoming for the Union fic Railroad and in 1904-5 reported the Nevada fields for the Santa Prefacing his remarks by a glow- tribute to our climate, which he ves is even better in summer than inter, he says.

want to call the attention of the ess man to the fact that no great perity can come to the country the mining industry is running blast. Agriculture furnishes only er cent. of the tonnage of our t system of railroads while mines ish 52 per cent., and there is no from the fields that can create a age of cars which would last than it takes to distribute . On August 10 the Penn- Railroad had 70,000 cars still and the winter wheat crop has dy been harvested.

os Angeles now has several lines ailroad to tap the sections east e Sierra Nevadas and clear across great American plateau. All over vast territory are mining dis- which only need money and men create great possibilities for the re. Progressive capitalists (not of Angeles) have built these roads ugh a desert country and are not ving a just reward for their ex- iture. Not that the profitable is not there but because of the vincialism" of the capitalists who ar to decry anything which is flavored with "Climate, Oranges kees," upon which you are rally supposed to live. Much ey has been made and lost in k speculation, but the greatest unes have been made by starting rospect and creating a mine.

f the capitalists of Los Angeles ld turn a small portion of their lus into the prospects of South- Nevada, Arizona and Eastern fornia they would reap great re- d and would assist in placing a utary country back of the city ch would insure a million inhabi- s between the mountains and the —a great city upon a business ba- that no panic could shake.

The Tonopah and Tidewater, the k road, the new Southern Pacific hop branch and all the older roads great mining possibilities now idle because men who call them- es 'conservative' have chanced to w of someone who made ill-ad- d investments and then condemn entire mining industry.

Unless Los Angeles does take l and develop the mining terri- y tributary to it there is a lim- future in its growth; but with the at mining camps paying tribute present city is but the nucleus of Great Los Angeles of the future."

Seven Troughs Prosperous.

The manager of the Seven Troughs ning Company has recently given a statement of the company's po- on in which it is shown that $91,- has been expended in develop- nt and equipment, $25,000 in treas- y stock has been paid for addi- nal acreage, with ore shipments tting $45,453. There is still $8155 in e treasury, together with 102,300 ares of unsold stock. The cash on nd is sufficient to enable the com- ny to continue development on the -foot level and before this amount exhausted the company expects to ip profitable ore from that level. It understood that a vigorous cam- ign of exploration will be under- ken at once and two members of he directorate are now on the ground erfecting plans.

Baby Florence Drops.

According to information brought o this city within the past two days he reported strike upon the Baby Florence lease at Goldfield was by no eans as important as at first sug- ested. It is said that about $1000 orth of high-grade ore was taken om a point at the 150-foot level but at it has now been exhausted. As result of the report the stock took fall upon the Los Angeles-Nevada ock Exchange yesterday and sold wn to 9½ cents, after sales as high 12 cents last week.

Movements of Mining Men.

Kreider Wheeler, mining engi- r, who has recently been operating Tuolumne county, is confined to bed with a slight illness.

N. McCauley of the Mascot Cop- Company, operating at Dos Ca- as, Ariz., returned from the mine erday, accompanied by Judge . Street, one of the most prom- mining attorneys of Utah. The is spending a few days at the ia Hotel, Long Beach, before re- g home.

Will Be Wed Tonight.
Roderick Burnham, son of famous South African scout, and Miss Isabel Harrah, who are to be married this evening.

PASADENA.

SOCIAL CIRCLES ARE INTERESTED.

PROMINENT YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE MARRIED TODAY.

Son of Maj. Burnham of South African War Fame, Will Wed Attractive Girl—Forest Fire in Chilah Valley Practically Out—Child's Lucky Escape.

Office of The Times, No. 26 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Aug. 27.—Because of the social prominence of the contracting parties, more than ordinary interest attaches to the wedding which will occur this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Harrah, Palmetto drive, and which will unite in marriage the eldest daughter, Miss Isabel Harrah and Roderick Deane Burnham, son of Maj. Frederick H. Burnham, of South African fame.

The ceremony will be performed in the music room at 4 o'clock by Rev. E. H. Conger, in the presence of sixty relatives and friends. Lilies of the valley have been profusely used in the decoration of the reception hall, drawing-room and music room where they spring from mossy banks and are arranged in clusters with masses of green.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrah, assisted by Miss Mildred Harrah, will receive the guests. Mrs. Harrah will wear a gown of violet messaline, with garniture of antique lace. Miss Harrah's gown will be white radium silk.

The bride and groom will enter the room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Gavina Rochrig, with violin accompaniment by Mr. Patterson. During the ceremony Mrs. Patterson will sing "Chanse d' Amour."

The bride's gown is of white ivory stain, made Empire fashion, and she will wear a tulle veil, caught with lilies of the valley. She will be unattended.

After the ceremony a collation will be served in the dining-room from which daylight will be excluded, and the lily-decorated table will be softly illuminated with white waxen tapers in silver standards.

This evening the young couple will depart for a two weeks' wedding trip in the northern part of the State and after returning here for a short stay will spend the winter in Arizona, where Mr. Burnham is engaged as a mining engineer.

The groom who has been making his home with his grandmother, Mrs. J. S. Blick, is a young man of great promise. He was with his distinguished father during the Boer War, where Maj. Burnham was a scout, and also accompanied him on his travels through the Yukon country and elsewhere. He was educated at Berkeley and later graduated from the University of Arizona, where he took a course in mining engineering.

The bride is one of the most attractive of the society girls of Pasadena's younger set and has been the recipient of much social attention incidental to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Harrah have lived in Pasadena about four years.

Major and Mrs. Burnham will be among notable guests at the wedding, Maj. Burnham having come from a hunting trip in Oregon to be present, and Mrs. Burnham having left their summer ranch home near Visalia.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Harrah, brother and sister-in-law of the bride of Newton, Ia., have also arrived for the wedding.

FIRE DYING OUT.

Word was received at Mt. Wilson Hotel late last night to the effect that the great forest fire in the Chilah Valley was at last under control, and with favorable winds will be entirely out by midday. From the Peak last night no flames were visible in the valley, and it is believed the force of men sent in to quell the flames accomplished its mission.

LUCKY ESCAPE.

Providence smiled kindly on little Marion Parks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Parks, of No. 389 North Los Robles avenue, for she narrowly escaped being killed by a street car yesterday. The child was at play in one of the trenches which a gas company is running up North Los Robles avenue, in which to lay mains before the avenue is paved. She heard a car coming and raised her head out of the trench just in time to be hit by the fender on the side of the head. Fortunately it struck her a glancing blow and only a slight cut was made in her scalp.

TO FIGHT HEALTH CAMP.

Residents of Linda Vista are circulating a petition among the business men of this city, asking their aid in having the tuberculosis camp moved. It is believed that if all other efforts fail they will carry the fight into court.

FLASH INJURES EYES.

A flash from electric wires in the car barn of the Pacific Electric Railway Company on South Fair Oaks avenue was responsible for serious injury to Henry Young, aged 22 years, an employé. He was working in the barn about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and in some way brought two live wires together. The blaze which resulted burned his head and face, and it is feared he will lose his eyesight.

HORSE PLUNGES ON MAN.

"Harvey Moore," a blooded horse, belonging to W. E. Fox of this city, dashed down Grand avenue last night and ran directly over Watchman H. J. C. Rubo of the Freeman Patrol, as he rounded the corner on his bicycle. The patrolman was not so seriously injured but that he caught the animal and took it to a stable.

TENT OR NEW CASINO.

In case the new casino building is not erected on the Carmelita Garden site by next June, when the State Christian Endeavor Convention is held here, the Pasadena members of the Y.P.S.C.E. will erect a tent to accommodate the visitors, and a number of the big churches will be thrown open for smaller meetings. It is now the case in Christian Endeavor conventions, that much of the work is done in small meetings, and in this way many sessions can be held in the larger churches here. The big rallies will be held in the tent in case the new casino is not built. From present indications it seems that the Board of Trade will have to shoulder the financing of the building.

PASADENA NEWS NOTES.

The local camp, United Spanish War Veterans, held a jollification at Maccabee Hall last night in honor of winning the colors for the largest percentage of new members gained in a given time. Officers of the local camp who attended the State encampment were also formally greeted.

Building permits taken out within the last twenty-five days aggregate $144,274.50, which is more than any month since August of last year, when the permits amounted to $177,000.

By the breaking of a glass jar which she was using while canning fruit, Mrs. Frank Dickson of No. 307 North Madison avenue, had an artery severed yesterday.

Contracts have been received from 165 persons, by which they agree to use the municipal electric light service when it is placed in operation for commercial lighting.

There will be a meeting of the residents of Los Robles avenue this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of H. G. Cattell, No. 362 South Los Robles avenue.

FINGERS FLAP IN SUN PARLOR.

MEDIUMS SNAP IN EXHIBITION OF HEALING ART.

Within Big Circle of Believers at Long Beach They Also Wring Hands, Rub Eyes and Otherwise Work Feverishly Over Patients. Advertising Festival of the Sea.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 26.—The main attraction at the Spiritualist convention today was the "healing and developing class." The "believers" formed a big circle at the sun parlor, within which were several mediums who claimed healing powers. Patients were asked for, and the chairs were speedily filled. Then the mediums went to work. Rubbing their foreheads and eyes, clasping and wringing their hands, snapping their fingers to throw off superfluous energy, they worked over their patients feverishly. There were several professed cures. Tonight B. Fay Mills lectured on "The Eve of a New Spiritualist Era." Tomorrow will be women's day. In the evening there will be an old folks' concert, closing with a dance.

FESTIVAL OF THE SEA.

The management of the local Festival of the Sea has been busy today preparing for the advertising tour of the interior towns. Through the generosity of the Salt Lake Railroad it is able to take the Municipal Band and a gang of boosters around with banners and advertising matter to all the important cities along the line of that road in the State. The first stop will be Los Angeles, where an hour concert will be given. Only fifteen minutes will be given to Ontario and Pomona, but as the concert is being well advertised, those towns are expected to be ready to receive the delegation. The stop at Riverside will cover an hour and a half, sufficient for a good concert and for lunch. The afternoon will be divided between San Bernardino and Redlands, the party returning to Los Angeles on the late evening train, and home over the Pacific Electric Railway. The managers hope to be able to have the band visit some of the foothill towns, including Pasadena and Monrovia, before the opening of the festival.

The contest for Queen will close Friday evening. It is growing warm. At 6 o'clock tonight the vote stood: Mrs. Callahan, 641; Mrs. Wood, 613; Mrs. King, 600; Miss Lanphere, 155; Miss Goldsmith, 107; Miss Wrisley, 4.

POULTRY SHOW.

The poultry show, which is to be one of the features of next week's festival, is attracting considerable attention from fanciers throughout Southern California. J. W. Whitney, the secretary, says premium lists and entry blanks have been requested from fanciers in Arizona and Northern California. Over 450 birds have been promised, and prospects are bright for a large exhibition.

SETS THE DATE.

The Los Angeles Dock and Terminal Company today fixed November 15 as the date for the passing of the first vessel from the open sea through the jetties into the inner harbor, which has been dredged out of a vast salt marsh. A schooner with lumber from the north will be the first vessel to enter.

Rev. Murray Benton, pastor of St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, while climbing over a pile of lumber in the church basement this afternoon, slipped and fell, sustaining a fracture of the large bone of the left forearm. Telling no one of his mishap, he went down town, had the arm set, and then went home.

CORNER STONE CEREMONY.

The Library Commission has appointed Prof. Jas. D. Graham, George M. Roe and Miss Victoria Ellis a committee to arrange the programme for the laying of the corner stone of the new Carnegie Library in Pacific Park Saturday afternoon. Among the speakers will be Librarian C. F. Lummis of Los Angeles, and Rev. Charles Pease, resident of the library board when the Carnegie donation was made. Music will be furnished by the Municipal Band.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Arrivals at Hotel Virginia include: Miss R. H. Smiley, Redlands; Miss Almira Johnson, Pasadena; Mrs. Chas. A. Whitman, Leona Wayte, Visalia; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Armstrong, San Francisco; F. J. Nicholson, Los Angeles; F. Winstanley and wife, Miss Patterson, Miss Benson, Toronto, Can.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wells and family, Los Angeles; F. O. Engstrum, Los Angeles.

VENICE IS SORRY.

Hears With Regret That Circus Will Winter at Denver—Programme for Water Carnival.

VENICE, Aug. 26.—With regret Venice has learned of the decision of the Sells-Floto circus to go into winter quarters at Denver.

As many of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway employés as could leave their work at Sherman came to the beach today for their annual outing. There were several carloads of excursionists.

FOR TENNIS TOURNEY.

Committees from the Hollywood and Venice tennis organizations are trying to arrange for a series of contests, one to be held on the Country Club courts here, one at Hollywood and the third at a court not yet decided.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAMME.

The programme for the water carnival to be held here Saturday and Sunday is nearing completion and promises to contain several attractive numbers. Aside from the swimming and diving features and the boat and gondola races, there are to be boxing and wrestling bouts. These are to be participated in by the members of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, which is busy with the transfer of its boats and equipment from Playa del Rey to this place.

Women Crowd Round Offering Congratulations.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

COVINA, Aug. 26.—A demonstration by the public lasting several minutes, greeted the decision of Justice William Marshall that Ollie O. Corley was justified in killing William F. Beale, a wealthy rancher of Walnut Center. The court discharged the defendant. The acquittal of Corley is looked upon not only as exonerating him, but as a complete refutation of charges made by Beale in his dying statement against Mrs. Elmer E. Cook.

Upon the rendition of the decision, Corley broke down and sobbed with his head upon the justice's table. Women crowded around him to offer congratulations. Corley is the son of State Senator J. W. L. Corley of Oklahoma, and has been working as a ranch hand in California for two years for the benefit of his health.

CULMINATION OF FEUD.

The shooting which caused the subsequent death of Beale, occurred on the 6th inst., in an alfalfa field belonging to Elmer E. Cook. It was the culmination of a feud which began last April, when Beale was stopped in his abuse of a horse by Corley, Cook and a man named Mohr. Corley was foreman of the Cook ranch. Beale, as testomony showed, after having been prevented from further demonstrations of his rage at the horse he was breaking, continued to harbor hatred against the persons who had interfered, and on several occasions threatened their lives. On the Sunday following the horse-breaking episode, he chased the entire Cook family, and the hired help, into their house, threatening vengeance upon them. Several encounters occurred afterward.

In Beale's statement, made to Dist.-Atty. Fredericks at the California Hospital three days after the shooting, when he was dying from the effects of four bullet wounds inflicted by Corley, he alleged that the affair was precipitated by Corley, after having been accused by him (Beale) of being intimate with Mrs. Cook, wife of Corley's employer.

REMARKABLE TRIAL.

The trial was remarkable in many ways. Corley was allowed by the local justice to carry a gun after having been reelased on bonds of $10,000. He said his life had been threatened by Sam Beale, brother of the dead man, who denied the statement.

Corley returned to the home of his employer tonight. He will take up his old position on the ranch. Since the shooting the Beale place has been sold. The widow, who is living with relatives at Santa Ana, is in a state of physical breakdown, and signifies her desire never to return to the scene of her husband's death.

USEFUL LIFE ENDS.

Wife of One of China's Pioneer Missionaries Passes Away After Six Months' Illness.

SIERRA MADRE, Aug. 26.—After an illness of over six months, Mrs. Sara E. Wherry, wife of Rev. John Wherry, D.D., one of China's pioneer missionaries, died yesterday. She leaves a widower, who is now in Pekin; three sons, Dr. E. G. Wherry and J. Fred Wherry of Newark, N. J., and Robert R. Wherry of this city, and a daughter, Miss Edith M. Wherry of Berkeley; also a brother, Anderson Brandon of Kansas City, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Creighead of Omaha, Neb.

Delicate health prevented Mrs. Wherry from continuing her work in China as a missionary since 1894, and she made her home with one or more of her children in various parts of this country. For six years she was with a son at Claremont, and for the past year lived with her daughter at Berkeley.

ADVENTUROUS VOYAGE.

Forty-five years ago Mrs. Wherry, then a bride, left with her husband, an ardent young missionary, a graduate of Princeton College and later of Princeton Seminary, for the scenes of their future work in China. With one other passenger they sailed from New York in an old Dutch sailing vessel and, after an adventurous voyage, lasting over five months, arrived at Shanghai. There eight years were spent, after which they were transferred to Pekin, where Dr. Wherry has been stationed ever since, with the exception of a year or two at Tungchow, Cheefoo and Pautingfoo.

The work of Dr. Wherry, who is one of the foremost scholars in the Chinese language, has been largely of a literary nature. While in Shanghai he was in charge of the press of the Presbyterian Mission and in Pekin, for the last eight or ten years, he has devoted a large part of his time to the translating of the Bible into the Wanli, or high classic dialect.

Mrs. Wherry's work was largely with the women and girls in the mission schools, by whom she was greatly beloved.

Funeral services will be held at Berkeley tomorrow, Rev. Lapslee A. McAffee, D.D., officiating.

LAD DRAWN INTO WRINGER.

Santa Monica Laundry Employee Meets Horrible Death—President of School Board Resigns.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 26.—The Bay Cities Laundry, South Second street, was the scene of an accident at 3 o'clock this morning in which Carlton, the 17-year-old son of C. M. Bundy of Grant street, lost his life. The boy was employed to operate the centrifugal wringer, a device that revolves at a speed of about 1500 revolutions per minute. The young man must have attempted to straighten out or disentangle some garment that had been caught in the mechanism, and in doing so brought his hand in proximity to the suction. Instantly the boy was jerked into the wringer, one arm being entirely torn away and the other hanging by a thread. John Tiernan, who was in charge of the machinery, heard a thumping noise and turned around just in time to see the body being drawn into the machine. He shut the power off at once, but before the machinery could be stopped it had claimed its victim, and the unfortunate operator died on the way to the hospital. His father is now at Salem, Ore., but will hastily return to be present at the funeral.

DEVORE RESIGNS.

W. E. Devore has resigned as president of the Board of Education, and, having disposed of his business interests, will take a long trip through the East, visiting his old home. D. G. Holt has been elevated to the presidency and J. D. Blanchard chosen to fill the vacancy occasioned by the retirement of Mr. Devore.

Arthur Gayford, a native of England and a resident of Santa Monica for for twenty-one years, died this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. B. W. Saunders, of No. 1447 Seventh street. Deceased was 65 years of age and a member of the Episcopal Church.

The W.C.T.U. has selected September 18 as the date for the formal opening of its new building on Third street.

BIG FREIGHTER ARRIVES.

Dutch Steamer Nederland Comes to San Pedro and Is Anchored Inside—Hazel Dollar Due.

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 26.—The big Dutch steamer Nederland, Capt. Reich, out twenty-one days from Iquiqui and Pisaqua, Chile, arrived this afternoon and was taken to an anchorage in the outer harbor by Capt. Jack Hamilton, port pilot. She was brought inside at 6 o'clock tonight and docked at the Crescent Wharf and Warehouse Company's wharf.

The Nederland has a cargo of 4500 tons of nitrates and copra, consigned to W. R. Grace & Co., of which 744 tons will be discharged here. The remainder is consigned to Eureka, San Francisco and Seattle. She will remain in this port about three days.

The Nederland is a large carrier of 3032 tons net, 458 feet long and carries a crew of thirty-two.

Another foreigner, the big British ship Hazel Dollar, Capt. Ridley, 3561 tons net, is due to arrive tomorrow from Shanghai, via Vancouver, B. C., with a large general cargo consigned to the Robert Dollar Company.

BANK DIRECTORS MEET.

The directors of the State Bank of San Pedro have elected the following officers: President, L. W. Blinn; vice-president, W. H. Holliday; cashier, Edward Mahar. The following compose the board of directors: L. W. Blinn, W. H. Holliday, Edward Mahar, Marcus H. Hellman, Frank A. Thomas, Frank DeFoot and R. W. Hill.

Senator William H. Savage has returned from the Yountsville Soldiers' Home, where he has been acting as superintendent.

A Southern Pacific train backed down on the wagon of Fred Swanson, a drayman, on the wharf this afternoon, demolishing it. The driver and horses escaped injury.

OCEAN PARK.

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 26.—Although the recent erratic swells and unusual tides have been playing havoc with ocean fishing, the coming of the pelicans and schools of porpoise are evidence that good things are in store for the nimrods. At this season of the year old hands at the rod and reel say fishermen will make no mistake by confining their labors to that portion of the bay most frequented by the spectacular diving fisher birds.

H. M. Todd has gone to Lower California, where he will look after the interests of a mining company near Alamo, about seventy-five miles inland from Ensenada.

E. J. Vawter, Sr., and Charles Mellen are making ready to start on a bear hunt in the high Sierras of Tulare country.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kelley have left for their home in Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Florence C. Porter will be the speaker at the meeting of the Crescent Bay Women's Club tomorrow afternoon.

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Book About Teeth Free

We want to send a copy of our book on teeth, entitled to every reader of this paper who has lost teeth or whose teeth need attention. Are yours in perfect order?

This book is profusely illustrated and it goes down deep into the subject of the teeth and how to care for them with a complete description of the wonderful Alveolar Method, by which we restore missing teeth without the use of plates or ordinary bridgework. No such comprehensive work on the teeth has ever been written before.

It tells how to prevent teeth troubles as well as how to cure them after they have become diseased.

The chapter on the cure of pyorrhea is alone worth a great deal to those who are suffering from this disease and have been told by dentists who are not posted that it is an incurable disease. WE CURE PYORRHEA.

This book is written in plain English so it can be understood by everybody who reads it.

For the man or woman who has lost teeth and is wearing a partial plate or a torturesome bridge it is a godsend, for the Alveolar Method will restore these missing teeth and do away with the plate or bridge. Alveolar teeth are just like nature's teeth, firm, beautiful and everlasting.

We want to get this book into your hands with as little trouble to you as possible. A line to us will bring the book to you free.

SORROWFUL.

FEAR STOPS MAN'S HEART.

Architect Yields Life in Horror of Asylum.

Designer, Sick Mentally, Dies of Fright.

Was Prominent in the East at One Time.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 26.—W. C. Clark had such a horror of life in an asylum that he died rather than be confined in the State institution at Patton. Clark was formerly a prominent architect. Financial troubles caused him to become unbalanced. His family and friends noticed a month ago that he was failing mentally and he was kept under close watch at his home on North Second street. Recently application was made to the Superior Court for a hearing on the grounds that he was insane and dangerous. A commission of doctors was appointed and the hearing was conducted Saturday. It is claimed Clark told members of his family they would never take him to an asylum.

The physicians declared the man was insane and the court ordered him sent to Patton. Sheriff Jennings was assigned the task. Sunday morning he went to the County Hospital where the man had been confined for two weeks and Clark appeared to be willing to accompany him. At that time he was able to walk, but appeared to be nervous and run down. By the time the railroad station was reached Clark became so weak he had to be carried into the coach. Jennings decided that there was something wrong with Clark, although the latter did not complain. Instead of proceeding with him to the asylum the Sheriff took the patient back to the County Hospital, telling the authorities there that he did not care to take a dead man to the asylum. Last night Clark died. Heart trouble is the cause given out by the County Hospital authorities. It is said by friends of Clark that fright from the horror of being confined in an asylum caused his death. Clark was about 45 years of age and leaves a family. It is said that at one time he was a prominent architect in the East.

EXPERIMENTAL CRUISE.

Under the auspices of the Biological Association the yacht Alexander Agassiz has started on a cruise along the Mexican coast to a point 300 miles south, for the purpose of making a number of experiments, including temperature readings of the water, soundings as to depths and to secure a collection of rare marine specimens. Those aboard are Dr. Fred Baker, Dr. Charlotte Baker, Prof. Wesley Crandall and Prof. John F. West, of the State Normal school. Capt. Dall and a crew of five man the vessel.

ADAMS FOR ASSEMBLY.

The Socialists of the county yesterday nominated Austin Adams as a candidate for assemblyman from the seventy-ninth district. He is a resident of La Jolla, where he conducts experiments in connection with the Biological Station. He was formerly associated with settlement work on the East Side in New York City. The Socialists also named a complete county ticket.

BURKE TRIAL.

The hearing of William Burke, who shot and killed his wife on the night of July 2, is now in progress in the Superior Court. The defendant is charged with murder in the first degree. Burke so far has not outlined his defense although it is inferred from the cross-examination of witnesses by his attorney that an attempt will be made to show he was crazed with liquor and was not responsible for the deed by reason of being provoked when his wife turned a hose on him. Burke married the woman in Los Angeles four years ago. She was then Mrs. Margaret Morse.

TIE KNOT STRONGLY.

Russian Couple Married in Los Angeles Have Second Ceremony on Moving to Another County.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 26.—Because they were unacquainted with the marriage laws in this country, John A. Levitt and Miss Eva Rainin have twice gone through the formality of securing a marriage license and subsequently having the ceremony performed. They would have secured a third license in Riverside county yesterday, and plighted their troth again, had they not learned by chance that a marriage in one county was valid in any other.

The young couple who are from Russia, first secured a license and were married in Los Angeles, six weeks ago. Going to San Bernardino county Monday they secured a second license. The County Clerk, not knowing that the knot had been tied in Los Angeles, informed them that in order to be legally married they would have to have the ceremony solemnized by a minister, or justice of the peace, and they followed his advice. Yesterday they came to Riverside where they learned that their nuptials were sufficiently binding to hold good in any county. The young people show evidences of wealth and refinement.

HUMOROUS.

PROMISED TO PAY IN BRICKS.

LEGAL SUIT OVER REMARKABLE NOTE AT SANTA ANA.

For Two Years Plaintiff Has Been Trying to Do Certain Work in Order That He Might Claim Building Material; Now He Asks for Cash Instead.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 26.—A promissory note, payable in bricks and coming due within thirty days after certain machinery should be overhauled and put in repair, is the subject of an action brought in the Superior Court today by W. S. Cherry against J. B. Raine.

Cherry claims that Raine will not allow him to do the overhauling and repairing of the machinery, hence the note cannot come due and Cherry cannot collect his bricks. Thus has the matter stood for over two years, says Cherry.

Cherry's complaint states that Cherry sold Raine some machinery that Raine contended was not in proper order. As a compromise, on April 3, 1906, Raine signed a note for $329.20, payable in bricks after the machinery was repaired. Cherry says he has tried repeatedly to be given an opportunity to do the repairing, but Raine will not give him access to the machinery. He asks the Superior Court to declare the note due, and he wants it paid in cash.

COULDN'T BEAT DEATH.

Joseph H. Miller, who last week was struck by a Santa Fé passenger train on the Santa Ana River bridge, northwest of Orange, died today from his injuries. Miller registered at Newport Beach, Santa Ana and Orange hotels as from San Bernardino, showed each hotel proprietor a certificate of deposit in a San Bernardino bank and beat each hotel out of his board bill. Officers were searching for him when he was run down by a train. He claimed to be here in search for a long-lost daughter. He was 62 years of age and a Union Army veteran.

CAUGHT IN COLTON.

Man Accused of Floating Worthless Paper in Several Towns Is Now in County Jail.

COLTON, Aug. 26.—E. C. Kirkpatrick, charged with forgery, was arrested this evening by a Redlands constable and Nightwatchman Cassidy. He is alleged to have forged the name of A. F. Webster, a well known resident of the Yucaipe Valley, to two checks of $10 each. He is also accused of similar offenses in Redlands and San Bernardino. He was taken to the County Jail.

ONTARIO.

ONTARIO, Aug. 26.—A large and enthusiastic crowd met the good roads boosters when they arrived from San Bernardino this morning. J. B. Gill, chairman of the County Good Roads Association, and W. L. Vestal, secretary, spoke at length. Literature and badges were distributed. Among other members of the association present were E. D. Roberts, treasurer, and George M. Cooley, chairman of the Highway Commission.

Work on the new Nazarine Church, on East C street, is progressing rapidly. The framework is almost finished.

HUNTINGTON BEACH.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 26.—At the pavilion this morning, in the presence of a big crowd, occurred the prize dance for the G.A.R. Veterans and the Ladies of the Auxiliary Corps. Mrs. Nina Brady of Long Beach won first prize, C. B. Eaton of Oakland, second, while the consolation prizes went to Mrs. H. M. Treat of Island Park and F. W. Hulse of Sawtelle.

In the afternoon about 100 children sang and recited and each was presented with a small American flag. The entertainment tonight was under the auspices of Santa Ana Corps and Post and an attractive programme was presented.

REDLANDS.

REDLANDS, Aug. 26.—Scipio Craig has been appointed a delegate to the National Irrigation Congress at Albuquerque, N. M.

September 21 is the date set by the County Supervisors for the sale of the $50,000 Lugonia school bonds, voted a few weeks ago.

Walter G. Driver of this city and Miss Bertha G. Elliott of Long Beach were married at the home of the bride's parents yesterday.

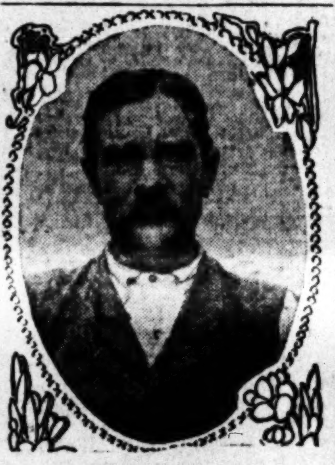
ROCKS USED IN BRUTAL MURDER.

INDIAN SUSPECTED OF KILLING SAN BERNARDINO MAN.

Passenger on Train Gets Glimpse of Red Man Standing Over Victim, but Supposes It Only Drunken Row. Strange Behavior of Wealthy Pennsylvanian—Gold Fever.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 26.—John Baldwin, an inoffensive man of middle age, and known to the officers as a victim of alcohol, has been murdered. The body was found this morning under a small viaduct south of First street. Apparently the crime was committed by the use of rocks, three of which were discovered, covered with blood.



Battered to Death.
John Baldwin of San Bernardino, whose life was crushed out with rocks by an Indian yesterday.

There are seventy-five wounds on the body, the back is frightfully bruised and in six places the head and face are laid open. The ground bears evidence that the murder took place near a fence, twenty feet from where the remains were found. After the killing they were dragged to the culvert.

P. H. Toland, city ticket agent for the Southern Pacific here, was a witness of the brutal murder. He did not realize until this afternoon that the affair was anything more than a drunken fight.

He was a passenger to Riverside yesterday on the 4:10 o'clock Salt Lake train, and passing the spot where the crime was committed, he saw Baldwin on his knees, trying to protect his face from a blow from an Indian, who stood above him, clutching a rock in both hands. There were two squaws just leaving the scene, one of them leading an infant. Sheriff Ralphs has many Indians under arrest.

Baldwin was a member of a respectable family, but became a frequenter of Indian haunts. He was last seen alive Monday evening. Undertaker McDonald, who has charge of the body, fixes the time of death at about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

STRANGE STORY.

James E. Gray, a wealthy resident of Sewickley, Pa., was taken to the County Hospital tonight, from Roanoke Hotel, because of his strange actions. He recently arrived from Chicago. Today he broke into the room of the 'bus driver, appropriated his clothes and shoes, and paraded the streets. Later he made off with a horse and carriage. At the hospital he explained that he had left home unconsciously, and first realized his condition when he found himself in a Chicago hospital. He supposed he was returning home when he took a train for California, and until tonight was unaware of his whereabouts. He was frantically eager to communicate with his wife and family, and sent a dispatch explaining his wanderings.

HALT IN DIVORCE ACTION.

Carrie M. Stewart this afternoon filed in the Superior Court a cross-complaint in the action for divorce brought against her originally at Los Angeles. Stewart has disappeared, and the court is seeking him to refute the wife's charges of perjury.

When the husband filed his action at Los Angeles, he claimed residence in that city, and swore that his wife had deserted him. She obtained a transfer of the action to this city, by proving San Bernardino to be the home of herself and husband. When the case was called for trial, she made the accusation that her husband had committed perjury in swearing that he resided in Los Angeles.

GOLD AT LYTLE CREEK?

Great interest centers in a gold discovery which was made recently in the Lytle Creek section by M. M. Larsen and Y. Glessner of Colton. On their first trip to the mountains they ran across a six-foot ledge, and assays from samples obtained at a depth of six feet show gold in the sum of $41.34. Many prospectors from this section are flocking to the scene.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Eggs from local producers were very scarce yesterday morning, and receipts reported were only 82 cases. The demand for them was good, and 15 cases were sold on the Produce Exchange. The selling price on case counts advanced 1 cent, while that on candled selects remained unaltered, but exceedingly firm. Unless arrivals increase today, another decided rise is looked for. Storage eggs, both local and eastern, were good sellers. Few northern eggs were received.

Immense butter receipts were reported—50,848 pounds. Creamery firsts were in fair demand, but cooking butter sold in largest quantities. On 'Change 240 pounds were traded. The market was not as firm as usual on account of the large arrivals, and there is a tendency toward a lower figure for a few days, while a small surplus now on hand, is cleaned up.

Cheese receipts were 2920 pounds. There was not the least interest shown in the commodity, and offerings were not made.

Potato receipts were 2008 sacks. The last of the old Oregon stock were placed on sale. A few Highlands were also put up. The market was a trifle easier on quotations, but did not break as expected.

Onion receipts were 52 sacks. There were offerings of Danvers and Australian Browns. Bean receipts were 50 sacks. Arrivals of sweet potatoes totaled 184 sacks. There was little call for any of the latter products.

Receipts of fruit and green vegetables were among the largest of the year. The market place was crowded early in the day, and prices were dropped to suit the condition, so that everything moved well, and there was no apparent glut, as is frequently the case when the arrivals are above the ordinary. Outside apple receipts were 717 boxes, of which many were Northern Spies. Peaches sold up to $1, and there were many yellow clingstones on hand that sold as low as 45 cents. Pears were fair sellers, and the late sugars were brought in for the first time. They were offered at 75 cents per lug box. There were no changes in grapes, and nearly every quoted variety was more than well represented.

Lettuce took a sudden jump to $1.25 a crate, the highest it has been this year. This is the season when the early lettuce has about been cleaned up, and the late varieties are not yet being sent in. Cabbage was also more firm. Chards was down a cent per pound. Celery was plentiful.

The fish market was well supplied for the first time during the week. Barracuda were especially plentiful. A few northern river salmon were brought in and sold well. There were no changes in live stock or meat quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

MARKET CLOSES VERY BULLISH.

RUSHING BUSINESS IN CHEAP ISSUES IN NORTH.

Most of These Advance from Three to Five Points—Big Blocks of Stock Absorbed—Bullfrogs Active for First Time in Months—Goldfields in Demand.

[Special service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, member Los Angeles-Nevada Mining Exchange.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The market closed very bullish with tremendous trading in the cheap stocks, most of them advancing 3 to 5 points.

Blue Bull opened at 14, closed at 17 bid; Red Hills opened at 32, closed at 35; Portland opened at 10 and closed at 12; Great Bend opened at 24, closed at 27; Mayflower opened at 7, closed at 12; Fraction opened at 1.50, closed at 1.60.

The public seems to be taking hold, and many brokers had orders from all parts of the country.

Some big blocks of stock which have been hanging over the market have been absorbed, and this cleared the atmosphere. One block of 33,000 shares of Portland was gotten out of the way when this stock climbed up from 10 to 12, and the same people who touted Red Hills and Booth say that Portland is good for 10 points.

For the first time in months the Bullfrogs showed activity, with Mayflower leading the procession.

Goldfield Consolidated, Florence and Fraction are in big demand and should sell higher.

Nat Boas says: "I think the purchase of the cheaper stocks, such as Portland, Red Hills, some of the Manhattans and Bullfrogs, are good for a rise of from 10 to 20 points, while all the other Goldfield stocks can be bought with perfect safety for higher prices."

The curb was strong and ran until 3 o'clock, with Fraction closing at 1.62½ bid, Booth at 48 bid, and Goldfield Consolidated at 6.55.

SHARES AND MONEY.

DULL DAY IN STOCK MARKET.

BUSINESS APPROACHES LOW MARK FOR SEASON.

Prices Remain Firm, but Investors Show Extreme Caution and Little Activity Is Anticipated Until Recent Events Are Better Understood. Bonds Steady.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Disappointment was the portion of those who thought that today's stock market would show some further reflection of the early week's turbulence. As a matter of fact, the day's business was almost the dullest for some weeks and nearly the smallest of any full day this year. Trading the first hour was under 63,000 shares and in the first hour less than 33,000 shares changed hands, while throughout the afternoon there were frequent periods of complete stagnation. The suspension of A. O. Brown & Co. is still shrouded in considerable mystery, but the Stock Exchange authorities are earnest in their promise to sift the matter to the bottom. Some uneasiness was felt at the outset of the day's operations, but reassuring advices from official sources soon imparted a firm tone to the list. The speculative faction is disinclined, for a variety of reasons, for making fresh ventures just now, and this attitude is quite certain to be maintained until a better understanding of recent events has been reached. Extreme caution is being manifested by investors and it is conceded that no business need be expected from that element for some time to come. The greater ease of money will be a favorable factor in straightening out any trouble that may have resulted from the recent spectacular market operations. A point tending to prove the inherent strength of underlying conditions is found in the fact that while the past fortnight has been one of the most memorable in the history of the local Stock Exchange, the average prices of the twenty leading railway issues show practically no change. The afternoon session brought little or no change, but under the lead of Southern Pacific, which reached a new high level at 1.01½, the entire list hardened and closed strong. Americans held firm in London, where there was evidence of bear operations for New York account. The day's grist of general news was discouraging for the most part, with further conflicting reports as to the state of trade. Inquiry for copper metal is slight, and a break in tin was reported from London. No change is noted in local monetary conditions. The demand is lighter than at any time this month.

Bonds were steady, the only feature being the sale of a large block of Union Pacific refunding 4's at a figure slightly under the subscription price.

Total sales of bonds, par value $3,822,001. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Chicago Dairy Market.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—On the Produce Exchange today the butter market was steady: creamery, 18½@22½; dairy, 17@20; eggs, steady at mark, cases included, [illegible]; firsts, 18½; prime firsts, 20; cheese, [illegible] 12½@13¼.

WEAK MEN

Vital decline, commonly called weakness, is the result of a diseased condition. The disturbing cause is nearly always found in the prostate gland, where the nerve center is located. The prostate becomes affected by one or more of several things, such as badly treated varicocele, indiscretions, excesses, etc. We published years ago the first information ever given out on prostatic trouble, as the cause of vital weakness. Since that time our theories have been accepted by all the best Eastern specialists. No one but a thorough specialist can succeed in curing these conditions. Anybody can advertise, but the genuine specialist only can cure.

We also cure, to stay cured, Varicocele, Specific Blood Poison, Contracted Disorders, and all diseases peculiar to men.

CONSULTATION FREE AND INVITED.

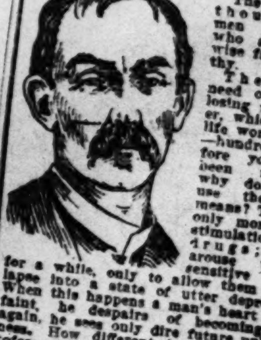
Nervous Debility



The ruin of thousands of men in vigor who are otherwise fairly healthy.

There's no need of a man losing this power, which makes life worth living—hundreds before you have been restored, why don't you use the same means? There is only momentary stimulation in drugs; they arouse the insensitive nerves for a while, only to allow them to relapse into a state of utter depression. When this happens a man's heart grows faint, he despairs of becoming well again, he sees only dire future unhappiness. How different is the man heretofore weak who starts applying Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt! The first morning finds him awakened and rested; how well he knows that he has had real relief; how encouraged he becomes and as day by day he improves he foresees the day when he will be a strong virile man, that which he never expected to be.

Any forlorn, weak, lonely man can be brought from misery to brightness by the new life-making force—Electricity generated through Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt and special electric suspensory.

Our Book is given free to every weak man who will send this ad.

*The maximum is for day before yesterday; the minimum for yesterday. The mean is the average temperature for the two days.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Aug. 26.—[Reported by A. B. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.01; at 5 p.m., 30.00. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 61 deg. and 70 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 88 per cent.; 5 p.m., 59 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 2 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 5 miles. Maximum temperature, 76 deg.; minimum, 59 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The western disturbance has divided into two parts, one of which is central over the British possessions north of the Dakotas, and the other over the Mississippi Valley. The pressure continues high over the Pacific Northwest and over the extreme northeastern portion of the country, while the Gulf storm is now central off the Carolina coast, apparently moving northward. This distribution of pressure has resulted in scattering showers in Arizona, New Mexico, Nebraska, Iowa, North Dakota and Western Texas, and light to heavy rains in the Middle Atlantic, New England and Gulf States. Elsewhere, fair weather has prevailed. The following heavy rainfalls are reported: Washington, D. C., 2.82 inches, and New York City, 2.65 inches. The indications are for fair weather in Los Angeles and vicinity for another thirty-six hours, with some cloudiness or fog Thursday morning.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair tonight and Thursday, with some cloudiness (high fog) Thursday morning; variable winds, mostly westerly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—It is slightly warmer in the great valley, except at Sacramento, where it is 8 deg. cooler. San Francisco is the coolest place in the United States of stations reporting. Forecasts:

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy Thursday, with fog; light southwest wind, changing to brisk west.

Santa Clara Valley: Fair Thursday, with fog in the morning; light north wind.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Thursday; light west wind.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy Thursday; light northeast wind, changing to south.

Arizona: Generally fair Thursday and Friday, except possibly occasional thunderstorms in north portion.

Flow of Southern Streams.

The following is a statement of the estimated flow of certain Southern California rivers and streams in the Yosemite Valley, in cubic feet per second, or second-feet, one second-foot equaling fifty miner's inches. The record is furnished by W. B. Clapp, engineer in charge of Water Resources Branch of the United States Geological Survey in California.

SEEK TO CONTROL WOOL.

Sheepmen Appoint Committee to Investigate National Storage of Western Fleeces.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 26.—The movement to curb the operations of the middlemen on the wool market by restoring to the sheepmen of the West absolute control of their product, received its strongest impulse yesterday from the Executive Committee of the National Wool Growers' Association, at its opening session in this city. This body has undertaken the solution of the larger problem of national storage for western wools, and to this end discussion was invited on the points of interest which hitherto have kept sentiment among sheepmen divided.

The Executive Committee announced the appointment of a sub-committee, headed by Fred W. Gooding, president of the National Wool Growers' Association, whose function it will be to visit the cities which have become active bidders for the favor of the wool growers, reporting later to the National Executive Committee.

The committee will leave here the second week in September, and it is understood that further discussion on the question of national storage will be deferred until its report has been submitted. Another meeting of the Executive Committee is set for today.

GENERAL EASTERN.

WHEAT MARKET FIRM ALL DAY.

MORE RAIN REPORTS STIMULATE BULLISH SENTIMENT.

Revival in Export Business Also Boosts Prices and Close Is Only a Trifle Below High Point at Net Gains—Corn Steady and Oats Is Strong—Provisions Firm.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Reports of additional rain in the western provinces of Canada greeted traders in the wheat pit and brought out a fairly active demand at the opening, which resulted in initial advances of 1-8@1-4 to 3-8@½. The weather map for Minnesota and the Dakotas gave additional stimulus to bullish sentiment, the official forecast being for rain today in those three important spring-wheat States. As trading progressed reports began to circulate in the pit which told of a revival in export business, both for wheat and flour. Sales of cash wheat here was reported at 150,000 bushels, the bulk of which was for export, and Kansas City reported an equal amount, most of which was for shipment abroad. The total sales, including fourteen boatloads of Durum at New York for Mediterranean points, were estimated at 412,000 bushels. Minneapolis also claimed exporters were liberal purchasers of flour. Those advices caused the market to rule firm all day. The close was firm at a trifle below the high point and at net gains of 3-8@½ to 5-8, compared with the previous close.

Corn closed steady, with prices unchanged to 1-4@3-8 higher, compared with the previous close.

Oats closed strong. Final quotations showed net gains of 3-8@5-8 for the day.

Provisions closed firm, with net gains of 2½@10 cents.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour was firm; No. 3 spring wheat, 95@1.05; No. 2 red, 95¼@95¾; No. 2 corn, 78¾@79; No. 2 yellow, 79@80; No. 2 white oats, 51¼@53; No. 3 white, 49@50½; No. 2 rye, 77½; good feeding barley, 60@63; fair to choice malting, 63@66; No. 1 northwestern flaxseed, 1.30; prime timothy seed, 3.75; short ribs, sides (loose), 8.60@8.85; mess pork, per bbl., 14.40@14.50; lard, per 100 lbs., 9.32½; short clear sides (boxed), 9.00@9.25; whisky, basis of high wines, 1.27.

New York Cotton Market.

[By private wire to E. F. Hutton & Co., Bankers and Brokers, members New York Stock Exchange, No. 112 West Third st.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—On firm cables and bullish crop news cotton opened firm with trading active. The feature was the heavy floods in the eastern part of the belt, where damage is reported. Some southern buying orders in market confirmed this. We would call attention to the condition two years ago, when cotton sold around these prices, and thirty days later heavy storms changed the position, and the market advanced 2 cents a pound. The market now is in a position to advance sharply on any unfavorable news, and we would prefer the long side on the breaks.

Greene says: "The chief news here is the New York Commercial report of heavy floods and storms in North and South Carolina, doing enormous damage. They claim it is the worst since 1840. There is more rain predicted and, as we have stated recently, cotton is not yet made. Two years ago, when the crop outlook was so bright, there came a thirty-days rainy spell later than this time of the year, and cotton went up 200 points with the following just as bearish then as it is now. With it around 8.50 for October, I would buy it."

A. V. & Co. say: "The heavy rains in the Atlantic States put a different basis on the market today. Shorts were inclined to cover. Bulls were not aggressive. In fact, the selling of August and October by some brokers indicates that some long accounts were being reduced on the recovery. With the extent of damage rains, the market may lose its gain, but we think caution should be used in selling the market at its present discount under Southern quotations."

"WILD HORSE BILL" LEAVES.

Sheriff Bowles left for Snyder, Tex., yesterday morning, with "Wild Horse Bill" Hill, who is wanted in that town on the charge of "rustling" horses. The prisoner states that he can prove his innocence and that there is a conspiracy against him.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

OUR NEIGHBOR GETS IT BACK.

RESTORED CONFIDENCE IS FELT THROUGHOUT MEXICO.

Sonora Banker Reports Mining Industry Reviving, Travel on the Increase, and Good Times Ahead. Says Recent "Revolution" May Be Compared With Springfield Riots.

Bringing news of a rapidly returning prosperity and restored confidence throughout the western portion of Mexico, and, indeed, the whole country, after the recent financial depression, Adolph Bley, president of the Sonora National Bank of Hermosillo, arrived yesterday afternoon at the Lankershim. He is accompanied by his wife and Miss Dolores Rivera, and stated that he will remain here for a month at least while enjoying the cooler climate which Los Angeles affords. Mr. Bley, as president and largest stockholder in the State depository of Sonora, an institution which has a capital of $1,000,000 and a surplus exceeding even that immense amount, with branches in Nogales, Alamos, Guaymas and Chihuahua, may be regarded as an authority.

"Many of our activities were greatly hampered for some time," said he. "The mining industry, which is the chief one of the section in which I reside, was quiet for a time, but within the past two months there has been an awakening, and properties are again worked, bringing their wealth from the earth into a medium of exchange. Travel in our direction has also been on the increase, denoting, as you can readily see, renewed prosperity. Bank exchanges have been larger recently than for six or seven months past, and we are looking forward to an actual boom in the near future."

In speaking of revolutionary troubles, Mr. Bley, who though for the past twenty years engaged in various pursuits in Mexico, dropped from the English to German, he being of that nationality, and expressed himself emphatically against the credence which the American people seem to place in the small uprisings in Sonora and other sections of the great Southern Republic. "Why, the recent uprising was only that of a small number of robbers, bandits of the same character that terrorized Chicago a year or so ago. You can compare it with the recent Springfield riots if you will. There was only a handful of riffraff banded together for the small loot obtainable at the moment with escape across the American border or to the inaccessible mountains toward the interior in view. The mistake of calling these little upheavals revolutions has arisen in the public mind of this country through the overthrow of small governments in Central America every few months. These are so little that several hundred men on either side can bring about an entire change of régime. Mexico, on the other hand, is a republic of considerable dimension, and well populated, with a government which is very difficult to surpass in any country, and which holds a firm military whip over the possible insurrectionists."

This led to a discussion of the proposed new mining legislation by the Mexican government. According to Mr. Bly, it is as essential for honest American promoters, and those who have really developed mines in the country as it is for the government. "The trouble heretofore has been and will remain in the curbing of the dishonest promoters," he declared. "A great number of these float into the mining districts, locate a claim showing a little color, spend perhaps a hundred dollars in Mexican money, and then float stock on the American market for hundreds of thousands or even millions of dollars, which is eagerly purchased by a gullible public, until such a time when the promoter decamps with the gross receipts and leaves nothing in return. What the Mexican government wants is a just taxation, such as will protect every investor, and which is not opposed by such people as the Cananea Consolidated Copper Company and others of the same stamp, who are doing actual work and paying a justifiable sum into the coffers of the government which is protecting them."

Importance of development on the new Western Mexican Pacific railroad was commented on. "When that has been completed, it will open a territory which is one of the richest in the world in mineral deposits, as well as one fully capable of supporting thousands of farmers on the many acres of rich and tillable soil," said Mr. Bley.

CAUGHT IN BRAZIL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Aug. 26.—A cablegram to County Sheriff McGorray from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, today said that two Cleveland officers are returning, having in custody Anton F. Bonnelli, the Italian banker, who is charged with having misapplied $70,000 belonging to depositors of his bank. Bonnelli disappeared about three months ago. Eventually he was traced to Brazil, where he was taken into custody by the Brazilian authorities.

THOROUGH AND PROMPT CURES FOR

DR. MILES,
The Master Specialist.

My Fee for a Cure of Any Disorder Is Only $10.00

In Any Uncomplicated Case.
PAY ME WHEN CURED.

The reason I have placed my fee at the above figure is that I want every weak or debilitated man to avail himself of my treatment, no matter whether he be a millionaire or wage-earner. My immense practice alone enables me to do this. In the practice of my profession it has ever been my chief aim to offer my skill to as great a number of sufferers as possible. My first care is to alleviate suffering wherever I find it, regardless of the sufferer's social or financial status.

I Guarantee a Cure

What I offer to do for the above-named fee no other physician or specialist could do for you for any amount, no matter how great. The reason is that I am the only medical practitioner who GUARANTEES a cure of all the ailments of men. I can make such a guarantee because I know that my methods never fail to cure every case I accept for treatment. If, after diagnosing a case, I have any doubt as to whether I can cure it, I positively refuse to treat it. In point of fact, however, 90 per cent. of the cases that come to me are curable—by my treatment.

I Cure Many So-Called Incurable Cases

No matter if you have been pronounced incurable by others, don't hesitate to come to me for treatment. I have cured hundreds of men who were told they were incurable. But bear in mind that my methods will cure cases that are practically incurable by any other treatment. My methods are original with me, and are known to no other physician.

"Weakness"

"Weakness" is merely a symptom of local disorder, usually an inflamed condition of the prostate gland. This I overcome by a thoroughly scientific system of local treatment, and the full and normal edgree of strength and vigor is permanently restored.

Consultation Free

No matter what your ailment is, come and have a private talk with me. Even if you are not prepared to undergo treatment at this time, I can always give helpful suggestions to men who are diseased or weak. If you cannot come to my office, write.

Advanced Methods

Distinctively My Own

In the treatment of men's diseases I employ original methods that 15 years of careful study and practice have developed. They have proved supremely effective. Like results has been attained by no other forms of treatment. The cures accomplished mark them as methods superior to those now common to the profession. In the treatment of some cases my procedure is radically different from the ordinary. In other cases it is but partially different, but in every instance I can justly claim originality and distinctiveness. I mention this because thousands of men have employed various specialists and have been treated alike and disappointed alike by each.

Of the Following Diseases Peculiar to MEN

Weakness, Varicocele, Prostatic Trouble, Stricture, Blood Poison, Contracted Diseases, Hydrocele, Losses, Drains, etc.

The man who suffers with any of the above—who is ill—who knows not what the ailment is, on whom to entrust his case to—will find in my reliable methods a safe haven of refuge. My long experience, my prestige, my success—all insure you the best of treatment in my hands. Consultation is free. Come and talk it over at once—today.

CHAPTER XII.

dy Kitty was at home when Van- en called, on the following day. mother had gone out, observing: m going to the park, Kitty. Amer- young men (when they call on a do not like to find the room lit- with the débris of past genera-. It fetters their form and dams heir flow of language." She put head through the door again to t Lady Kitty only smiled, for it the mystery of the back of the e which appealed to her imagination. The girl was very highly intuitive, inspirational—call it what you will. Abdul von Tarsenheim would have classified her as one of the notes in tune with the master chord, and the fact of her life crossing Vandraken's would have delighted him as an experiment in psychic chemistry.

Left alone in the drawing-room, Lady Kitty went over to her own corner of the room, where her writing desk was. On top of it stood a small screen-shaped photograph frame, which held six young men's pictures. "My vanished dream collection," as the girl called it. "Soldier, sailor, rich man, poor man, cowboy, poet!" she hummed, and drew from the frame the photograph of a dark, poetical-looking boy, evidently taken at Oxford. "I think we might have had it very badly, Fabian, dear," she said to the picture, "if we had seen any more of one another. I found it quite hard not to answer your letters, and I must sing that sad song of yours just once more. It shall be the swan song of the episode."

She went over the piano, propped up the photograph on the music rack, back toward her, and sang the words written there. It was called "The Sea of Silence," and Lady Kitty had put it into music herself:

There's an Isle in the Sea of Silence,
A river, the River of Pain,
Streams through from the shores of the silent sea
To the silent sea again.
That sea is Death, and that sea is Birth,
The river is Life and the isle the Earth;
A night of storm on that river of pain,
Then the sea of silence once again,
Dear sea of silence once again.

I have asked of the storm life's purpose,
The isle and the cruel stream;
But the echo of the question mocks
Like laughter in a dream.
The Might-have-been as a wreck is shown
By the lightning-flash. Then the storm's hoarse moan,
Till the sun comes out and the storm is past,
And God's true purpose is clear at last
On the sea of silence 'tis clear at last.

Lady Kitty had been quite clever in arranging the music so that it changed from sad to gay as the sun came out. She began to sing the last verse again, but was interrupted by the entrance of the footman.

"Is your ladyship at home to Mr. Vandraken?" he asked.

"Show him into the boudoir, William," she ordered, looking up from the piano, and as the footman left the room she went on singing to herself the last verse, very softly—then closed the piano, put away the photograph of Fabian Dare among some music, and went to the boudoir to receive the call of Standish Vandraken.

Vandraken was in high spirits. He had enjoyed an adventure the night before which had more than ever confirmed his belief in the efficacy of Von Tarsenheim's treatment. He had never felt more boyish and lighthearted than when he took Lady Kitty's hand, but it lay in his a moment longer than politeness required, and a moment is a long time at certain crises of our lives—not long enough for a train to move an inch, but long enough for a thought to flash round the world.

As their hands fell apart Vandraken had a curious feeling that this girl might, if he came too much in contact with her, undo some of Von Tarsenheim's work—by some conscience-grafting process, some transfusion of personality, replace the conscience he had got rid of. And the girl felt that there was some vacuum in the man's soul which was trying to fill itself from hers. As a shutter of a camera opens and closes, making no change in the appearance of the instrument, but leaving an impression inside, to be developed later, so swift did the thought take shape and vanish, as an undercurrent in the stream of conventional thought. The outward processes of their minds hardly lost step. Indeed, Lady Kitty rushed all the swifter into badinage, realizing that a bridge was needed.

"You have a reputation to maintain, Mr. Vandraken," she said as she handed him a tea cup. "But perhaps you can only sparkle at night."

"Like the stars, Lady Kitty? How nice of you to suggest the simile, and how reassuring to know that I didn't bore you. Are you easily bored?"

"Not easily, but often. Frightfully often. You see, mamma won't let me have much to do with ineligibles, and the others think they have done enough for me by sitting and looking rich, or forcing a revelation of one's ignorance of politics, machinery, or the latest betting. They never talk about themselves—I suppose they consider it a sacred subject—only about what they have or what they do."

"But, surely, Lady Kitty, being hard up doesn't make a man amusing? How could it?"

"They have to sing for their supp and twitter for their tea, and that ge them into good habits. But I forgot you are a millionaire yourself. Ho did you ——"

"Well, you see," answered the you man, after a momentary pause, "Am ican girls won't stand for bores. W have an expression 'Money talk but it has got to talk amazingly t the American woman, or flock by it self. But, after all, humor, gaiety, responsiveness, are all rather like safety matches—they must have a box to strike on. Don't you think so? But what a delightful little room. Why—yes, it is 'The Frivolity.' I didn't recognize it at first."

"It is mamma's boudoir."

"I do like this effect of tarnished gold. It blends with your hair and your dress, and that brings out your eyes. They look like turquoises set in gold."
